Two Sides to Every Murder Danielle Valentine, 2025-07-29 A NEW YORK TIMES BESTSELLER Friday the 13th meets The Parent Trap in this terrifying young adult thriller by the author of How to Survive Your Murder Now in paperback with a stunning first edition featuring red stained edges Most people's births aren't immortalized in a police report but Olivia was born during the infamous Camp Lost Lake murders Seventeen years later Olivia's life looks pretty perfect until she discovers the man she calls dad is not her biological father Now she wants answers about her bloodline and the only place she knows to look is Camp Lost Lake Most people don't spend their formative years on the run with an alleged murderer but Reagan did In the court of public opinion her mom was found guilty of the deaths at Camp Lost Lake and both of them have been in hiding ever since But Reagan believes in her mother's innocence and is determined to clear her name Luckily for Olivia and Reagan Camp Lost Lake is finally reopening providing the perfect opportunity to find answers But someone else is dead set on keeping the past hidden even if it means committing murder A must read for fans of true crime dark family secrets and intricate mysteries Ryan La Sala bestselling author of The Honeys Homicide Bal K. Jerath, Rajinder Jerath, 2020-08-26 Homicide represents the result of an exhaustive search of the world literature regarding homicide More than 7 000 entries have been compiled from references selected from major indexes in libraries from outstanding universities government agencies and military posts science libraries law libraries and the Library of Congress Each entry features a one or two word annotation that indicates whether it is an article or a book and all entries conform to the American Psychological Association stylebook guidelines Key word and author indexes provide quick access to works pertaining to particular subjects or by a certain author Colonial Mediascapes Matthew Cohen, Jeffrey Glover, 2014-04-01 In colonial North and South America print was only one way of communicating Information in various forms flowed across the boundaries between indigenous groups and early imperial settlements Natives and newcomers made speeches exchanged gifts invented gestures and inscribed their intentions on paper bark skins and many other kinds of surfaces No one method of conveying meaning was privileged and written texts often relied on nonwritten modes of communication Colonial Mediascapes examines how textual and nontextual literatures interacted in colonial North and South America Extending the textual foundations of early American literary history the editors bring a wide range of media to the attention of scholars and show how struggles over modes of communication intersected with conflicts over religion politics race and gender This collection of essays by major historians anthropologists and literary scholars demonstrates that the European settlement of the Americas and European interaction with Native peoples were shaped just as much by communication challenges as by traditional concerns such as religion economics and resources Catalogue of the Dramas and Dramatic Poems Contained in the Public Library of Cincinnati Public Library of Cincinnati and Hamilton County, 1879 Monthly Murders , 1982-02-25 Product information not available The Films of the Eighties Robert A.
