Ward,Ken Burns,2020-02-04 The vivid voices that speak from these pages are not those of historians or scholars They are the voices of ordinary men and women who experienced and helped to win the most devastating war in history in which between 50 and 60 million lives were lost Focusing on the citizens of four towns Luverne Minnesota Sacramento California Waterbury Connecticut Mobile Alabama The War follows more than forty people from 1941 to 1945 Woven largely from their memories the compelling unflinching narrative unfolds month by bloody month with the outcome always in doubt All the iconic events are here from Pearl Harbor to the liberation of the concentration camps but we also move among prisoners of war and Japanese American internees defense workers and schoolchildren and families who struggled simply to stay together while their men were shipped off to extinction and it lasts forever and when the wolfman did the sums of early Tasmania it all added up This was except for one thing the existence of the truly last Thylacine Wolf hiding out somewhere life giving and life preserving from the ever hunters and the always killers This made it all the more urgent for the to find the great beast first in order to brace up its unique animal kind courage before they tracked it down They are always tracking it down But the was Man and also Wolf as one and he was on the scent too that for every eye done to extinction was a human hunter's eye and for every done in eye tooth was a human hunter's tooth And for flesh what better than human flesh But first there was his famous arch enemy to hunt down and run from both It was bad enough when he planted his foot in the wrong place and the Army's report about it concluding In any hairy situations this will undoubtedly change how he gets a lot of looks But what would the Army know about the trauma that transmogrifies It's always been nits or nothing with him anyhow It's just that the wolfman didn't want to end up like the presumed last Tasmanian Wolf hanging from a rafter That great shame      Club at Eddy's Bar
