Personalized Exposure Therapy Jasper A.J. Smits,Mark B. Powers,Michael W. Otto,2019-07-19 This practical hands on resource for clinicians interested in using exposure therapy is full of case examples scripts and worksheets that will help clinicians plan and prepare for sessions Izzy, The CBs, and The Ubiquity , "Being Down" Ronnie Casella,2001-01-01 Research reveals the causes of violence in a high school including social inequality among students and the lack of prevention efforts by the staff and proposes reforms to alleviate this growing problem in all schools Turning Mental Health into Social Action Bernard Guerin,2020-07-19 This book offers a refreshing new approach to mental health by showing how mental health behaviours lived experiences and our interventions arise from our social worlds and not from our neurophysiology gone wrong It is part of a trilogy which offers a new way of doing psychology focusing on people s social and societal environments as determining their behaviour rather than internal and individualistic attributions Mental health behaviours are carefully analysed as ordinary behaviours which have become exaggerated and chronic because of the bad life situations people are forced to endure especially as children This shifts mental health treatments away from the dominance of psychology and psychiatry to show that social action is needed because many of these bad life situations are produced by our modern society itself By providing new ways for readers to rethink everything they thought they knew about mental health issues and how to change them Bernard Guerin also explores how by changing our environmental contexts our local societal and discursive worlds we can improve mental health interventions This book reframes mental health into a much wider social context to show how societal structures restrict our opportunities and pathways to produce bad life situations and how we can also learn from those who manage to deal with the very same bad life situations through crime bullying exploitation and dropping out of mainstream society rather than through the mental health behaviours By merging psychology and psychiatry into the social sciences Guerin seeks to better understand how humans operate in their social cultural economic patriarchal discursive and societal worlds rather than being isolated inside their heads with a faulty brain and this will provide fascinating reading for academics and students in psychology and the social sciences and for counsellors and therapists Shock Value Jason Zinoman,2011-07-07 In the dark underbelly of 1970s cinema an unlikely group of directors rewrote the rules of horror breathing new life into the genre and captivating audiences like never before Much has been written about the storied New Hollywood of the 1970s but while Steven Spielberg and Martin Scorsese were producing their first classic movies a parallel universe of directors gave birth to the modern horror film Shock Value tells the unlikely story of how directors like Wes Craven Roman Polanski and John Carpenter revolutionized the genre plumbing their deepest anxieties to bring a gritty realism and political edge to their craft From Rosemary's Baby to Halloween the films they unleashed on the world created a template for horror that has been relentlessly imitated but rarely matched Based on unprecedented access to the genre's major players this is an enormously entertaining account of a hugely influential golden age in American film

Knowledge and Ideology Michael Morris, 2016-11-10 Ideology critique generally seeks to undermine selected theories and beliefs by demonstrating their partisan origins and their insidious social functions This approach rightly reveals the socially implicated nature of much purported knowledge but also brackets or bypasses its cognitive properties In contrast Michael Morris argues that it is possible to integrate the social and epistemic dimensions of belief in a way that preserves the cognitive and adjudicatory capacities of reason while acknowledging that reason itself is inevitably social historical and interested Drawing upon insights from Hegel Lukács Mannheim and Habermas he interprets and reconstructs Marx's critique of ideology as a positive theory of knowledge one that reconciles the inherently interested and inextricably situated nature of thought with more traditional conceptions of rational adjudication normativity and truth His wide ranging examination of the social and epistemic dimensions of ideology will interest readers in political philosophy and political theory
