Reading, Writing, and Rising Up Linda Christensen, 2000 Give students the power of language by using the inspiring ideas in this very readable book The Foxfire Book of Appalachian Women Kami Ahrens, 2023-01-19 In 1966 in Rabun County Georgia a group of high school English students created the Foxfire magazine a literary journal that celebrated Appalachian stories peoples and culture The publication was filled with poetry and prose from local students and authors and featured interviews with community members These oral histories quickly became the focal point of the magazine and eventually the material that generated the multivolume Foxfire book series Now pulled from the vast Foxfire archive comes the first volume in the series focused specifically on the lives of Appalachian women These remarkable narratives illuminate a diverse regional culture held together by the threads that are woven between women and place and through generations Told sometimes with humor sometimes with sadness but always with a gripping rawness and honesty the stories recount women's lived experiences from the 1960s to the present The interviews cover work family and community illuminating Cherokee Black and white women's experiences changes in Appalachian culture and the importance of relationships in daily life Reading each interview in this book is almost like joining these women on their porches and in their homes as they take us on a journey through their lives Taken together the stories speak against regional stereotypes and offer instead a sampling of the many expressions of these women's strength Rise Up Singing Cecelie

Berry, 2009-02-04 From a dazzling array of well known African American women short fiction poems and personal essays that describe with warmth and humor their experiences as mothers and as daughters A sparkling anthology devoted to exploring the lives of African American mothers Rise Up Singing presents the stories and reflections of such beloved and respected artists journalists and authors as Alice Walker Faith Ringgold Marita Golden Martha Southgate Tananarive Due Maya Angelou Gwendolyn Brooks Deborah Roberts Rita Dove and others It features original and previously published writings organized by editor Cecelie Berry by themes mothering work family children community and love that illuminate the multiple roles of black mothers at home in the neighborhood and in the world as a whole Rise Up Singing brings together the perspectives of women of different ages backgrounds and accomplishments What shines through in their writings are the hopes shared by all mothers As Marian Wright Edelman writes in the Foreword The mothers writing in this anthology speak in a range of voices They are joyful stressed grateful ambivalent determined disappointed and in bad ways and good overwhelmed But over and over again we see mothers struggling with the push striving to give their children their best and to make sure the world gives their children its best hard as that fight may be

The One-eyed Man Larry L. King, 2001 In the 1960s when the Supreme Court rules that African Americans must be admitted to the university in an unnamed Southern state Governor Cullie Blanton is about to run for re election One of his opponents is Bayonet Bill Wooster an ex marine general who bases his campaign on fear of racial integration fear of Communists and fear of the federal government he presents himself as the leader in a holy war against the incumbent infidel The other candidate is Poppa Posey a former governor who raises hound dogs quotes Shakespeare and hopes to use Wooster s money to split support for Blanton Only Blanton understands that integration is inevitable and that his task must be to make the transition as painless and bloodless as possible That he fails may be due in part to his freewheeling power driven personality But Blanton is also defeated by inertia tradition and demagoguery He is as he once describes himself someone who just got in the way of goddamn history Is the state Texas and the governor Lyndon B Johnson King denies it arguing that there are equal parts of Huey Long Herman Talmadge and Alfalfa Bill Murray But as Erisman says in his foreword Blanton in his wheeling and dealing his crudities and profanity his ruthlessness and his compassion is a dead on portrait of LBJ in full cry The One Eyed Man presents a hauntingly clear picture of the 1960s in the South the national grief over the assassination of President John F Kennedy the racial turmoil the human dilemma faced by North and South alike And it poses haunting questions for the reader what separates the demagogue from the leader What injustices are acceptable in the name of a larger justice Who determines the greatest good for the greatest number
