A Confident Peace Dr. Mark Becton, 2013-09-12 A Confident Peace shows the book of Revelation as more than prophetic timelines or tales with apocalyptic images It inspires full surrender to Christ and living with confident peace even when life falls apart When hurt by the sins of others when persecuted by ungodly governments when impacted by the death and disease of a fallen world when frustrated by friends and family who repeatedly turn from God instead of to Him Revelation helps us walk these unwanted roads with confident peace A Confident Peace also reminds us the more things change the more they stay the same God's holiness Satan's deception and humanity's sinfulness are constants from age to age Looking into the future Revelation gives us a confident peace to recognize Satan's deceptions overcome our sinful inclinations and honor God with our lives today Furthermore A Confident Peace gives us God's big picture It reminds us the One who started it all wins it all With over 550 Old Testament references the book of Revelation ties together God's activity throughout scripture Seeing the thread of God's hand tightly woven in our past and future gives us confident peace especially when it feels life is unraveling all around us

God alone cannot suffice for such a government to work It is the most necessary prerequisite for such a government to exist But it cannot retain it cannot nurture it because the government is a covenant a pact made between God and the individual If we lose faith in the individual we break the sacred pact Being granted so many gifts the last act is in our own hands we are the City on the Hill when we believe we are the City on the Hill When we act the part we are the Light of the world and the Inspiration to the World It is really simple if enough individuals carry out this leap of faith a new critical mass will be reached and a miracle will turn the tide in our affairs once more and we like the patriots of old will once again fulfill our own self actualization process and bequeath to our posterity the ability and responsibility to reach their own Restore: A

Eden's Garden Richard J. Coleman,2007 The time is ripe for a robust discussion of human nature In Eden's Garden Rethinking Sin and Evil in an Era of Scientific Promise Richard Coleman examines the notion of sin in a contemporary world that values scientific and nonreligious modes of thought regarding human behavior This work is not an anti science polemic but rather an argument to show how sin and evil can make sense to the nonreligious mind and how it is valuable to make sense of such phenomena The author reconceptualizes sin and evil as indelible pieces of our evolutionary history preventing them from being ostracized as too religious without substance mired in the past Coleman redeems theology for what it can offer to the understanding of sin and evil while embracing and respecting what science can offer to further the common good Examining themes in religion philosophy and theology it is ideal for use in the numerous courses that move across these
