Expressions: an Art Educational Voyage Dr. Lonnie G. Ford, 2009-08-28 Several years ago I enrolled in a graduate course on educational research that focused on closing the achievement gap for African American children The course was structured to explore issues causes and concerns for the achievement gap Studying different educational outcomes reading books and articles we regularly shared our insights about some leading causes Most importantly we were instructed to stay within our subject areas when finding any contributions to that gap In my attempt to complete the assignment of researching possible causes in my discipline of art education I found myself frustrated and angry Why There were no research studies exploring how art education was a part of the equation leading to solutions in closing the gap In addition there were no basic instructions or curricula designed to make connections to the art student to develop critical thinking skills or to incorporate the use of students life experiences for learning Furthermore I felt that art education was used as a testing ground in urban schools like the Chicago Public Schools using Teaching Artists to teach art with no teaching certification or teaching qualifications Booth 2003 The purpose of this approach was to use their knowledge and practices of art to influence change in students learning This kind of experiment branched away from any real effort to integrate art education and truly recognize it as a viable core subject area While conducting research for the course I found that researchers defined the achievement gap between white and African American students solely in terms of the four core subjects of math science social studies and language arts with no attention given to art education e g Berlak 2001 Honig 2001 Limn 2000 Sacks 2000 A study by the National Black Caucus entitled Closing the Achievement Gap Improving Education Outcomes for African American Children November 2001 reports Make improving the literacy skills of students a top priority Students who cannot read will experience little success in school Reading is the key to academic achievement in every subject ranging from math and English to science and history We must put reading first by finding initiatives and programs designed to strengthen the reading skills of students particularly low performing students Again there was no mention of art As both an African American and an art teacher I found it very disturbing that the recommendations of many national and local art educational organizations and schools failed to address the importance of teaching art education in African American urban school settings My dissertation research ultimately arose from this concern Studies in Art Education ,2004 Celebrating

Pluralism F. Graeme Chalmers, 1996-01-01 Educational trends will change and research agendas will shift but art teachers in public institutions will still need to educate all students for multicultural purposes argues Chalmers in this fifth volume in the Occasional Papers series Chalmers describes how art education programs promote cross cultural understanding recognize racial and cultural diversity enhance self esteem in students cultural heritage and address issues of ethnocentrism stereotyping discrimination and racism After providing the context for multicultural art education Chalmers examines the implications for art education of the broad themes found in art across cultures Using discipline based art education as a framework he suggests ways to design and implement a curriculum for multicultural art education that will help students find a place for art in their lives Art educators will find Celebrating Pluralism invaluable in negotiating the approach to multicultural art education that makes the most sense to their students and their communities □□□□□□□□□□--□□□□□□□□□□ ,1995 The Journal of Social Theory in Art Education ,1991 The History of Art Education Albert Arthur Anderson (Jr.),Paul Erik Bolin,1997 Educating About Social Issues in the 20th and 21st Centuries Vol. 3 Samuel Totten,Jon Pedersen,2014-01-01 EDUCATING ABOUT SOCIAL ISSUES IN THE 20th and 21st Centuries A Critical Annotated Bibliography Volume 3 is the third volume in a series that addresses an eclectic host of issues germane to teaching and learning about social issues at the secondary level of schooling ranging over roughly a one hundred year period between 1915 and 2013 Volume 3 specifically addresses how an examination of social issues can be incorporated into the extant curriculum Experts in various areas each contribute a chapter in the book Each chapter is comprised of a critical essay and an annotated bibliography of key works germane to the specific focus of the chapter Art History and Education Stephen Addiss,Mary Erickson,1993 Guided by Stephen Addiss s grounding in art history scholarship and Mary Erickson s expertise in art education theory and practice this volume approaches the issue of teaching art history from theoretical and philosophical as well as practical and political standpoints In the first section Addiss raises issues about the discipline of art history In the second Erickson examines proposals about how art history can be incorporated into the general education of children and offers some curriculum guides and lesson plans for art educators Journal of Multi-cultural and Cross-cultural Research in Art Education ,1998 Design for Inquiry Elizabeth Manley Delacruz,1997 El-Hi Textbooks & Serials in Print, 2000 ,2000 Visual Arts Research ,2007 The New Handbook of Research on Music Teaching and Learning Richard Colwell,Carol Richardson,2002-04-18 Featuring chapters by the world s foremost scholars in music education and cognition this handbook is a convenient collection of current research on music teaching and learning This comprehensive work includes sections on arts advocacy music and medicine teacher education and studio instruction among other subjects making it an essential reference for music education programs The original Handbook of Research on Music Teaching and Learning published in 1992 with the sponsorship of the Music Educators National Conference MENC was hailed as a welcome addition to the literature on music education because it serves to provide definition and unity to a broad and complex field Choice This new companion volume again with the sponsorship of MENC explores the significant changes in music and arts education that have taken place in the last decade Notably several chapters now incorporate insights from other fields to shed light on multi cultural music education gender issues in music education and non musical outcomes of music education Other chapters offer practical information on maintaining musicians health training music teachers and evaluating music education programs Philosophical issues such as musical cognition the philosophy of research theory curriculum and educating musically are also explored in relationship to policy issues In addition to surveying the literature each chapter considers the significance of the research and provides suggestions for future study Covering a broad range of topics and addressing the issues of music education at all age levels from early childhood to motivation and self regulation this handbook is an invaluable resource for music teachers researchers and scholars Research in Education ,1971-12
