Smug Minority Pierre Berton, 2012-12-18 This is a book about freedom and the lack of it in Canada freedom from useless and often degrading toil freedom from want and freedom from ignorance It is Pierre Berton's thesis documented by public statements made over the past generation that a smug minority of business and political leaders has conspired to inhibit that freedom The establishment says Berton has brainwashed the public into believing a series of myths which have no validity in a post Puritan age These myths include such old saws as A woman's place is in the home Anybody can work his way through college Satan finds more mischief still for idle hands to do Too much security kills initiative It's your own fault you're so poor The author indicts his fellow countrymen for failing to invest in human beings in the same way that they invest in power plants highways and gold mines His researches into poverty in Canada and into inequalities of the educational system will shock a good many readers just as his theories on work and leisure will enrage others raised in the Calvinist ethic The book ranges over a wide variety of topics the hippie movement in Toronto's Yorkville village the author's personal experiences in a Yukon mining camp the future of educational television in Canada the Chamber of Commerce's abortive Operation Freedom campaign But always Berton hammers on his central theme that the nation has been held back by an inbred power elite Selfish narrow short sighted men unable to grasp the vision of the future imprisoned by a bookkeeping attitude to life creeping silently and blindly along at the tail end of the parade of progress The Smug Minority is certain to stimulate the same kind of national debate that the author's previous best selling book about religion The Comfortable Pew engendered Many will disagree with its central thesis but few will be able to put it down It's that kind of book

The Dwelling Susie Moloney, 2003-03-05 The house had history Perhaps too much history 362 Belisle Street is a homeowner's dream A nice neighborhood close to schools new hardwood floors unique original detail So why then wonders real estate agent Glenn Darnley won't this charming property stay off the market Perhaps the clawed feet of the antique bathtub look a little too threatening Or maybe it's the faint hospital like smell of the room off the top of the stairs It's possible that the haunting music that pours out from under the steps keeps the residents awake at night In the three parts of Susie Moloney's hair raising novel The Dwelling ownership of 362 Belisle changes four times with Glenn Darnley brokering each deal The first occupants are a young couple Rebecca and Daniel Mason who have big dreams of wealth and success It doesn't take long for them to realize that they're not welcome in their new house After a ghostly seduction and a violent confrontation the property is once again for sale Next comes Barbara Parkins a divorcee and her unhappy young son Petey Lonely and looking for companionship the two find comfort in some new playful young friends When the Parkins family leaves the house is sold again Last ownership goes to Richie Bramley a drunken writer and lost soul But like the others he can't settle down in this house which has a mind and a heart of its own For Glenn however the house is a dream always warm and welcoming The doors gleam and sun pours in through the windows Owners come and 362 Belisle makes sure owners go It's waiting patiently for its beloved to realize how much it loves her It's waiting for Glenn the very special person who can finally turn this house into a home The Dwelling is clever scary and ultimately moving It's a novel for everyone who ever spent time looking for just the right house

Vimy Pierre Berton, 2010-12-22 One chill Easter dawn in 1917 a blizzard blowing in their faces the four divisions of the Canadian Corps in France went over the top of a muddy scarp known as Vimy Ridge Within hours they held in their grasp what had eluded both British and French armies in over two years of fighting they had seized the best defended German bastion on the Western Front How could an army of civilians from a nation with no military tradition secure the first enduring victory in thirty two months of warfare with only 10 000 casualties when the French had lost 150 000 men in their unsuccessful attempt Pierre Berton's haunting and lucid narrative shows how unfettered by military rules civilians used daring and common sense to overcome obstacles that had eluded the professionals Drawing on unpublished personal accounts and interviews Berton brings home what it was like for the young men some no more than sixteen years old who clawed their way up the sodden shell torn slopes in a struggle they innocently believed would make war obsolete He tells of the soldiers who endured horrific conditions to secure this great victory painting a vivid picture of trench warfare In his account of this great battle Pierre Berton brilliantly illuminated the moment of tragedy and greatness that marked Canada's emergence as a nation

The Joy of Writing Pierre Berton, 2010-04-30 Drawing on his fifty years as an award winning journalist and author of some of the finest books on Canadian history Pierre Berton has written a witty and practical guide for writers With almost every book a bestseller clearly this writer knows what it takes to succeed in the publishing world From the all important rule of knowing your audience and other essential writing tips to down to earth advice on dealing with agents publishers and editors The Joy of Writing covers every aspect of non fiction writing and includes interviews with twenty seven of Canada's leading writers Illustrated with more than thirty manuscript pages from Pierre Berton's own works Includes Interviews With Alex Barris Ted Barris Jack Batten Fred Bodsworth June Callwood Stevie Cameron Robert Collins Elaine Dewar Will Ferguson Trent Frayne Bob Fulford Charlotte Gray Richard Gwyn Stephen Kimber Ken McGoogan Roy McGregor Linda McQuaig Farley Mowat Knowlton Nash Peter Newman Stephanie Nolen John Sawatsky Russell Smith Edna Staebler Walter Stewart Betty Jane Wylie Jan Wong

New Canadian Library Janet Beverly Friskney, 2007-01-01 In the mid 1950s much Canadian literature was out of print making it relatively inaccessible to readers including those studying the subject in schools and universities When English professor Malcolm Ross approached Toronto publisher Jack McClelland in 1952 to propose a Canadian literary reprint series it was still the accepted wisdom among publishers that Canadian literature was of insufficient interest to the educational market to merit any great publishing risks Eventually convinced by Ross that a latent market for Canadian literary reprints did indeed exist McClelland Stewart launched the New Canadian Library NCL series in 1958 with Ross as its general editor In 2008 the NCL will celebrate a half century of publication In New Canadian Library Janet B Friskney takes the reader through the early history of the NCL series focusing on the period up to 1978 when Malcolm Ross retired as general editor A wealth of archival resources published reviews and the NCL volumes themselves are used to survey the working relationship between Ross and McClelland as well as the collaborative participation of those who through the middle decades of the twentieth century were committed to studying and nurturing Canada's literary heritage To place the New Canadian Library in its proper historical context Friskney examines the simultaneous development of Canadian literary studies as a legitimate area of research and teaching in academe and acknowledges the NCL as a milestone in Canadian publishing history Cats I Have Known and Loved

Pierre Berton, 2010-04-30 Who would have guessed that one of the great historian's passions in life is cats Over the course of his eighty two years and from his birthplace in Dawson City Yukon to his home in Kleinburg Ontario Berton has known and loved many cats In this charming collection of stories he has chosen his best cat tales to share with us Pierre Berton is a master storyteller and his lyrical writing and sense of pacing and adventure enliven this collection making it irresistible to any cat lover The book opens with the adventure of Pousse Pousse the cat with extra toes who was carried off by a Great Horned Owl and seven months later reappeared at the door bedraggled but alive Pierre Berton's first cat was Happy a kitten the teenage Pierre spied in a pet store window free to a good home It was Depression era Victoria and the Bertons barely had enough to feed themselves Still they kept Happy and she produced scores of kittens over the years There are stories of stray cats and hobo cats beloved cartoon cats like Felix and Krazy Kat and finally Rules for Guests which includes the following No discussion is so intense no story so riveting that it can't be interrupted when a cat enters the room This beautifully designed small format gift book is illustrated with line drawings by Pierre Berton photographs and coloured endpapers Prisoners of the North Pierre Berton, 2011-03-11 Canada's master storyteller returns to the North to chronicle the extraordinary stories of five inspiring and controversial characters Canada's master storyteller returns to the North to bring history to life Prisoners of the North tells the extraordinary stories of five inspiring and controversial characters whose adventures in Canada's frozen wilderness are no less fascinating today than they were a hundred years ago We meet Joseph Boyle the self made millionaire gold prospector from Woodstock Ontario who went off to the Great War with the word Yukon inscribed on his shoulder straps and solid gold maple leaf lapel badges There he survived several scrapes with rogue Bolsheviks earned the admiration of Trotsky saved Romania from the advancing Germans and entered into a passionate affair with its queen We meet Vilhjalmur Steffansson who knew every corner of the Canadian North better than any explorer His claim to have discovered a tribe of Blond Eskimos brought him world wide attention and landed him in controversy that would dog him the rest of his life There is John Hornby the eccentric public school Englishman so enthralled with the Barren Grounds where he lived that he finally starved to death there with the two young men who had joined his adventures Berton gives us a riveting account of the contradictory life of Robert Service a world famous poet whose self effacement was completely at odds with his public persona And we meet the extraordinary Lady Jane Franklin who belied every last stereotype about Victorian women with her immense determination energy and sense of adventure She travelled more widely than even her famous explorer husband Sir John And her indefatigable efforts to find him after his disappearance were legendary A Yukoner himself Berton weaves these tales of courage fortitude and reckless lust for adventure with a love for Canada s harsh north With his sharp eye for detail and faultless ear for a good story Pierre Berton shows once again why he is Canada s favourite historian
