Woodward, Grace Steele Woodward, 2022-08-23 In August of 1942 Great Britain faced a desperate situation German bombers hammered the nation s industrial cities and towns daily and the toll in loss of life and resources rose steadily Guy H Woodward and Grace Steele Woodward tell for the first time the story of how the British with the aid of forty four oilfield

Into the Secret Heart of Ashdown Forest is a love letter after a forty-year affair. Wry, funny, moving, and vivid, this memoir chronicles the life of the author and the ten square miles of country he calls his Kingdom. This book is as good as a brisk walk in the woods on an autumn day. Written with love and passion, it is a hymn to landscape and freedom. It is a close and deep observation of the writer's adopted country, the fabled Ashdown Forest in East Sussex, England, the home of Winnie the Pooh, where he has lived and ridden for the past forty years. His gift is the ability to take you deep into the landscapes that make this place resonate in his heart: its streams, woods, heathlands. You meet its literary residents: A.A. Milne, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, Ezra Pound, and W.B. Yeats. You get beneath its skin, among the networks of fungi that allow the trees to speak. You taste its foods, meet its locals, both the living and the ghosts, and see its huge importance during the plague year 2020-21 through the pandemic lockdowns. His passion for horses shines through these pages, and his writing is, as he himself says, a form of moving meditation. He takes you under the soil of this place, and he leaves a soft glow on the landscape when he is gone.
