Secrets De Lafrique Noire:

The End of French Rule in Cameroon Martin Atangana, 2010-09-28 The End of French Rule in Cameroon is a study of the decolonization movement in Cameroon It analyzes the reforms introduced by France in Cameroon after World War II the circumstances surrounding the unsuccessful attempt of the UPC to seize independence by force and the subsequent eradication of this party by an alliance of Franco Cameroonian forces The book shows the length that the French were prepared to go in order to leave Cameroon in the hands of a government that would be sympathetic to their interests The research is based upon documents found in Cameroon France and the United States It will expand the existing limited literature in English on the historiography of Cameroon and will also be useful for instructors teaching courses related to modern and contemporary Africa in general and decolonization in French black Africa in particular as well as all interested in these subjects

Anticolonial Form Alexandra Reza, 2024-01-24 Anticolonial Form Literary Journals at the End of Empire addresses the relationship between culture and politics in two journals published in Europe by African writers Presence Africaine launched in Paris in 1947 and Mensagem published between 1948 and 1964 in Lisbon Grounded in extensive archival work the book argues for a comparative and transnational approach to postcolonial literary studies for the significance of the literary journal as a key form in the development of African writing in French Portuguese and English and for a historically and geographically contingent understanding of the relationships between literature culture and politics This book takes up the idea of articulation to bring forward the contingent and fugitive connections that networks of literary journals fostered between francophone anglophone and lusophone writers in the conjuncture of decolonization in the 1950s and 1960s It argues that comparison as a praxis and a method was central to the anticolonial charge of those journals on whose pages we see an iterative back and forth between writing from and about different parts of the colonial world a recursive effort to establish how ideas and analyses developed in one part of the colonial world could travel and be adopted and adapted in others Many scholars have argued convincingly that the institutionalized practice of comparison in the academic field of comparative literature is itself imbricated with histories of colonialism Reza's argument takes on a particular significance in the context of that critique as the anticolonial comparison on which she focuses offers a different tradition of relational praxis from which to think about connection and comparison itself

MARTINIST, COHEN AND ROSICRUCIAN RITUALS Joël DUEZ, Leisure and Society in Colonial Brazzaville Phyllis Martin, 2002-08-08 This book is the first comprehensive study of leisure in an African colonial city

Spearmasters Molefi Kete Asante, Emeka Nwadiora, 2007-04-26 Spear Masters contends that in Africa there exists only one religion with a vast array of denominations African religion is expressed in a different way by each of the denominations which creates confusion for those who believe that there are more than one African religion Spear Masters presents information about some of the larger and most significant expressions of the sole African religion so that the reader will understand the relationship between God the creator and the notions of the relationship with the family and community The term spear master relates to the integrity and ethics that had to accompany the maker and user of the spear in ancient African societies The essence of religion presented in Spear Masters is the deification of one's society and nation and making sacred the traditions and rituals of the ordinary lives of the people Algerian War and the French Army, 1954-62 Martin S. Alexander, Martin Evans, J.F.V. Keiger, 2002-08-21 The Algerian War 1954-62 was one of the most prolonged and violent examples of decolonization At times horribly savage it was an undeclared war in the sense that no formal declaration of hostilities was ever made Bringing to an end one hundred and thirty two years of French rule the Algerian struggle caused the fall of six French prime ministers the collapse of the Fourth Republic and expulsion of one million French settlers This volume bringing together leading experts in the field focuses on one of the key actors in the drama the French army They show that the Algerian War was just as much about conflicts of ideas beliefs and loyalties as it was about simple military operations In this way the collection goes beyond polemic and recrimination to explore the many and varied nuances of what was one of the historically most important of the grand style colonial wars The Dialectics of Oppression in Zaire Michael G. Schatzberg, 1991 Translations on Sub-Saharan Africa United States. Joint Publications Research Service, 1967 Le Queer Impérial Julin Everett, 2018-07-17 In Le Queer Impérial Julin Everett explores the taboo subject of male homoerotic desire between black Africans and white Europeans in francophone colonial and postcolonial literatures Everett exposes the intersection of power and desire in blanc noir relationships in colonial and postcolonial black Africa and postimperial Europe Reading these literatures for their portrayals of race gender and sexuality Everett begins a conversation about personal and political violence in the face of forbidden desires The Dictionary Catalog of the Vivian G. Harsh Collection of Afro-American History and Literature, the Chicago Public Library Chicago Public Library, 1978 Panorama de l'Union française Jean Charbonneau, 1949-01-01 T00:00:00+01:00 Cet ouvrage est une réédition numérique d'un livre paru au XX^e siècle désormais indisponible dans son format d'origine The Yearning for Relief Klaas van Walraven, 2013-02-05 The Sawaba movement and its rebellion in Niger are a totally neglected subject Klaas van Walraven traces this story from a social history perspective placing an entire generation of activists removed from the official record back into mainstream Nigerian history Representing a genuine social movement Sawaba formed Niger's first autonomous government under French suzerainty Overthrown by the Gaullists and persecuted it attempted a comeback with a guerrilla campaign 1960-1966 which ended in failure and led to the movement's destruction The Yearning for Relief based on numerous interviews with survivors and a vast range of archival sources including France's secret service is essential reading for the reappraisal of Niger's history and the role of militant nationalist movements in the decolonisation of French West Africa Africa and Europe Amadu Sesay, 2012-07-26 It is now over 100 years since the Berlin Conference of 1884 which started the Scramble for Africa whereby the various European powers carved up the African Continent between themselves During the last century the French Colonialism J. P. Daughton, 2021-07-20 The epic story of the Congo-Océan railroad and the human costs and contradictions of modern empire The Congo-Océan railroad stretches across the Republic of Congo from Brazzaville to the Atlantic port of Pointe Noir It was completed in 1934 when Equatorial Africa was a French colony and it stands as one of the deadliest construction projects in history Colonial workers were subjects of an ostensibly democratic nation whose motto read Liberty Equality Fraternity but liberal ideals were savaged by a cruelly indifferent administrative state African workers were forcibly conscripted and separated from their families and subjected to hellish conditions as they hacked their way through dense tropical foliage a forest of no joy excavated by hand thousands of tons of earth in order to lay down track blasted their way through rock to construct tunnels or risked their lives building bridges over otherwise impassable rivers In the process they suffered disease malnutrition and rampant physical abuse likely resulting in at least 20 000 deaths In the Forest of No Joy captures in vivid detail the experiences of the men women and children who toiled on the railroad and forces a reassessment of the moral relationship between modern industrialized empires and what could be called global humanitarian impulses the desire to improve the lives of people outside of Europe Drawing on exhaustive research in French and Congolese archives a chilling documentary record and heartbreaking photographic evidence J P Daughton tells the epic story of the Congo-Océan railroad and in doing so reveals the human costs and contradictions of modern empire
