genres through an examination of the small body of critical texts on his oeuvre Masuga draws on Deleuze and Guattari's concept of a minor literature Blanchot's infinite curve and Bataille's theory of puerile language while also considering Miller in relation to other writers including Proust Rilke and William Carlos Williams She shows how Miller defies conventional modes of writing subverting language from within Katy Masuga is Adjunct Professor of British and American literature cinema and the arts in the Cultural Studies Department at the University of Paris III Sorbonne Nouvelle Secret
