Contemporary Media Ethics Mitchell Land, Bill W. Hornaday, 2006 This book is designed for use in college level mass media ethics courses and for use in mass media organizations The 27 chapters are written by top scholars and media professionals in the United States The book provides a practical introduction to real world media ethics cases focusing on two major models utilitarian and communitarian Bibliography of Sources on the Region of Former Yugoslavia Rusko Matulić, 1998 In this second volume Rusko Matulic continues to formulate a comprehensive bibliography of primarily published sources relating to the history languages literature politics government religion and social sciences of former Yugoslavia including bibliographical materials on expatriates Speaking for a Long Time Adrienne L. Burk, 2011-01-01 In the late 1990s Vancouver's Downtown Eastside became the setting for three monuments Crab Park Boulder Marker of

Change and Standing with Courage Strength and Pride The monuments were grassroots initiatives that challenged the norms of civic art by claiming a place in public space for society's most vulnerable groups and each figured in debates about many kinds of violence This vivid account of the creation of memory spaces in a marginalized community offers unique insights into the links between power public space and social memory and asks us to reconsider what constitutes public art that will speak for a long time Emphasizing the resilience and agency of artists activists and residents Adrienne Burk shows that grassroots activism can give the socially marginalized a visible presence in our urban landscapes

Richard Bangs Adventures with Purpose Richard Bangs, 2010-10-22 Running such wild rivers as the crocodile infested Tekaze in Ethiopia Richard Bangs used to live for the adrenaline for the rush of reveling in the misery of hardship and sidestepping death around every bend Now a respected conservationist he still travels to demanding exotic environments but with a new more sober objective he wants to save these special places Bangs personal experiences of witnessing many special places preserved and lost led him to write Adventures with Purpose and the book follows the author to Bosnia Libya Panama the American West Rwanda Thailand and more as he seeks out disappearing cultures peoples habitats and ecosystems particularly rivers so that he can show readers that the loss of these special places will be a catastrophe Written in the vivid intimate style that made his earlier books both critical and commercial successes Richard Bangs Adventures with Purpose is an unforgettable composite portrait of a world in peril and an inspiring guide to rescuing it

Love and Death in Kubrick Patrick Webster, 2014-01-10 The films of Stanley Kubrick have left an indelible mark on the history of American cinema This text explores the auteur's legacy specifically positioning his body of work within the context of cultural theory A single chapter is devoted to each of Kubrick's seven films Lolita Dr Strangelove 2001 A Space Odyssey A Clockwork Orange The Shining Full Metal Jacket and Eyes Wide Shut Particular attention is paid to the role of love and death in Kubrick's films emphasizing his innovative exploration of love and sex and the portrayal of mortality via masculine violence

Following the Front Margot Clark-Junkins, 2024-09-15 Following the Front is a compilation of WWII dispatches written by Sidney A Olson for TIME and LIFE magazines 1944-1945 Olson who joined Time Inc in 1939 and served as a senior editor there asked to be assigned overseas as a war correspondent In mid December 1944 he received his accreditation from the War Department and sailed for London Attached to the European Theater of Operations ETO Olson followed the Allied Forces as they pushed the Nazis back into Germany He typed up his reports and cabled them to his editors in New York Following the front meant being on the move constantly In late January Olson made his way to Paris flew to Brussels then drove to the battlefield in Holland From that time forward he never really stopped moving He would race ahead and circle back hopping from one military division to the next gradually making his way across Germany and into Austria His dispatches illustrate line by line battle by battle the extraordinary Allied effort to defeat Hitler

Our Ice Is Vanishing / Sikuvut Nunguliqtuq Shelley Wright, 2014-09-01 The Arctic is ruled by ice For Inuit it is a highway a hunting ground and the platform on which life is lived

While the international community argues about sovereignty security and resource development at the top of the world the Inuit remind us that they are the original inhabitants of this magnificent place and that it is undergoing a dangerous transformation The Arctic ice is melting at an alarming rate and Inuit have become the direct witnesses and messengers of climate change Through an examination of Inuit history and culture alongside the experiences of newcomers to the Arctic seeking land wealth adventure and power Our Ice Is Vanishing describes the legacies of exploration intervention and resilience Combining scientific and legal information with political and individual perspectives Shelley Wright follows the history of the Canadian presence in the Arctic and shares her own journey in recollections and photographs presenting the far North as few people have seen it Climate change is redrawing the boundaries of what Inuit and non Inuit have learned to expect from our world Our Ice Is Vanishing demonstrates that we must engage with the knowledge of the Inuit in order to understand and negotiate issues of climate change and sovereignty claims in the region

Beyond New Media Art Herbig,Andrew F. Herrmann,Adam W. Tyma,2014-11-14 Beyond New Media Discourse and Critique in a Polymediated Age examines a host of differing positions on media in order to explore how those positions can inform one another and build a basis for future engagements with media theory research and practice Herbig Herrmann and Tyma have brought together a number of media scholars with differing paradigmatic backgrounds to debate the relative applicability of existing theories and in doing so develop a new approach polymediation Each contributor s disciplinary background is diverse spanning interpersonal communication media studies organizational communication instructional design rhetoric mass communication gender studies popular culture studies informatics and persuasion Although each of these scholars brings with them a unique perspective on media s role in people s lives what binds them together is the belief that meaningful discourse about media must be an ongoing conversation that is open to critique and revision in a rapidly changing mediated culture By studying media in a polymediated way Beyond New Media addresses more completely our complex relationship to media tion in our everyday lives

Frumpy Middle-Aged Mom Marla Jo Fisher,2020-11-24 Never mind the Real Housewives of Orange County Marla Jo Fisher is the woman everyone can relate to complete with bad parenting rotten dogs ill health and fashion faux pas For nearly two decades in the Orange County Register and many syndicated papers readers have delighted in Marla Jo s subversive humor cranky intellect and huge heart on her journey through broke single after 40 motherhood when she adopted Cheetah Boy and Curly Girl to her oddball adventures around the globe to the sublime ridiculousness of life next door Even while facing a devastating diagnosis Fisher teaches us that humor is the balm that eases and the very thing that binds us together Books In Print 2004-2005 Ed Bowker Staff,Staff Bowker, Ed,2004 Women's Activism and Feminist Agency in Mozambique and Nicaragua Jennifer Leigh Disney,2008 In Women s Activism and Feminist Agency in Mozambique and Nicaragua Jennifer Leigh Disney investigates the contours of women s emancipation outside the framework of liberal democracy and a market economy She interviews 146 women and men in the two countries to explore the comparative contribution of women s participation in subsistence and informal economies political parties and civil society organizations She also discusses military struggles against colonialism and imperialism in fostering feminist agency to provide a fascinating look at how each movement evolved and how it changed in a post revolutionary climate Building Something Better Stephanie A. Malin,Meghan Elizabeth Kallman,2022-04-15 As the turmoil of interlinked crises unfolds across the world from climate change to growing inequality to the rise of authoritarian governments social scientists examine what is happening and why Can communities devise alternatives to the systems that are doing so much harm to the planet and people Sociologists Stephanie A Malin and Meghan Elizbeth Kallman offer a clear accessible volume that demonstrates the ways that communities adapt in the face of crises and explains that sociology can help us understand how and why they do this challenging work Tackling neoliberalism head on these communities are making big changes by crafting distributive and regenerative systems that depart from capitalist approaches The vivid case studies presented range from activist water protectors to hemp farmers to renewable energy cooperatives led by Indigenous peoples and nations Alongside these studies Malin and Kallman present incisive critiques of colonialism extractive capitalism and neoliberalism while demonstrating how sociology s own disciplinary traditions have been complicit with those ideologies and must expand beyond them Showing that it is possible to challenge social inequality and environmental degradation by refusing to continue business as usual Building Something Better offers both a call to action and a dose of hope in a time of crises From '9-11' to the 'Iraq War 2003' Dominic McGoldrick,2004-03-25 This book is a tale of two towers two wars and two visions The two towers are those of the World Trade Center in New York destroyed by a terrorist attack on 11 September 2001 The two wars are the War Against Terrorism and the War on Iraq The two visions are of the international legal and political order for the twenty first century The issues involved in the War Against Terrorism and the War on Iraq are of fundamental importance because they may define the shape of international order for the twenty first century The book has a number of themes First it considers the principal international law and international order issues involved in the War Against Terrorism and in the War on Iraq in 2003 Specific attention is given to the application of international humanitarian and international human rights law in the wars Secondly it asks how the international debate on the Iraq War was conducted and why Finally it questions whether the post 1945 system of international laws and organizations is capable of surviving and in what form Chapter one outlines how the relationship between war and the international legal order has evolved and introduces the idea of complexity theory as a framework for understanding the events and issues considered in this book Chapter two considers the pattern of events from the attacks on the US on 9 11 to the Iraq War 2003 Chapter three addresses the issues of law and morality involved in the War Against Terrorism and the War on Iraq Chapter four focuses on the moral and legal debate around the War on Iraq and chapter five considers the systemic consequences for international law doctrine and practice giving particular weight to US policy and approaches and how other states have responded to them Chapter six appraises the post war situation in Iraq in terms of political and economic organisation and human rights It also assesses the consequences of the status of post war Iraq for the wider region Chapter seven concludes the book by examining the possible implications of the War Against Terrorism and the War on Iraq for world order in the twenty first century Disasterology Samantha Montano,2021-08-03 Part memoir part expert analysis

Disasterology is a passionate and personal account of a country in crisis one unprepared to deal with the disasters of today and those looming in our future With temperatures rising and the risk of disasters growing our world is increasingly vulnerable Most people see disasters as freak natural events that are unpredictable and unpreventable But that simply isn't the case disasters are avoidable but when they do strike there are strategic ways to manage the fallout In Disasterology Dr Montano a disaster researcher brings readers with her on an eye opening journey through some of our worst disasters helping readers make sense of what really happened from an emergency management perspective She explains why we aren't doing enough to prevent or prepare for disasters the critical role of media and how our approach to recovery was not designed to serve marginalized communities Now that climate change is contributing to the disruption of ecosystems and worsening disasters Dr Montano offers a preview of what will happen to our communities if we don't take aggressive immediate action In a section devoted to the COVID 19 pandemic what is thus far our generation's most deadly disaster she casts light on the many decisions made behind closed doors that failed to protect the public A deeply moving and timely narrative that draws on Dr Montano's first hand experience in emergency management Disasterology is essential reading for anyone who wants to understand how our country handles disasters and how we can better face them together Gittin'

Through Roy T. Matthews,2011-08-02 GittinThrough sets this turning point in American history in a small southern town where traditions class and race defined its citizens and the roles they played It shows how the three generations coped with the conflict while they made a living reared their families took care of the elderly fell in love lost loved ones struggled to hold a marriage together and choose right and wrong ways to profit from the war Like all generations they carried the burdens of the past into their own times in order to prepare for the future A New Way of Seeing Michael Sarnowski,2025-06-04 A

New Way of Seeing considers the poetry of five writers Louis Simpson Keith Douglas Richard Hugo Howard Nemerov and Randall Jarrell whose work draws on their activities as soldiers in World War II Basing his examination on extensive primary source research Michael Sarnowski identifies distance both literal and figurative and traumatic memory as two interconnected elements of how these poets internalized the war and made sense of the events they witnessed The book is structured on a gradient related to each poet's proximity to combat as the chapters in turn focus on an infantryman Simpson a tank commander Douglas a bombardier Hugo a pilot Nemerov and a stateside flight instructor Jarrell Sarnowski relies on a wealth of archival material overlooked by previous scholarship including poem drafts correspondence flight logs and personal belongings The conclusion revisits notions of legacy and representation by assessing factors that contributed to the early labeling of World War II soldiers as a Silent Generation in contrast to the outpouring of poetry published during and following the First World War By exploring how poets processed their wartime experiences A New Way of Seeing offers a stark reminder of why it remains vital to recognize the physical mental and psychological consequences endured by veterans

On the Way! Christopher R. Kilford, 2004 On the Way is a military history of Lethbridge Alberta during two world wars including the untold story of efforts to de-Nazify German prisoners held in Lethbridge and Canada during the Second World War Jahresbibliographie Massenkommunikation, 2003
