The ascetics agree upon affirming that the true prayer comes from the heart and it is the one that moves God. It establishes a bridge between life and afterlife, allows to communicate with Him in many ways up to the mystical marriage. Again from Wikipedia: As for Catholic tradition when we pray we are completely aware that we are elevating to God so we are choosing to communicate and share on purpose our problems, our grief, our joy, our sorrow, our success, our fails with the Almighty. Beppe Amico ends the book premise with a thought: In this book I collected the most widespread and well known prayers of Catholic tradition. Those are the same I have been using for years and I still use in my own moments of spiritual meditation. Some of them are so beautiful and full of meanings to be real gems able to let us raise and go on in our own path to reach perfection.
