Looking At Senses:

The Five Senses of Man Julius Bernstein, 1876 A Text Book of Physiology: The senses and some special muscular mechanisms. The tissues and mechanisms of reproduction Sir Michael Foster, 1896 The Equal Society George Hull, 2015-12-24 Equality is a widely championed social ideal But what is equality And what action is required if present day societies are to root out their inequalities The Equal Society collects fourteen philosophical essays each with a fresh perspective on these questions The authors explore the demands of egalitarian justice addressing issues of distribution and rectification but equally investigating what it means for people to be equals as producers and communicators of knowledge or as members of subcultures and considering what it would take for a society to achieve gender and racial equality The essays collected here address not just the theory but also the practice of equality arguing for concrete changes in institutions such as higher education the business corporation and national constitutions to bring about a more equal society The Equal Society offers original approaches to themes prominent in current social and political philosophy including relational equality epistemic injustice the capabilities approach African ethics gender equality and the philosophy of race It includes new work by respected social and political philosophers Risk and Responsibility in Context Adriana Placani, Stearns Broadhead, 2023-08-31 This volume bridges contemporary philosophical conceptions of risk and responsibility and offers an extensive examination of the topic It shows that risk and responsibility combine in ways that give rise to new philosophical questions and problems Philosophical interest in the relationship between risk and responsibility continues to rise due in no small part to environmental crises emerging technologies legal developments and new medical advances Despite such interest scholars are still working out how to conceive of the links between risk and responsibility the implications that risks may have to conceptions of responsibility and vice versa as well as how such theorizing might play out in applied cases With contributions from leading scholars this volume brings together new work examining the interplay between risk and responsibility exploring its varied philosophical aspects and applications to contemporary issues in law bioethics technology and environmental ethics Risk and Responsibility in Context will be of interest to philosophers working in ethics bioethics philosophy of law and philosophy of technology as well as scholars and practitioners in law health and science management public policy and environmental studies The Open Access version of this book is available at www.taylorfrancis.com This publication is licensed unless otherwise indicated under the terms of the Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial 4.0 International CC BY NC 4.0 license <https://creativecommons.org/licenses/by-nc/4.0/> which permits use sharing adaptation distribution and reproduction in any medium or format provided you give appropriate credit to the original author(s) and source provide a link to the Creative Commons license and indicate any modifications Use for commercial purposes is not permitted Agency, Freedom, and Moral Responsibility Andrei Buckareff, Carlos Moya, Sergi Rosell, 2016-04-29 In recent years there has been a resurgence of interest in problems related to human agency and responsibility by philosophers and researchers in cognate disciplines The present volume brings together original contributions by leading specialists working in this vital field of philosophical inquiry The contents represent the state of the art of philosophical research on intentional agency free will and moral responsibility The volume begins with chapters on the metaphysics of agency and moves to chapters examining various problems of luck The final two sections have a normative focus with the first of the two containing chapters examining issues related to responsible agency and blame and the chapters in the final section examine responsibility and relationships This book will be of interest to researchers and students interested in both metaphysical and normative issues related to human agency Free Will and Moral Responsibility Justin Caouette, Ishtiyaque Haji, 2013-10-03

Determinism is roughly the thesis that facts about the past and the laws of nature entail all truths A venerable age old dilemma concerning responsibility distils to this if either determinism is true or it is not true we lack responsibility grounding control Either determinism is true or it is not true So we lack responsibility grounding control Deprived of such control no one is ever morally responsible for anything A number of the freshly minted essays in this collection address aspects of this dilemma Responding to the horn that determinism undermines the freedom that responsibility or moral obligation requires the freedom to do otherwise some papers in this collection debate the merits of Frankfurt style examples that purport to show that one can be responsible despite lacking alternatives Responding to the horn that indeterminism implies luck or randomness other papers discuss the strengths or shortcomings of libertarian free will or control Also included in this collection are essays on the freedom requirements of moral obligation forgiveness and free will a desert free conception of free will and vicarious legal and moral responsibility The authors of the essays in this volume are philosophers who have made significant contributions to debates in free will moral responsibility moral obligation the reactive attitudes philosophy of action and philosophical psychology and include John Martin Fischer Robert Kane Michael McKenna Alfred Mele and Derk Pereboom Artificial Intelligence Research Edgar Jembere, AURONA J. GERBER, SERESTINA VIRIRI, ANBAN PILLAY, 2022-01-29 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the Second Southern African Conference on Artificial Intelligence Research SACAIR 2021 held in Durban South Africa in December 2021 Due to the COVID 19 pandemic the SACAIR 2021 was held online The 22 papers presented were thoroughly reviewed and selected from the 70 submissions They are organized on the topical sections on AI in the humanities and society AI in and for information systems computer vision and image processing deep learning knowledge representation and reasoning machine learning philosophy and ethics of AI The Nature of Moral Responsibility Randolph K. Clarke, Michael McKenna, 2015 What is it to be morally responsible for something Recent philosophical work reveals considerable disagreement on the question This volume presents twelve original essays from participants in these debates The contributors include prominent established figures as well as several outstanding younger philosophers The Palgrave Handbook of Philosophy and Public Policy David Boonin, 2018-10-08 This book brings together a large and diverse collection of philosophical papers addressing a wide variety of public policy issues Topics
