Mare Erythraeum Coinage Of Arabia Felix The Preislamic Coinage Of The Yemen:

Coinage of Arabia Felix Stuart C. Munro-Hay, 2003 Mare Erythraeum is an occasional series dealing with the ethnography and archaeology of the lands bordering the Red Sea and their links with the Indian ocean This is the sixth volume in this series The coinage of the South Arabian Peninsula has not been studied in detail since 1922 when G F Hill published his catalogue of the British Museum collection This work is the sixth in this series and follows on from previous editions which examined coinage from Aksum South Arabia is an area of study which is of great interest in terms of the historical and cultural significance of the region The coinage of the Yemen from Pre Islamic times is an important factor contributing towards the study of the iconography and symbolism of the people of this period and displays important elements of the continuity and disturbances in the Yemen at this time Munro Hay links this information to known historical and archaeological developments in the Yemen in terms of religious political and cultural factors Munro Hay carried out extensive work cataloguing a large number of coins from the site of Shabwa in Hadhramawt as well as a preliminary survey of coins from Hajar Am Dhaybiyya This information along with the collection of the National Museum at Aden and other various collections revealed several new types of coin and form the main body of work for this book The coinage studied shows itself to be richer than previously thought and although these new types of coin greatly improve our understanding of the coinage of Southern Arabia this is still an area where new finds are constantly being made such as coins of the royal series or from the copper or bronze bucranium series Because of this the numbering system used by Munro Hay in this study takes into account the expectation of future finds thereby making this a flexible catalogue of study even if circumstances in this field change radically

Foundations of an African Civilisation D. W. Phillipson, 2014 A single coherent narrative of Aksumite civilisation revealing the roots of medieval Christian Ethiopia This well illustrated book provides an up to date survey of a key period in the history of northern Ethiopia and south central Eritrea It is accessible to the general reader but its comprehensive references and guidance to controversies and research needs will render it invaluable to specialists and students It considers how the region's literate communities arose and flourished during the last millennium BC giving rise to the Aksumite civilisation whose achievements and intercontinental significance are increasingly recognised and which formed an integral but often neglected component of the Christian world in Late Antiquity Aksum is now seen as the ancestor of the region's medieval Christian kingdom whose churches and associated art continue to attract many visitors to Ethiopia David W Phillipson is Emeritus Professor of African Archaeology and former Director of the University Museum of Archaeology Anthropology Cambridge In 2014 he was made an Associate Fellow of the Ethiopian Academy of Sciences Published in association with the British Institute in Eastern Africa Ethiopia Addis Ababa University Press

Aethiopica, 2006 Journal of the American Oriental Society, 2003 List of members in each volume Jemen-Report, 2002 Himyar Paul Yule, 2007 Queen of Sheba St John Simpson, British Museum, 2002 The Queen of Sheba is a famous legendary figure first referred to in the Old Testament as bringing great riches to the court of Solomon Later Jewish Islamic Ethiopian and Christian traditions dwell on different attributes giving rise to a rich artistic vein particularly but not exclusively in Renaissance and later art The truth is that the Queen of Sheba remains an anonymous figure of legend associated with the land of Saba one of the great early kingdoms of southern Arabia present day Yemen The ancient caravan kingdoms of this region have fascinated travellers and scholars since the nineteenth century but our understanding of the history and culture of this region has been fundamentally revised as a result of new archaeological discoveries made in recent decades This exhibition catalogue charts the story from the Queen of Sheba in art and legend to the archaeological evidence for the historic kingdoms that gave rise to the legend It contains twelve essays by leading scholars from Britain USA Canada and Europe Over 300 items are described and illustrated in colour ranging from little known artworks in UK collections to antiquities from Yemen mostly never previously exhibited in Britain and providing a magnificent record of the riches of southern Arabia Book jacket Deutsche Nationalbibliographie und Bibliographie der im Ausland erschienenen deutschsprachigen Veröffentlichungen ,2003 The Ancient Coinage of Southern Arabia Sir George Francis Hill,1969

The Pre-Islamic Coinage of Eastern Arabia Daniel T. Potts,1991 A presentation of the various indigenous coin issues that circulated in Eastern Arabia during the pre Islamic era as attested in five private collections studied by the author The basis for the classification is a corpus of 529 coins selected from those collections for publication here Geographically the coins came from two distinct regions which today comprise the Eastern Province of the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia and the Emirate of Umm al Qaiwain in the United Arab Emirates Foreign issues were rare in these areas although a handful of Sasanian Roman Seleucid Greek Phoenician Nabataean Elymaean Parthian and Sabaeen coins have been attested to in the collections that form the basis of this work
