Marguerite Yourcenar Inventing A Life:

Marguerite Yourcenar Josyane Savigneau,1993-10 One of the most respected writers in the French language and best known as the author of Memoirs of Hadrian and The Abyss Yourcenar received countless literary honors and became the first woman to be elected to the Academie Francaise An uncompromising and intimate portrait 50 halftones Marguerite

Yourcenar Josyane Savigneau,1993-12-01 Marguerite Yourcenar and the USA Bérengère Deprez,2009 This is a very welcome contribution to the debate on the real effect of the United States on Yourcenar's life and thought a good read on a fascinating subject which critics have often treated dismissively Future scholarship will be obliged to weigh Berengere Deprez's arguments and evidence seriously and thank her for her clearheaded thoroughness Prof Brian Gill University of Calgary Canada Marguerite Yourcenar's Hadrian Keith Bradley,2024-01-31 Marguerite Yourcenar is best known as the author of the 1951 novel Memoires d Hadrien her recreation of the life of the Roman emperor Hadrian The work can be examined from the perspective of the issues raised by writing Roman imperial biography at large and the many ways in which Memoires d Hadrien has a claim to historical authenticity In Marguerite Yourcenar's Hadrian Keith Bradley explains how Memoires d Hadrien came to be written gives details of Yourcenar's own biography and describes some of the intricate historical problems that her novel's portrait of Hadrian presents He draws on Yourcenar's correspondence her interviews with journalists and her literary corpus as a whole emphasizing Yourcenar's profound knowledge of the ancient evidence on which her life of Hadrian is based and exploiting a wide range of contemporary Yourcenarian criticism The book pays special attention to the methods by which Yourcenar believed Hadrian's life history to be recoverable compares examples of modern life writing and contrasts the procedures of conventional Roman biographers Revealing how and why Memoires d Hadrien is as it is Marguerite Yourcenar's Hadrian illustrates how imaginative literary recreation is often little different from historical speculation The

Documentary Imagination in Twentieth-Century French Literature Alison James,2020-09-03 The Documentary Imagination in Twentieth Century French Literature identifies a documentary impulse in French literature that emerges at the end of the nineteenth century and culminates in a proliferation of factual writings in the twenty first Focusing on the period bookended by these two moments it highlights the enduring concern with factual reference in texts that engage either with current events or the historical archive Specifically it considers a set of ideas and practices centered on the conceptualization and use of documents In doing so it contests the widespread narrative that twentieth century French literature abandons the realist enterprise and argues that writers instead renegotiate the realist legacy outside or at the margins of the fictional space of the novel Analyzing works by authors including Gide Breton Aragon Yourcenar Duras and Modiano the book defines a specific documentary mode of literary representation that records assembles and investigates material traces of reality The document is a textual visual or material piece of evidence repurposed through its visual insertion textual transcription or description within a literary work It is a fact but it also becomes a figure standing for literature's confrontation with the real

The documentary imagination involves a fantasy of direct access to a reality that speaks for itself At the same time it gives rise to concrete textual practices that open up new directions for literature by interrogating the construction and interpretation of facts

The Facts on File Companion to the French Novel Karen L. Taylor, 2006 French novels such as Madame Bovary and The Stranger are staples of high school and college literature courses This work provides coverage of the French novel since its origins in the 16th century with an emphasis on novels most commonly studied in high school and college courses in world literature and in French culture and civilization Dreams and Destinies NA NA, 2016-04-30

Dreams and Destinies the Rosetta Stone of Marguerite Yourcenar's canon is an intimate journal of her dreams In Dreams and Destinies Yourcenar has provided us with the most daring yet least conventional form of autobiography a form that allows the reader to view her life refracted through the poetic sensibility of her own sleeping mind In recording her dream life Yourcenar wanders through a picture gallery of the soul pausing before ruined cathedrals filled with candles dark ravines that hold dead bodies and still reflecting pools located deep inside soaring gothic churches Her dreams are populated by men women and children as well as animals and mythical creatures Available for the first time in English in the way that she intended upon her death Dreams and Destinies is a reminder from one of the greatest writers of the twentieth century that the dreams we create are with us forever

Maine's Remarkable Women Kate Kennedy, 2016-05-01 Maine's Remarkable Women tells the stories of fifteen strong and determined women who broke through social cultural or political barriers Through their passions for art exploration literature politics music and nature these women made contributions to society that still resonate today Meet Marguerite Tante Blanche Thibodeau Cyr The Mother of Madawaska whose bravery and kindness during one brutal winter saved her frontier settlement botanist artist Kate Furbish who explored Maine's wilderness collecting classifying and painting all of its flowering plants and Florence Nicolay a Native American basketmaker who demanded and succeeded in gaining rights for her tribe the Penobscots Each of these women demonstrated courage compassion and an independence of spirit that is as inspiring now as it was then Read about their extraordinary lives in this collection of brief and absorbing biographies

How To Do Biography Nigel Hamilton, 2009-06-30 It is not surprising that biography is one of the most popular literary genres of our day What is remarkable is that there is no accessible guide for how to write one Now following his recent Biography A Brief History from Harvard award winning biographer and teacher Nigel Hamilton tackles the practicalities of doing biography in this first succinct primer to elucidate the tools of the biographer's craft Hamilton invites the reader to join him on a fascinating journey through the art of biographical composition Starting with personal motivation he charts the making of a modern biography from the inside from conception to fulfillment He emphasizes the need to know one's audience rehearses the excitement and perils of modern research delves into the secrets of good and great biography and guides the reader through the essential components of life narrative With examples taken from the finest modern biographies Hamilton shows how to portray the ages of man birth childhood love life

s work the evening of life and death In addition he suggests effective ways to start and close a life story He clarifies the difference between autobiography and memoir and addresses the sometimes awkward ethical legal and personal consequences of truth telling in modern life writing He concludes with the publication and reception of biography its afterlife so to speak Written with humor insight and compassion How To Do Biography is the manual that would be biographers have long been awaiting

The Troubling Play of Gender Maria Stadter Fox,2001 Although these three modernist writers were not primarily playwrights as expatriates they were interested in the Euripidean theme of women in exile each independently chose to rewrite Euripides Hippolytus a play in which the protagonist is a woman in exile whose speech writing and passion are deeply problematic Each author approaches the Euripidean material in a different way Tsvetaeva focuses on gender in language Yourcenar explores the gendering of a self and H D performs the undoing of gendered oppositions
