Marketing In A Multicultural World Ethnicity Nationalism And Cultural Identity:

Marketing in a Multicultural World Janeen Arnold Costa, Gary J. Bamossy, 1995-04-05 Global trends in emerging ethnicity and also in global marketing make this an especially timely book Marketing in a Multicultural World is the perfect volume for scholars students and professionals in marketing and race and ethnic studies Longing, Belonging, and the Making of Jewish Consumer Culture Gideon Reuveni, Nils H. Roemer, 2010 The Institute of Jewish Studies founded in 1954 by the late Alexander Altmann is dedicated to the promotion of all aspects of scholarship in Jewish Studies and related fields Its programmes include public lectures seminars and annual conferences All lectures and conferences are open to the general public Jewish history has been extensively studied from social political religious and intellectual perspectives but the history of Jewish consumption and leisure has largely been ignored The hitherto neglect of scholarship on Jewish consumer culture arises from the tendency within Jewish studies to chronicle the production of high culture and entrepreneurship Yet consumerism played a central role in Jewish life This volume is the first of its kind to deal with the topic of Jewish consumer culture It gives new insights on Jewish belongings and longings and provides multiple readings of Jewish consumer culture as a vehicle of integration and identity in modern times The Routledge Companion to Ethnic Marketing Ahmad Jamal, Lisa Peñaloza, Michel Laroche, 2015-06-19 The globalization of marketing has brought about an interesting paradox as the discipline becomes more global the need to understand cultural differences becomes all the more crucial This is the challenge in an increasingly international marketplace and a problem that the world s most powerful businesses must solve From this challenge has grown the exciting discipline of ethnic marketing which seeks to understand the considerable opportunities and challenges presented by cultural and ethnic diversity in the marketplace To date scholarship in the area has been lively but disparate This volume brings together cutting edge research on ethnic marketing from thought leaders across the world Each chapter covers a key theme reflecting the increasing diversity of the latest research including models of culture change parenting and socialization responses to web and advertising role of space and social innovation in ethnic marketing ethnic consumer decision making religiosity differing attitudes to materialism acculturation targeting and ethical and public policy issues The result is a solid framework and a comprehensive reference point for consumer researchers students and practitioners Marketing and Multicultural Diversity Professor C P Rao, 2012-08-28 As populations become increasingly mobile and production is globalized every country and region in the world is becoming multicultural in social composition Such multicultural market environments call for new marketing concepts and methodologies as well as empirical research into the implications of multicultural diversity for marketers Multiculturalism also has significant implications for inter organizational relations in the context of international marketing These issues are also addressed here In addition the book deals with multicultural marketing issues at various geographical levels national regional and global With original coverage and an integrated perspective this book provides an essential overview of multicultural marketing

Contemporary Marketing and Consumer Behavior John F. Sherry, 1995-05-02 Scholarly and extensively footnoted the book is meant to be used as a sourcebook for anthropological research The book's primary audience should be marketing and anthropology researchers and graduate students faculty and researchers P G Kishel in Choice As a business person responsible for the development of advertising strategies and advertising campaigns I was impressed with the contributors willingness and desire to apply anthropological principles to real world problems John Sherry Jr's comment sums it up nicely Anthropology is a practical discipline anchoring the blue sky thinking it encourages firmly to the local ground it inhabits We need to encourage blue sky thinking so we don't repeatedly get the same answers to our inquiries Anthropologists can help us with these issues This book gives me enormous hope that applied anthropology will help restore the tremendous value that can be gained through qualitative research techniques Today in marketing and advertising focus groups are grossly overused misused and underanalyzed I was encouraged and excited about the authors discussions of good ethnographies and focus groups that for example instead of simply asking respondents whether or not EMF causes cancer a far more creative and insightful exercise was performed with consumers and then was intensely analyzed by anthropologists All too often today qualitative research is carelessly and quickly administered and the analysis consists of a 30 minute debriefing at the end of the last focus group In the last few years the need for cross cultural consumer understanding has grown rapidly This phenomenon makes it imperative that not only must we fully understand the meanings of brands and products to our domestic consumers but we must know which meanings are transportable to consumers in other cultures John Sherry Jr's book suggests that anthropologists could and should have a major role in cross cultural consumer understanding Patricia A Cafferata President and Chief Executive Officer Young anthropologists as consumer researchers have been a powerful underground force for the past 15 years of innovative marketing Major companies as well as government and private institutions have looked to anthropologists to help when other research has failed John Sherry Jr has collected outstanding anthropological practitioners in this volume and they have written cutting edge chapters on product symbolism consumer culture advertising efficacy and international marketing The power of this collection lies in the fresh insights to each of these themes and the ability to reframe old problems to re-perceive what it means to live the life of a consumer as we approach the next century Steve Barnett Managing Director Global Business Network Containing original articles and empirical substance Contemporary Marketing and Consumer Behavior responds to a growing demand for scholarship more tuned to the empirical and practical realities of consumer culture Written by leading anthropologists who specialize in marketing and consumer research it is intended as a sourcebook for readers interested in consumption and its managerial consequences The topics and their treatments run a gamut of concerns including elements of the marketing mix such as goods and services advertising and promotion relationship management managerial intervention and development class and gender linked consumer behaviors and the production of consumption Anthropological perspectives and methods employed by the authors range from materialistic to semiotic and both qualitative and quantitative methods are employed Contributors range across time space and topics in pursuit of understanding The result is a multifaceted perspective of marketing and consumer behavior Also the remarks of eminent senior Fellows of the Association for Consumer Research who have drawn upon anthropology to make their own seminal contributions to a number of disciplines punctuate this exceptional volume A remarkable and extraordinary text Contemporary Marketing and Consumer Behavior is ideal for scholars students and professionals in marketing cultural studies gender studies psychology sociology anthropology and communication
