More Far Eastern Tales W. Somerset Maugham, 1998-01 A further selection of stories inspired by travels in Singapore Malaya and other exotic parts of the former British Empire From the love affair between a missionary and a drunkard to the mystery surrounding a death on board ship the stories give a fascinating insight into life and history of these colonies and are imbued with warmth humour and a vast understanding of human nature From the Trade Paperback edition Helpless Imperialists Maurus Reinkowski, Gregor Thum, 2012-11-21 Helpless Imperialists enquires into the relation between imperial exposure fear radicalization and violence and highlights moments of peripety bringing imperialist grandeur to collapse

Lion City Narratives: Singapore Through Western Eyes Victor R Savage, 2021-11-18 Lion City Narratives Singapore Through Western Eyes fulfils four aims First it is a study of subjective Western impressions of Singapore s 145 years 1819 1963 of colonial history The study is not meant to be an in depth historical analysis of Singapore but rather to give the reader an impressionistic account of how Western residents viewed Singapore over the decades Second this study could be seen as a short biography of Singapore s evolution as a city The chapters on the imageability of Singapore and its urban morphology provide a holistic perspective of Singapore s urban dynamics Third this book provides a cultural insight into Singapore s population both White residents and transient visitors as well as the locals or Asians Fourth it opens a window into Singapore s development at a time when the West was at its cultural zenith and when Great Britain was the principal superpower of the 19th century Hence Singapore carried twin colonial legacies it was the archetype trading emporium between East and West and it became for the British the major point d appui for defence Finally the Singapore colonial narrative is set in a broader academic discourse that allows the reader to see a wider picture of Singapore s colonial development The book does not attempt to make a definitive statement about the Western involvement in Singapore it deals more with an association of many subjective Western perspectives that add colour to the liveability of the tropics perceptions of the exotic Orient and the myriad views of ethnic groups Without the Western writings paintings and maps academia would have minimal records of Singapore s development As a new colony in the early 19th century however Singapore s growth has been extremely well documented This book will appeal to Singaporeans interested in understanding Singapore s colonial past Westerners interested in the Western cultural persona in the development of Singapore researchers dealing with the urban development of less developed countries and colonial development in the tropical world and lastly academics who are interested in Singapore and the region s political and economic development as a case study Circumstance Rosie Milne, 2019-05-01 What happens when an adoring young bride is met on the doorstep of her new home by her husband s former mistress Frank Rose and Nony are about to find out It is 1924 and the British rule Malaya Frank is a colonial administrator in a remote district deep in the jungle Rose is the innocent young bride he s just brought out from England Nony is the native mistress he d previously abandoned along with their four children When Rose arrives in Malaya she knows nothing of her new husband s past But how long can she remain ignorant Frank Rose and Nony soon become entangled in vines of secrecy and lying they are snagged by thorns of bribery and blackmail and caught in sticky webs of bluff and counter bluff Something must give between them but what

Making Commercial Law Through Practice 1830-1970 Ross Cranston,2021-05-27 Making Commercial Law Through Practice 1830 1970 adds a new dimension to the history of Britain s commerce trade manufacturing and financial services by showing how they have operated in law over the last one hundred and forty years In the main law and lawyers were not the driving force regulation was largely absent and judges tended to accommodate commercial needs so that market actors were able to shape the law through their practices Using legal and historical scholarship the author draws on archival sources previously unexploited for the study of commercial practice and the law s role in it This book will stimulate parallel research in other subject areas of law Modern commercial lawyers will learn a great deal about the current law from the story of its evolution and economic and business historians will see how the world of commerce and trade operated in a legal context

from the Far East, 1873 One Minute More Robert Rotenberg, 2025-02-25 For fans of Lee Child and Brad Thor an unstoppable thriller set in 1988 when a mere 100 hours before world leaders gather for the G7 summit police get a hot tip that an assassin is on the way It's a long shot mission No one thinks much of the information the Toronto chief of police receives from a mysterious source a would be assassin is about to cross the border into Canada to kill the heads of the seven most powerful countries in the world Undeterred he sends young police officer Ari Greene to a sleepy Quebec Vermont border town to investigate During a festive and colourful July 4th parade Greene spots his unlikely target and gives chase across borders and boundaries But as the hours and the minutes until the summit tick down bodies start to pile up And no one not even international heads of state are safe This prequel to Robert Rotenberg's bestselling series including What We Buried and Downfall is an excellent introduction to one of Toronto's favourite detectives Ari Greene on his first ever case An enthralling action thriller in the tradition of Frederick Forsyth's The Day of the Jackal and Robert Ludlum's Jason Bourne series One Minute More is sure to delight readers of Rotenberg's previous books and attract a whole new audience

Daughter of Hong Kong Siobhan Daiko, 2024-12-11 Based on a true story a tale of love and survival against all the odds set in Hong Kong at the start of the Pacific War Can love conquer all Spring 1939 dashing young William Burton and the beautiful Constance Han set sail from London on the same ocean liner to Hong Kong Connie is intrigued by Will's talent for writing poetry and as romance blossoms she offers to give him Cantonese lessons to help him with his new job a cadet in the colonial service But once in Hong Kong Connie is constrained by filial duty towards her Eurasian parents and their wish for her to marry someone from her own background When war breaks out Connie and Will find themselves drawn into a wider conflict than their battle against prejudice Can they survive and achieve a future together Or will forces beyond their control keep them forever apart A sweeping tale of love and perseverance perfect for readers of Dinah Jefferies Fiona Valpy and Ann Bennett Previously published as The Flame Tree Five stars without a moment's hesitation highly recommended if you enjoy historical romance Reader Review Wow Just WOW What a completely absorbing read I absolutely lapped up every single word Reader Review It was a real page turner and so engrossed was I that I read it in one sitting A good read Reader Review This is a wonderfully rewarding read with vivid characters and settings I'd give it more stars if they were available Reader Review A convincing and very moving romance a fascinating slice of history Coupled with the most wonderful story telling this book delivered everything I could have possibly wanted Reader Review PRAISE FOR SIOBHAN DAIKO Reading Siobhan's Daughters of Tuscany was like meeting an old dear friend after a long absence What a poignant emotional thoroughly enjoyable read this was such beautiful prose and such a brilliant story that completely transported me Renita D Silva wonderfully fast paced and readable I would recommend this book to anyone who loves to be transported to a different place and time and wants a thoroughly absorbing read Ann Bennett A fantastic story so evocative of both time and place Jo Bartlett
