Partition Of Bengal And Assam Contour Of Freedom:

The Partition of Bengal and Assam, 1932-1947 Bidyut Chakrabarty, 2004-08-02 The fragmentation of Bengal and Assam in 1947 was a crucial moment in India's socio-political history as a nation state. Both the British Indian provinces were divided as much through the actions of the Muslim League as by those of Congress and the British colonial power. Attributing partition largely to Hindu communalists is therefore historically inaccurate and factually misleading. The Partition of Bengal and Assam provides a review of constitutional and party politics as well as of popular attitudes and perceptions. The primary aim of this book is to unravel the intricate socio-economic and political processes that led up to partition as Hindus and Muslims competed ferociously for the new power and privileges to be conferred on them with independence. As shown in the book well before they divorced at a political level, Hindus and Muslims had been cleaved apart by their socio-economic differences. Partition was probably inevitable. The Partition of Bengal and Assam, 1932-1947 Bidyut

Chakrabarty, 2004-08-02 This book is a balanced account of the complex processes that finally culminated in the fragmentation of South Asia following decolonization. The Long History of Partition in Bengal Rituparna Roy, Jayanta Sengupta, Sekhar Bandyopadhyay, 2024-02-13 This book focuses on the aftermath of the 1947 Partition of India. It considers the long aftermath and afterlives of Partition afresh from a wide and inclusive range of perspectives and studies the specificities of the history of violence and migration and their memories in the Bengal region. The chapters in the volume range from the administrative consequences of partition to public policies on refugee settlement, life stories of refugees in camps and colonies and literary and celluloid representations of Partition. It also probes questions of memory, identity and the memorialization of events. Eclectic in its theoretical orientation and methodology, this book will be of interest to scholars and researchers of partition history, colonialism, refugee studies, Indian history, South Asian history, migration studies and modern history in general. The Partition of Bengal Debjani Sengupta, 2015-10-22 This study looks at the rich literature that has been spawned through the historical imagination of Bengali speaking writers in West Bengal and Bangladesh through issues of homelessness, migration and exile to see how the Partition of Bengal in 1947 has thrown a long shadow over memories and cultural practices. Through a rich trove of literary and other materials, the book lays bare how the Partition has been remembered or how it has been forgotten. For the first time hitherto, untranslated archival materials and texts in Bangla have been put together to assess the impact of 1947 on the cultural memory of Bangla speaking peoples and communities. This study contends that there is not one but many smaller partitions that women and men suffered each with its own textures of pain, guilt and affirmation. Patriotism, Partition and the Persecuted Debal K. Singha Roy, 2023-08-07 This book explores the theme of continuous wreaking of brutal persecution of a Hindu family on the one hand and the uncompromising efforts of Muslim friends and neighbours to protect this family on the other. It is set against the resultant and barbaric forces let loose after the propagation of the two nation theory and the ultimate partition of India in 1947. Based on the social biography of a

Hindu family that stayed back in East Pakistan it traces their journey how they became other in the country of their birth and faced persecution This being branded the other led to part of the family migrating to India away from their natal roots The 1965 India Pakistan war further brought prolonged separation and sufferings for these half families living on both sides of the borders Subjecting one to encounter helplessness uncertainty and poverty in India and the other to state sponsored apathy coercion arrests and physical tortures The vicious atmosphere of violent communal aggression though did not stop their Muslim friends from protecting them When the Muslim friend was killed by the religious fanatics in the newly liberated Bangladesh the left behind member of the Hindu family realized that it was time to leave their motherland for India where they died with the desire to go back to their motherland buried along with them Despite prolonged violence and tragic separation thereafter numerous memories of the self sacrificing efforts of the compatriots served as recollection in collective living in the Indian subcontinent

India-Bangladesh Border Disputes Amit Ranjan, 2018-10-30 This book discusses history of mental construction of the border between India and Bangladesh It investigates how and when a border was constructed between the people and discusses how the mental construction preceded the physical construction It also examines the perils faced by those forced to leave their homes as a result of the partition of India in 1947 Globally throughout history the absence of borders made the movement of people from one place to another easier The construction of borders and sovereign de limitation of territory restricted or even prevented seamless migration The situation becomes more complex near borders that were previously open to the movement of people One such border is between India and Bangladesh where in August 1947 suddenly people were told that the places they used to visit on a daily basis were now a part of a different sovereign country This book argues that borders construct the identity of an individual or a group Those who cross to the other side of border for whatever reason are identified and categorized by the state and the people Sometimes these migrants face violence from the locals because they are considered a threat to the local working class The book also explains how after the liberation of Bangladesh in 1971 everyday encounter between people from India and Bangladesh have further embedded a feeling of us versus them In 2015 India and Bangladesh agreed to implement the India Bangladesh Land Boundary Agreement LBA This book assesses whether the implementation of this agreement will have impacts on border related problems like mobility migration and tensions It is a valuable resource for policymakers journalists researchers and students

Partition occurring simultaneously with British decolonization of the Indian subcontinent led to the formation of independent India and Pakistan While the political and communal aspects of the Partition have received some attention its enormous personal and psychological costs have been mostly glossed over particularly when it comes to the splitting of Bengal The memory of this historical ordeal has been preserved in literary archives and these archives are still being excavated This book examines neglected narratives of the Partition of India in 1947 to study the traces left by this foundational trauma on the national and regional cultural imaginaries in India Pakistan and Bangladesh To arrive at a more complex understanding of how Partition experiences of violence migration and displacement shaped postcolonial societies and subjectivities in South Asia the author analyses through novels and short stories multiple cartographies of disorientation and anxiety in the post Partition period The book illuminates how contingencies of political geography cut across personal and collective histories and how these intersections are variously marked and mediated by literature Examining works composed in Bengali and other South Asian languages this book seeks to broaden and complicate existing conceptions of what constitutes the Partition literary archive A valuable addition to the growing field of Partition studies this book will be of interest to scholars of South Asian history gender studies and literature

South Asia Dhananjay Tripathi, Sanjay Chaturvedi, 2021-11-24 Post colonial and post partition South Asia one of the fastest growing and yet one of the least integrated regions of the world is marked by both optimism and pessimism This intriguing dichotomy of strength and weakness security and insecurity hope and fear connections and disconnects underpins South Asia's regionalism conundrum and gives birth to borders and boundaries both material and mental with a complex territoriality The Janus faced nature of South Asian borderlands the inward nationalizing impulses entangled with the outward regional frontier orientations is a stark reminder that history of mobility in this eco geographical region is much older than the history of territoriality and colonial cartography and ethnography This collection of meticulously researched theoretically informed case studies from South Asia provides useful insights into bordering ordering and othering narratives as practices and performances that are intricately entangled with identity politics and security discourses It shows how a sharper focus on subterranean subregionalism's border communities popular geopolitics of enmity and transborder challenges to sustainability could open up spaces for new multiple re imaginings of borders at diverse scales and sights including sub urban neighbourhoods school textbooks cinema and trans border conservation initiatives The chapters in this edited volume have been contributed by both renowned as well as young emerging scholars looking into the borders and boundaries in South Asia Each chapter offers new perspectives and insights into themes like trans Himalayan borderlands India Pakistan physical and mental borders Afghanistan Pakistan border and numerous social
