musical abilities and succeed as performing artists Rudolf Serkin Stephen Lehmann, Marion Faber, 2003-01-16 This book is the first biography of 20th century pianist Rudolf Serkin providing a narrative of Serkin's life with emphasis on his European roots and the impact of his move to America. Based on his personal papers and correspondence as well as extensive interviews with friends, family, and colleagues, the authors focus on three key aspects of Serkin's work, particularly as it unfolded in America: his art and career as a pianist, his activities as a pedagogue including his long association with the Curtis Institute in Philadelphia, and his key role in institutionalizing a redefinition of musical values in America through his work as artistic director of the Marlboro Music School and Festival in Vermont. A candid and colorful blend of narrative and interviews, it offers a probing look into the life and character of this very private man and powerful musical personality.

Psychology for Musicians Robert H. Woody, 2022 In recent years, a psychological perspective has gained increasing acceptance in the education provided to musicians, teachers, performers, and creatives alike. Research in music psychology has revealed how musicians acquire the ability to convey emotional intentions as sounded music, how listeners perceive it as feelings and moods, and how this powerful process relates to social and cultural dynamics. Of course, people who identify as musicians have special interest in these matters. A well-cited volume ever since its initial publication in 2007, Psychology for Musicians is now brought up to date in a second edition, particularly in expanding outside the exclusive context of Western formal academic settings. This new edition draws on insights from recent research in music psychology, combining academic rigor with accessibility to offer readers research-supported ideas that they can readily apply in their musical activities.

Take Five Minutes: Fascinating Facts and Stories for Reading and Critical Thinking Ruth Foster, 2001-06 Features reproducible intellectually stimulating activities that promote learning, reinforce what has been covered, sparks students' interest, and takes only a few minutes to use. Yo-Yo Ma Myra Weatherly, 2007 This book recounts the life of Yo-Yo Ma, musician who at age fifteen began a career as a solo cellist with the world's major orchestras and became a musical educator and ambassador. The Harmonious Child Beth Luey, Stella Saperstein, 2016-02-16 Children are naturally musical, but many parents don't know when or how to begin their child's formal musical education. Whether you wish to encourage your child's musical growth or would like to plan more advanced study, this book provides insight and guidance for parents of children from toddlers to teenagers. Beth Luey and Stella Saperstein walk you through the basics of finding the right instrument and instructor for your child, the ins and outs of music lessons, and successful ways to manage practice time. Along the way, they let you know what questions to ask and why. This is the place to find practical, friendly, and knowledgeable advice about marching band, orchestra, and recitals, even the possibility of a musical career. With a thorough list of resources and a glossary, this guide will help you encourage your child to channel that joyful ruckus into beautiful music. Akira to Zoltan Cynthia Chin-Lee, 2008-07-01 Learn about some men who overcame obstacles to make the world a better place. Yo-Yo Ma Jeanne Nagle, Lisa A. Chippendale, 2016-07-15 The famed Chinese American cellist Yo-Yo Ma was a music prodigy performing for paying audiences at the tender age of five Ma has built a career on the exploration of many types of music and was awarded the Presidential Medal of Freedom Through engaging narrative full color photos and thoughtful direct quotations readers of this biography will be inspired by Ma s never ending drive to stretch the boundaries of his creativity The Funniest People in Sports and Neighborhoods David Bruce,2006-11 This book contains such anecdotes as these 1 Bob Zuppke coached the football Illini for years In a discussion of football rules someone described a play and asked whether the officials had made the right call Before answering however Mr Zuppke asked Which team made the foul Illinois or the other one 2 At a Westminster Dog Show in Madison Square Garden a woman was selling an expensive coat made for dogs Saying We want her dog to look as smart as madame the saleslady held up a pink cocktail coat made out of embroidered silk with a lining of mohair Sportswriter Robert Lipsyte asked her When would a dog wear that The saleslady replied After five o clock 3 Shannon Martin was six years old when she won an age 12 and under roping contest for which she was written up in the Roping Sports News Because she hadn t learned to read yet she kept saying to her father Come on Dad Read it again The Baroque Cello Revival Paul R. Laird,2004 This resource considers the Baroque cello s revival as part of the period instrument movement from the viewpoints of over forty cellists from three generations and four luthiers who have worked on period cellos What emerges is a nuanced and detailed picture of the cello in the past and present and the varied instruments now played under the label Baroque cello Period instruments played with appropriate techniques have become a major presence in classical music in recent decades For the cello which changed substantially between the end of the sixteenth and early eighteenth centuries it is challenging to describe specific traits for certain time periods let alone how it was played in those periods By chronicling the searches of over forty top cellists in England Europe and North America the author goes far in revealing the great variety of forms that exist This is the first study in which the revival of a single period instrument has been considered in such qualified detail and will be of great interest to musicologists luthiers and anyone interested in string history Teaching Violin, Viola, Cello, and Double Bass Dijana Ihas,Miranda Wilson,Gaelen McCormick,2023-11-23 Teaching Violin Viola Cello and Double Bass summarizes three centuries of string pedagogy treatises to create a comprehensive resource on methods and approaches to teaching all four bowed string instruments Co written by three performance and pedagogy experts each specializing in different string instruments this book is applicable to all levels of instruction Essays on historical pedagogues are clearly structured to allow for easy comprehension of their philosophies pedagogical practices and unique contributions This book concludes with a section on application through comparative analysis of the historical methods and approaches With coverage from the eighteenth century to the present this book will be invaluable for teachers and students of string pedagogy and general readers who wish to learn more about string pedagogy s rich history diverse content and modern developments Becoming a Real Musician Robert H. Woody,2019-10-11 Nobody is born a musician Rather people become musical They do so through the right experiences as children and with the right kind of support from the adults in their lives Most teachers and parents believe that music can be a powerful a gift to kids Ideally it becomes a lifelong gift rather than merely a pastime of childhood to be reminisced about later Unfortunately not all music educational experiences produce a lasting musicianship This book shares how learning experiences can be made more relevant practical and real world for young people studying music With such experiences kids can be on their way to becoming real musicians defined as people whose musical skills allow them to lead musically active lives whether music making is their profession or a personally fulfilling part of their leisure time David Bruce,2006-06-01 Bride of The Funniest People in Religion and Families contains such anecdotes as these When Panamanian salsa singer Rubin Blades married Lisa Lebenzon an Anglo a white American not of Spanish descent non Spanish speaker he asked her to learn Spanish so he could speak his native language at home She finished in only seven months a Spanish course that normally took three years Dr Louis Finkelstein chancellor of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America kept a strictly kosher diet While in Paris he and a group of rabbis ate only in kosher restaurants On leaving Paris Dr Finkelstein joked I can t understand all this fuss people make about French cooking We have the same things at home A Sufi teacher spoke about the virtue of patience As he spoke a scorpion stung his foot repeatedly His followers eventually noticed the scorpion and asked the teacher why he had not moved his foot away from it The teacher replied I was discussing the virtue of patience I could hardly have spoken about patience without also setting an example of patience I would have been ashamed before God Adolf Busch , The Violin Mark Katz,2006 This book is the only complete and up to date annotated bibliography available on women s activities and contributions in the creation and performance of music through the ages Encompassing major books articles and recordings published over the past five decades the book examines a broad cross section of contemporary thought with each entry with over 500 devoted to resources from countries outside the US including annotation along with a critical description of content

The Music Inside Us James Howe,2025-06-03 From a bestselling and award winning team comes a moving gorgeously illustrated picture book biography of one of the greatest cellists of all time Yo Yo Ma and his lifelong passion for using music to unite people in harmony and joy I ve been asking myself all my life What is the purpose of music Yo Yo Ma At a young age Yo Yo Ma discovered a remarkable gift for the cello playing Bach from memory by age four His technique was far beyond his years but even as he grew and became a world class musician studying at Juilliard performing at Carnegie Hall at a young age even playing on television before the president of the United States he wanted to use his gift for something deeper something bigger As he asked question after question trying to understand his place in the world he discovered something that every culture has in common music Ma decided that he would spend his life not only performing for others but learning from other cultures musical traditions and finding ways to unite people Even as he dedicated himself to humanitarian work around the world Ma also dedicated himself to teaching a new generation of young cellists to play with their whole hearts bodies and souls like he does how to find the music inside themselves From James Howe bestselling author of Bunnicula and

Jack Wong award winning author illustrator of When You Can Swim comes the story of legendary cellist Yo Yo Ma who was special not only because of his unmatched talent but also his curious mind and compassionate heart Powerfully told and stunningly illustrated this biography will inspire readers to discover the gifts inside us all Back matter includes an author s and an illustrator s note a timeline of Ma s life and resources to learn more about his life and work American Book Publishing Record ,2000
