Quixotic Modernists Louise Ciallella, 2007 Quixotic Modernists gives close readings of two novels by two little studied writers of the early twentieth century in Spain Felipe Trigo's Las ingenuas 1901 and Maria Martinez Sierra's Tu eres la paz 1906 in relation to the canonical Tristana by Benito Perez Galdos Spain's greatest nineteenth century novelist This study shows the modern message regarding gender and modernist qualities of the prose of these works Included are discussions of Quijote intertexts proverbial language and tactics the angel and the mujer nina flower water and animal imagery and visual arts in relation to gender definition Also included are contemporary responses to the novels and material about the authors lives and Spain's social conditions in the early twentieth century Quixotic Modernists integrates these themes into a study of the novelization of difficulties in transforming contemporary gender and class roles In all three authors works this process of change in roles for both men and women becomes a quixotic enterprise in which artists as and characters search to reconnect with an elusive material social body

Erotic Faith Robert M. Polhemus, 1995-03 In this profoundly original and far reaching study Robert M Polhemus shows how novels have helped to make erotic love a matter of faith in modern life Erotic faith Polhemus argues is an emotional conviction ultimately religious in nature that meaning value hope and even the possibility of transcendence can be found in love Drawing on a wide range of disciplines Polhemus shows the reciprocity of love as subject the novel as form and faith as motive in important works by Jane Austen

Walter Scott the Brontës Dickens George Eliot Trollope Thomas Hardy Joyce D H Lawrence Virginia Woolf and Samuel Beckett Throughout Polhemus relates the novelists representation of love to that of such artists as Botticelli Vermeer Claude Lorrain Redon and Klimt Juxtaposing their paintings with nineteenth and twentieth century texts both reveals the ways in which novels develop and individualize common erotic and religious themes and illustrates how the novel has influenced our perception of all art Best Lesbian Erotica, 2003 Circling Round Eros + 2 Arlene Corwin, 2012-08-22 Circling Round Eros 2 is for the mature erotic poetry for the mature Of all the collections I have in my computer this might have been the last to publish But the more I thought about it the more enticing the idea became After all I was moved to write the stuff Why hide it A short collection it says all I have observed so far about the act the actions the motivations the dynamics of making love after the age of say thirty No forty No fifty No sixty Well seventy Coffee Book honors the heightened creative effects of coffee I thought of sending Coffee Book to the coffee industry Surely they would appreciate the homage I thought Then I thought better of it However every coffee drinker will appreciate it identify with effects that can vary from the gymnastically creatively sublime to the exhausting Circling Round Baths is a collection composed inspired and written down on dripping paper sullied sodden sopping notebooks stripes of ballpoint ink made transparent by hands too impatient to be dried the mind too impulsive to have towel ready by the side It honors baths Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. A Philosophy of Belonging James Greenaway, 2023-08-15 James Greenaway offers a philosophical guide to understanding affirming and valuing the significance of belonging across personal political and historical dimensions of existence A sense of belonging is one of the most meaningful experiences of anyone's life Inversely the discovery that one does not belong can be one of the most upsetting experiences In A Philosophy of Belonging Greenaway treats the notion of belonging as an intrinsically philosophical one After all belonging raises intense questions of personal self understanding identity mortality and longing it confronts interpersonal sociopolitical and historical problems and it probes our relationship with both the knowable world and transcendent mystery Experiences of alienation exclusion and despair become conspicuous only because we are already moved by a primordial desire to belong Greenaway presents a hermeneutical framework that brings the intelligibility of belonging into focus and discusses the works of various representative thinkers in light of this hermeneutic The study is divided into two main parts Presence and Communion In the first Greenaway considers the abiding presence of the cosmos as the context of personhood and the world followed by the presence of persons to themselves and others by way of consciousness and embodiment culminating in a discussion of the unrestricted horizon of meaning that love makes present in persons In the second part belonging in community is explored as a crucial type of communion that is both politically and historically structured Moreover communion has direction and a quality of sacredness that offers itself for consideration Greenaway concludes with a discussion of the consequences of refusing presence and communion and what is involved in the repudiation of belonging

Heterosexual Masculinities and the Self-Reflexive Novel Stefano Rossoni, 2025-07-24

Heterosexual Masculinities and the Self Reflexive Novel examines how the narratives of four world renowned authors namely J M Coetzee Milan Kundera Philip Roth and Mario Vargas Llosa offer a standpoint through which to address the inscription of heterosexual masculinity into Western literary legacy and the ways in which masculinity is re fashioned in contemporary self reflexive novels Considering the interconnectedness of their narratives for the first time the book explores unexamined patterns of dialogue among Coetzee Kundera Roth and Vargas Llosa while also contextualising their writing in the light of the European literary tradition inaugurated by Cervantes's Don Quixote and continued by Flaubert's Madame Bovary Rather than building on conventional theoretical approaches to literary studies Stefano Rossoni develops a fresh and engaging approach by looking at these two works not only as narrative texts but most importantly as theories of literature In dialogue with critical contributions that examined men's emotional illiteracy and struggle to develop a language for self reflection the book argues that the narratives of Coetzee Kundera Roth and Vargas Llosa engage with the tradition of the self reflexive novel and its ramifications to reflect on masculinity as a socio cultural construction Ultimately their writing reveals men s novelistic self reflexivity as a site of unintelligibility Sounds Interesting J. C. Wells,2014-09-25 How do you pronounce omega tortoise and sloth and why Do charted and chartered sound the same How do people pronounce the names Charon Punjab and Sexwale In this engaging book John Wells a world renowned phonetician and phonologist explores these questions and others Each chapter consists of carefully selected entries from Wells acclaimed phonetics blog on which he regularly posted on a range of current and widely researched topics such as pronunciation teaching intonation spelling and accents Based on sound scholarship and full of fascinating facts about the pronunciation of Welsh Swedish Czech Zulu Icelandic and other languages this book will appeal to scholars and students in phonetics and phonology as well as general readers wanting to know more about language Anyone interested in why a poster in Antigua invited cruise ship visitors to enjoy a game of porker or what hymns can tell us about pronunciation should read this book
