Literary Translation and Cultural Mediators in 'Peripheral' Cultures Diana Roig-Sanz,Reine Meylaerts,2018-07-20 This book sets the grounds for a new approach exploring cultural mediators as key figures in literary and cultural history It proposes an innovative conceptual and methodological understanding of the figure of the cultural mediator defined as a cultural actor active across linguistic cultural and geographical borders occupying strategic positions within large networks and being the carrier of cultural transfer Many studies on translation and cultural mediation privileged the major metropolis of Paris London and New York as centres of cultural production and translation However other cities and megacities that are not global centres of culture also feature vibrant translation scenes This book abandons the focus on innovative centres and imitative peripheries and follows processes of cultural exchange as they develop Thus it analyses the role of cultural mediators as customs officers or smugglers or both in different proportions in so called peripheral cultures and offers insights into an under analysed body of actors and institutions promoting intercultural transfer in often multilingual and less studied venues such as Trieste Tel Aviv Buenos Aires Lima Lahore or Cape Town

Contemporary Rationalist Islam in Turkey

Gokhan Bacik, 2021-07-29 Nineteenth century Istanbul was an intellectual hub of rich discussions about Islam in which leading reformists had a significant role Turkey today appears to be an intellectual vacuum to anyone searching for ongoing critical engagement with Islam The main purpose of this book is to adjust this view of Turkey by showcasing the modern Turkish theologians who challenge mainstream Sunni interpretations of Islam Labelling these theologians as rationalist rather than reformist the author reveals that their theology is inherently anti establishment and thus a religiously oriented challenge to the hegemony of the state sanctioned Islam for the rationalists Turkey's problems have their origins in the Sunni interpretation of Islam Contemporary Rationalist Islam in Turkey analyses nine prominent scholars of Islam who provide a religious opposition to the Sunni revival in Turkey Hseyin Atay Yasar Nuri Zerk M Hayri Kirbasoglu Ilhami Guler R Ihsan Elialik mer zsoy Mustafa Zerk Israfil Balci and Mehmet Azimli These scholars writings are almost exclusively published in Turkish so this book makes their ideas available in English for the first time It also examines the scope methodology and argumentation of the scholars theology categorizing their theological interpretations from historicist to universalist and from empiricist to rationalist In identifying a new rationalist school of Turkish theology and outlining its different manifestations the book breaks new ground It fills a significant gap in the literature on Islamic studies and reveals an understudied dimension of Turkey and Turkish Islam beyond the well known ideas of the AKP and the Gulenists

The (Un)Translatability of Qur'anic Idiomatic Phrasal Verbs Ali Yunis Aldahesh, 2021-07-27 Qur'anic idiomaticity in its all aspects poses a great deal of challenge to Qur'an readers learners commentators and translators One of the most challenging aspects of Qur'anic idiomaticity is Qur'anic idiomatic phrasal verbs where significances of proper Arabic verbs are entirely fused with significances of prepositions following them to produce new significances that have nothing to do with the basic significances of those verbs and prepositions By examining a corpus of ten of the most influential English translations of the Qur'an this study scrutinizes how some translators of the Qur'an have dealt with the phenomenon of Qur'anic idiomatic phrasal verbs the difficulties that they have encountered when translating them into English and the strategies that they have employed in their attempts to overcome the inherent ambiguity of such expressions and provide their functional pragmatic equivalents for English readership The study proposes a working model for analysing and assessing the translation of the Qur'anic idiomatic phrasal verbs and provides a number of theory based recommendations for translators in general and Qur'an translators in particular
