On Black Media Philosophy Armond R. Towns, 2022-03-01 Who is the human in media philosophy Although media philosophers have argued since the twentieth century that media are fundamental to being human this question has not been explicitly asked and answered in the field Armond R Towns demonstrates that humanity in media philosophy has implicitly referred to a social Darwinian understanding of the human as a Western white male capitalist figure Building on concepts from Black studies and cultural studies Towns develops an insightful critique of this dominant conception of the human in media philosophy and introduces a foundation for Black media philosophy Delving into the narratives of the Underground Railroad the politics of the Black Panther Party and the digitization of Michael Brown's killing On Black Media Philosophy deftly illustrates that media are not only important for Western Humanity but central to alternative Black epistemologies and other ways of being human

Legacies of Enslavement in the French Republic Nicola Frith, 2025-05-06 Legacies of Enslavement in the French Republic explores the complex dynamics between social movements invested in remembering and addressing the legacies of African enslavement and the French State Exploring 25 years of activism from the build up to the 150th anniversary of the Abolition Act 1998 through to the present day the book Investigates strategies used by the French State to delink the recognition of France's enslaving past from contemporary issues with anti Black racism and reparation Asks why in the wake of the first Taubira law that recognized slavery as a crime against humanity 2001 the state has legitimized the work of certain activist groups while delegitimizing others Uses critical race theory and decolonial theory to examine the extent to which the State's approach to recognizing its past is structured by a colonial matrix of power Highlights and contests political and media misconceptions about reparations by showcasing the work of grassroots activists operating in France the Caribbean and the Indian Ocean In doing so Legacies of Enslavement showcases some of the key shifts that have taken place in the recent history of activist work operating in parallel with the successive metamorphoses of the French state as it responds to social and political pressure to recognize and repair the nation's enslaving past and its racial legacies today

White Parents, Black Children Darron T. Smith, Cardell K. Jacobson, Brenda G. Juárez, 2011-11-16 White Parents Black Children looks at the difficult issue of race in transracial adoptions particularly the adoption by white parents of children from different racial and ethnic groups Despite the long history of troubled and fragile race relations in the United States some people believe the United States may be entering a post racial state where race no longer matters citing evidence like the increasing number of transracial adoptions to make this point However White Parents Black Children argues that racism remains a factor for many children of transracial adoptions Black children raised in white homes are not exempt from racism and white parents are often naive about the experiences their children encounter This book aims to bring to light racial issues that are often difficult for families to talk about focusing on the racial socialization white parents provide for their transracially adopted children about what it means to be black in contemporary American society Blending the stories of adoptees and their parents with extensive research the authors discuss trends in transracial adoptions challenge the concept of colorblind America and offer suggestions to help adoptees develop a healthy sense of self

Freedom Dreams Robin D. G. Kelley, 2022-08-23 The 20th anniversary edition of Kelley's influential history of 20th century Black radicalism with new reflections on current movements and their impact on the author and a foreword by poet Aja Monet First published in 2002 Freedom Dreams is a staple in the study of the Black radical tradition Unearthing the thrilling history of grassroots movements and renegade intellectuals and artists Kelley recovers the dreams of the future worlds Black radicals struggled to achieve Focusing on the insights of activists from the Revolutionary Action Movement to the insurgent poetics of Aim and Suzanne C saire Kelley chronicles the quest for a homeland the hope that communism offered the politics of surrealism the transformative potential of Black feminism and the long dream of reparations for slavery and Jim Crow In this edition Kelley includes a new introduction reflecting on how movements of the past 20 years have expanded his own vision of freedom to include mutual care disability justice abolition and decolonization and a new epilogue exploring the visionary organizing of today's freedom dreamers This classic history of the power of the Black radical imagination is as timely as when it was first published

When Sorry Isn't Enough Roy L. Brooks, 1999-06 This anthology is a collection of essays written by both internationally renowned and emerging scholars and of public documents that concern claims from around the world which seek redress for human injustice Preface

Africana Anthony Appiah, Henry Louis Gates (Jr.), 2005 Ninety years after W E B Du Bois first articulated the need for the equivalent of a black Encyclopedia Britannica Kwame Anthony Appiah and Henry Louis Gates Jr realized his vision by publishing Africana The Encyclopedia of the African and African American Experience in 1999 This new greatly expanded edition of the original work broadens the foundation provided by Africana Including more than one million new words Africana has been completely updated and revised New entries on African kingdoms have been added bibliographies now accompany most articles and the encyclopedia's coverage of the African diaspora in Latin America and the Caribbean has been expanded transforming the set into the most authoritative research and scholarly reference set on the African experience ever created More than 4 000 articles cover prominent individuals events trends places political movements art forms business and trade religion ethnic groups organizations and countries on both sides of the Atlantic African American history and culture in the present day United States receive a strong emphasis but African American history and culture throughout the rest of the Americas and their origins in Africa itself have an equally strong presence The articles that make up Africana cover subjects ranging from affirmative action to zydeco and span over four million years from the earliest known hominids to Sean Diddy Combs With entries ranging from the African ethnic groups to members of the Congressional Black Caucus Africana Second Edition conveys the history and scope of cultural expression of people of African descent with unprecedented depth

Historical Justice in International Perspective Manfred Berg, Bernd Schaefer, Bernd Schäfer, 2009 This book makes a valuable contribution to debates on redress for historical injustices by offering case studies from nine countries on five continents The contributors examine the problems of material restitution criminal justice apologies recognition memory and reconciliation in national contexts as well as from a comparative perspective Among the topics discussed are the claims for reparations for slavery in the United States West German restitution for the Holocaust the South African Truth and Reconciliation Commission the efforts to prosecute the perpetrators of the Khmer Rouge's mass murders in Cambodia and the struggles of the indigenous people of Australia and New Zealand The book highlights the diversity of the ways societies have tried to right past wrongs as the demand for historical justice has become universal

The Rise of African Slavery in the Americas David Eltis, 2000 Why were the countries with the most developed institutions of individual freedom also the leaders in establishing the most exploitative system of slavery that the world has ever seen In seeking to provide new answers to this question The Rise of African Slavery in the Americas examines the development of the English Atlantic slave system between 1650 and 1800 The book outlines a major African role in the evolution of the Atlantic societies before the nineteenth century and argues that the transatlantic slave trade was a result of African strength rather than African weakness It also addresses changing patterns of group identity to account for the racial basis of slavery in the early modern Atlantic World Exploring the paradox of the concurrent development of slavery and freedom in the European domains David Eltis provides a fresh interpretation of this difficult historical problem

Racial Formation in the United States Michael Omi,Howard Winant,2014-06-20 Twenty years since the publication of the Second Edition and more than thirty years since the publication of the original book Racial Formation in the United States now arrives with each chapter radically revised and rewritten by authors Michael Omi and Howard Winant but the overall purpose and vision of this classic remains the same Omi and Winant provide an account of how concepts of race are created and transformed how they become the focus of political conflict and how they come to shape and permeate both identities and institutions The steady journey of the U S toward a majority nonwhite population the ongoing evisceration of the political legacy of the early post World War II civil rights movement the initiation of the war on terror with its attendant Islamophobia the rise of a mass immigrants rights movement the formulation of race class gender intersectionality theories and the election and reelection of a black President of the United States are some of the many new racial conditions Racial Formation now covers

An Intellectual Biography of Africa Francis Kwarteng,2022-07-13 Africa is the birthplace of humanity and civilization And yet people generally don t want to accept the scientific impression of Africa as the birthplace of human civilization The skeptics include Africans themselves a direct result of the colonial educational systems still in place across Africa and even those Africans who acquire Western education particularly in the humanities have been trapped in the symptomatology of epistemic peonage These colonial educational systems have overstayed their welcome and should be dismantled This is where African agency comes in Agential autonomy deserves an authoritative voice in shaping the curricular direction of Africa Agential autonomy implicitly sanctions an Afrocentric approach to curriculum development pedagogy historiography literary theory indigenous language development and knowledge construction Science technology engineering mathematics information and communications technology STEM ICT and research and development R D both exercise foundational leverage in the scientific and cultural discourse of the kind of African Renaissance Cheikh Anta Diop envisaged Mr Francis Kwarteng has written a book that looks at some of the major distortions of African history and Africa s major contributions to human civilization In this context Mr Kwarteng joins a long list of thinkers who roundly reject the foundational Eurocentric epistemology of Africa in favor of an Afrocentric paradigm of Africa s material spiritual scientific and epistemic assertion Mr Kwarteng places S T E M and a revision of the humanities at the center of the African Renaissance and critiques Eurocentric fantasies about Africa and its Diaspora following the critical examples of Cheikh Anta

Philosophy of African American Studies Stephen Ferguson, 2015-09-16 In this ground breaking book Stephen C Ferguson addresses a seminal question that is too often ignored What should be the philosophical basis for African American studies The volume explores philosophical issues and problems in their relationship to Black studies Ferguson shows that philosophy is not a sterile intellectual pursuit but a critical tool to gathering knowledge about the Black experience Cultural idealism in various forms has become enormously influential as a framework for Black studies Ferguson takes on the task of demonstrating how a Marxist philosophical perspective offers a productive and fruitful way of overcoming the limitations of idealism Focusing on the hugely popular Afrocentric school of thought this book's engaging discussion shows that the foundational arguments of cultural idealism are based on a series of analytical and historical misapprehensions In turn Ferguson argues for the centrality of the Black working class both men and women to Black Studies

Racism Albert J. Wheeler, 2000 Of all mankind's vices racism is one of the most pervasive and stubborn Success in overcoming racism has been achieved from time to time but victories have been limited thus far because mankind has focused on personal economic gain or power grabs ignoring generosity of the soul This bibliography brings together the literature providing access by subject groupings as well as author and subject indexes Contents Racial Attitudes Racism and Poverty Hate Groups Racial Justice Racism and Politics Race Discrimination Racial Identity Racism Around the World
