McMillen, 1994 This in depth account of the rise and decline of the Citizens Councils of America details the organization's role in the massive resistance to school desegregation in the South following the 1954 Brown vs Board of Education decision Included are a new preface and updated bibliography A tour de force of research and narration in highly readable style McMillen seems to have read everything the historical record has to offer on the subject and to have known exactly what to make of it Himself squarely on the side of the future he is sensitive to the anguish that prompted the hysteria of the misguided racist By any test a masterful study Journal of Southern History Takes seriously the people who made the movement when ridicule and caricature would have been an easier analytical technique Solidly researched and well written an intriguing story Augustus M Burns Social Studies Bibliography on the Urban Crisis National Clearinghouse for Mental Health Information (U.S.), 1968 Public Health Service Publication, 1969 Representing Segregation Brian Norman, Piper Kendrick Williams, 2012-02-01 As a touchstone issue in American history segregation has had an immeasurable impact on the lives of most ethnic groups in the United States Primarily associated with the Jim Crow South and the court cases Plessy v Ferguson 1896 and Brown v Board of Education 1954 segregation comprises a diverse set of cultural practices ethnic experiences historical conditions political ideologies municipal planning schemes and de facto social systems Representing Segregation traces the effects of these practices on the literary imagination and proposes a distinct literary tradition of representing segregation Contributors engage a cross section of writers literary movements segregation practices and related experiences of racial division in order to demonstrate the richness and scope of responses to segregation in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries By taking up the cultural expression of the Jim Crow period and its legacies this collection reorients literary analysis of an important body of African American literature in productive new directions The African American Experience Arvarh E. Strickland, Robert E. Weems Jr., 2000-11-30 Compared to the early decades of the 20th century when scholarly writing on African Americans was limited to a few titles on slavery Reconstruction and African American migration the last thirty years have witnessed an explosion of works on the African American experience With the Civil Rights and Black Power movements of the 1960s came an increasing demand for the study and teaching of African American history followed by the publication of increasing numbers of titles on African American life and history This volume provides a comprehensive bibliographical and analytical guide to this growing body of literature as well as an analysis of how the study of African Americans has changed Racial Discrimination and Public Policy in the United States Richard M. Burkey, 1971 Study of the effectiveness of government policy to combat racial discrimination against Blacks in the USA gives a historical summary of black discrimination and black white stratification in the USA identifies the factors that affect the degree of effectiveness or lack thereof of public policies directed against discrimination demonstrates that there have been changes toward parity in ethnic intergroup relations proposes research areas relating to the policy making process and suggests inquiries into the role of race in that process

Racial and Ethnic Residential Segregation Across the United States Amber R. Crowell, Mark A. Fossett, 2023-08-31 This open access book provides new findings on and insights into trends and patterns in residential segregation between racial and ethnic groups in the United States It draws on new methods that make it possible to investigate segregation involving small groups and segregation patterns in nonmetropolitan communities with greater accuracy and clarity than has previously been possible As one example the authors are able to track residential segregation patterns across a wide selection of nonmetropolitan communities where Black Latino and Asian populations are small but can still potentially experience segregation The authors also track White Latino segregation from its inception when Latino households first arrived in non negligible numbers in new destination communities and then document how segregation changes over time as the Latino population grows over time to become larger and more established Finally this work shows how segregation of Latino and Asian households is fundamentally different from that of Black households based on the much greater role that cultural and socioeconomic characteristics play in shaping White Latino and White Asian segregation in comparison to White Black segregation

Richmond, 2013-10-22 Readings in Race and Ethnic Relations is a part of a series of Readings in Sociology This book is composed of four parts with a total of 17 chapters Part 1 explains the concepts of race racism and identity Parts 2 and 3 elucidate the relationship of race with religion urbanization and ethnic stratification Lastly Part 4 explores how race is associated with politics and conflict One of the distinctive features of this book is the inclusion of some articles translated into English from other languages Linguists communicators and other people interested in this field of study will find this book invaluable 'Sleepwalking to segregation'? Nissa Finney, Ludi Simpson, 2009-01-21 In the context of renewed debates about diversity and cohesion this book interrogates contemporary claims about race and migration It demonstrates that many of the claims are myths presenting evidence in support of and in opposition to them in an accessible yet academically rigorous manner The book combines an easy to read overview of the subject with innovative new research It tackles head on questions about levels of immigration the contribution of immigrants minority self segregation ghettoisation and the future diversity of the population The authors argue that the myths of race and migration are the real threat to an integrated society and recommend that focus should return to problems of inequality and prejudice Not Alms but Opportunity Touré F. Reed, 2009-06-01 Illuminating the class issues that shaped the racial uplift movement Toure Reed explores the ideology and policies of the national New York and Chicago Urban Leagues during the first half of the twentieth century Reed argues that racial uplift in the Urban League reflected many of the class biases pervading contemporaneous social reform movements resulting in an emphasis on behavioral rather than structural remedies to the disadvantages faced by Afro Americans Reed traces the Urban League's ideology to the famed Chicago School of Sociology The Chicago School offered Leaguers powerful scientific tools with which to foil the thrust of eugenics However Reed argues concepts such as ethnic cycle and social disorganization and reorganization led the League to embrace behavioral models of uplift that reflected a deep circumspection about poor Afro Americans and fostered a preoccupation with the needs of middle class blacks According to Reed the League's reform endeavors from the migration era through World War II oscillated between projects to adjust or even contain unacculturated Afro Americans and projects intended to enhance the status of the Afro American middle class Reed's analysis complicates the mainstream account of how particular class concerns and ideological influences shaped the League's vision of group advancement as well as the consequences of its endeavors Good Parents, Better Homes, and Great Schools Karen Benjamin, 2025-06-09 Good Parents Better Homes and Great Schools examines how white residential developers planning consultants and their allies in government strategically replaced block level segregation with segregation at the neighborhood level in New South cities such as Atlanta Baltimore Birmingham Houston Raleigh and Winston Salem Going beyond the well known Home Owners Loan Corporation maps of the 1930s Karen Benjamin traces segregation tactics back to the late nineteenth century when this public private partnership laid the groundwork for the nationwide segregation strategies codified by the New Deal This book links the tactics of residential and school segregation to prevailing middle class ideas about what constitutes good parenting ensuring the longevity of both practices By focusing on efforts that specifically targeted parents Benjamin not only adds a new dimension to the history of residential segregation but also helps explain why that legacy has been so difficult to undo Security, crime and segregation in West African cities since the 19th century Laurent Fourchard, Isaac Olawale Albert, Institut français de recherche en Afrique, 2003-01-01 Les questions de sécurité et de criminalité sont devenues de nouveaux objets d'études en Afrique essentiellement en raison de la multiplication récente des formes de criminalité urbaine ou organisée et de la privatisation avancée de grandes portions d'espaces urbains ph nom nes que l'on pouvait croire limités aux Amériques L'endemicité de la crise économique l'accroissement de la pauvreté la criminalisation de l'état et la faillite des polices tropicales ont considérablement accru les sentiments d'insécurité et accéléré le développement d'agences privées qui prennent le relais d'états incapables d'assumer le contrôle du corps social Les auteurs de ce livre interrogent l'efficacité des fonctions régaliennes de l'état sécurité police justice et leur éventuelle dévolution des organismes privés associations groupes d'autodéfense milices ils rendent compte d'un groupe et de sa catégorisation criminels délinquants et proposent un nouveau regard sur une certaine gestion urbaine de l'insécurité sécurisation Alors que de nombreuses études se sont naturellement focalisées sur les vingt dernières années la quasi absence d'études historiques sur la sécurité et la criminalité laisserait supposer que ces phénomènes sont nouveaux en Afrique L'une des priorités de ce livre est de reconsidérer ces questions en proposant une approche pluridisciplinaire histoire science politique géographie sociologie littérature De nombreuses études empiriques témoignent de la variété des trajectoires criminelles des rôles successifs des polices coloniales et postcoloniales de la multiplicité des agences de sécurité privée et des formes sécuritaires d'organisation de l'espace urbain en Afrique de l'Ouest En raison de la taille et du nombre de ses villes et de l'épaisseur historique de la criminalité urbaine le Nigeria tient une place singulière dans ce livre Premier pays de la région à entrer dans l'ère du crime organisé le Nigeria constitue aujourd'hui une base essentielle des réseaux criminels transnationaux à l'échelle mondiale Studies in Segregation and Desegregation Wim Ostendorf, 2019-06-14 This
