Race Sex And Suspicion:

Race, Sex, and Suspicion D. Marvin Jones, 2005 The Scandal of White Complicity in US Hyper-incarceration A. Mikulich, L. Cassidy, M. Pfeil, 2013-02-05 The Scandal of White Complicity and US Hyper incarceration is a groundbreaking exploration of the moral role of white people in the disproportionate incarceration of African Americans and Latinos in the United States

Sexual Discretion Jeffrey Q. McCune, Jr., 2014-03-07 African American men who have sex with men while maintaining a heterosexual lifestyle in public are attracting increasing interest from both the general media and scholars Commonly referred to as down low or DL men many continue to have relationships with girlfriends and wives who remain unaware of their same sex desires and in much of the media DL men have been portrayed as carriers of HIV who spread the virus to black women Sexual Discretion explores the DL phenomenon offering refreshingly innovative analysis of the significance of media space and ideals of black masculinity in understanding down low communities In Sexual Discretion Jeffrey Q McCune Jr provides the first in depth examination of how the social expectations of black masculinity intersect and complicate expressions of same sex affection and desire Within these underground DL communities men aren't as highly policed and thus are able to maintain their public roles as properly masculine McCune draws from sources that range from R and from E Lynn Harris's contemporary sexual passing novels to McCune's own interviews and ethnography in nightclubs and online chat rooms Sexual Discretion details the causes pressures and negotiations driving men who rarely disclose their intimate secrets

Neighborhood Watch Shawn E. Fields, 2022-06-09 Although racism has plagued the American justice system since the nation's colonial beginnings private White Americans are taking matters into their own hands From racist 911 calls and hoaxes to grassroots voter suppression and vigilante self defense concerted efforts are made every day by private citizens to exclude Black Americans from schools neighborhoods and positions of power Neighborhood Watch examines the specific ways people police America's color line to protect White spaces The book charts how these actions too often result in harassment arrest injury or death yet typically go unchecked Instead these actions are promoted and encouraged by legislatures looking to expand racially discriminatory laws a police system designed to respond with force to any frivolous report of Black mischief and a Supreme Court that has abdicated its role in rejecting police abuse To combat these realities Neighborhood Watch offers preliminary recommendations for reform including changes to the maximum policing state increased accountability for civilians who abuse emergency response systems and proposals to demilitarize the color line

Science, Sexuality, and Race in the United States and Australia, 1780-1940 Gregory D. Smithers, 2017 Science Sexuality and Race in the United States and Australia 1780 1940 Revised Edition is a sociohistorical tour de force that examines the entwined formation of racial theory and sexual constructs within settler colonialism in the United States and Australia from the Age of Revolution to the Great Depression Gregory D Smithers historicizes the dissemination and application of scientific and social scientific ideas within the process of nation building in two countries with large Indigenous populations and shows how intellectual constructs of race and sexuality were mobilized to subdue Aboriginal peoples Building on the comparative settler colonial and imperial histories that appeared after the book's original publication this completely revised edition includes two new chapters In this singular contribution to the study of transnational and comparative settler colonialism Smithers expands on recent scholarship to illuminate both the subject of the scientific study of race and sexuality and the national and interrelated histories of the United States and Australia Race, Sex, and Gender in Contemporary Women's Theatre Mary F Brewer, 1999-01-01 Focusing on dramatic works by contemporary British and American playwrights in conjunction with feminist political and theoretical texts this book discusses feminist constructions of the category Woman Dangerous Spaces D. Marvin Jones, 2016-10-24 An eye opening unapologetic explanation of what racial profiling is in modern day America systematic targeting of communities and placing of suspicion on populations on the basis of not only ethnicity but also certain places that are linked to the social identity of that group In 21st century post civil rights era America race has become complex and intersectional It is no longer simply a matter of color black versus white contends author D Marvin Jones but equally a matter of space or geographies of fear which he defines as spaces in which different groups are particularly vulnerable to stereotyping by law enforcement blacks in the urban ghetto Mexicans at the functional equivalent of the border Arabs at the airport Dangerous Spaces Beyond the Racial Profile demonstrates how society has constructed a set of threat narratives in which certain widespread problems immigration drugs gangs and terrorism for example have been racialized and explains the historical and social origins of these racializing threat narratives The book identifies how these narratives have led directly to relentless profiling that results in arrest deportation massive surveillance or even death for members of suspect populations Readers will come to understand how the problem of profiling is not merely a problem of institutional bias and individual decision making but also a deeply rooted cultural issue stemming from the processes of meaning making and identity construction Fear of a Hip-Hop Planet D. Marvin Jones, 2013-04-01 Is Gangsta Rap just black noise Or does it play the same role for urban youth that CNN plays in mainstream America This provocative set of essays tells us how Gangsta Rap is a creative report about an urban crisis our new American dilemma and why we need to listen Increasingly police politicians and late night talk show hosts portray today's inner cities as violent crime ridden war zones The same moral panic that once focused on blacks in general has now been refocused on urban spaces and the black men who live there especially those wearing saggy pants and hoodies The media always spotlights the crime and violence but rarely gives airtime to the conditions that produced these problems The dominant narrative holds that the cause of the violence is the pathology of ghetto culture Hip hop music is at the center of this conversation When 16 year old Chicago youth Derrion Albert was brutally killed by gang members many blamed rap music Thus hip hop music has been demonized not merely as black noise but as a root cause of crime and violence Fear of a Hip Hop Planet America's New Dilemma explores and demystifies the politics in which the gulf between the inner city and suburbia have come to signify not only a socio economic dividing line but a new socio cultural divide as well The Presumption D. Marvin Jones, 2024-05-02 This powerful book on racism in the United States argues that a threatening narrative originating in slavery continues to link Black people to inferiority dangerousness and crime causing them to be presumed guilty by society and U S legal systems Why are Black people stopped arrested and shot by police at such a high rate Why are they portrayed in the media as gangbangers and urban thugs D Marvin Jones writes that the problem of race lies in the way Blackness has been inextricably knotted together in our culture with presumptions In the era of segregation this was a presumption of inferiority but in our era it is primarily a presumption of dangerousness or criminality In chapters on slavery urban spaces the drug war media portrayals and white spaces he shows how the presumption of guilt continues to shape the treatment of Black people in the United States Arguing that this presumption is not simply a matter of hate on the part of individuals but instead a social process linked to a widely shared racial ideology The Presumption points out the continuation of racial caste in the United States as a crisis for democracy and provides a blueprint for a kind of second Reconstruction Contesting Islam, Constructing Race and Sexuality Sunera Thobani, 2020-12-10 The current political standoffs of the War on Terror illustrate that the interaction within and between the so called Western and Middle Eastern civilizations is constantly in flux A recurring theme however is how Islam and Muslims signify the Enemy in the Western socio cultural imagination and have become the Other against which the West identifies itself In a unique and insightful blend of critical race feminist and post colonial theory Sunera Thobani examines how Islam is foundational to the formation of Western identity at critical points in its history including the Crusades the Reconquista and the colonial period More specifically she explores how masculinity and femininity are formed at such pivotal junctures and what role feminism has played in the wars against radical Islam Exposing these symbiotic relationships Thobani explores how the return of religion is reworking the racial gender and sexual politics by which Western society defines itself and more specifically defines itself against Islam Contesting Islam Constructing Race and Sexuality unpacks conventional as well as unconventional orthodoxies to open up new spaces in how we think about sexual and racial identity in the West and the crucial role that Islam has had and continues to have in its development The Surveillance Web Mike McCahill, 2013-01-11 The rise of CCTV and surveillance technologies has been one of the key developments in contemporary society but its impact has often been analysed in a fragmented manner This book addresses this issue by providing a detailed micro sociological account of the construction of a CCTV network in one English city It differs from previous studies which have concentrated on open street CCTV systems in documenting and analysing the use of visual surveillance systems in a number of different locations and institutional settings including the industrial workplace shopping malls high rise housing schemes and hospitals It is concerned not just with abstract categories of grand theory but seeks to explain how people living in contemporary society experience these changes The Surveillance Web situates the growth of visual surveillance systems in the context of many of the key concerns of theorists of modernity and makes a key contribution to understanding the nature of the relationship between surveillance and society Its starting point is to view the relationship between surveillance and society as a two way process the book looks at both the social impact of visual surveillance systems and at how the impact of these technologies is shaped by existing social relations political practice and cultural traditions provides a richly textured account and analysis of the introduction of visual surveillance technologies CCTV in an English city explores the impact of the introduction and use of visual surveillance systems in a wide variety of locales and institutional settings both public and private makes a key contribution to theoretical debates over the relationship between surveillance systems and society one of the central concerns of theorists of modernity
