Race War The:

Race War La-Temus Marshall, 2004-11-15 After decades and decades of trying to unify the country across color lines two politicians along with some of their racist corporate friends hatched a plot to bring a national vote to divide the United States into separate state hood countries so that every race of people can now have their own country to be among their own people When the day of division came things went smooth as expected Little did we know that not only were we being monitored by foes but after capturing two enemy soldiers while out on patrol during the race war a black recon team captain interagated the two and found out that the mission by the two powerful countries was to invade occupy and place into slavery all Americans into concentration camps to be used as labor As the plot was discovered the captain contacted each country s central command and after reveiling the plot to the leaders all races had no choice but to come back together as one America to defeat this formidable force and to prove once and for all that United We Stan Divided We Fall The Race War Ronald

Segal, 1966 Study in sociology of racial discrimination against non whites covers historical foundations of prejudice and forced labour interest group pressures in intergroup relations and in international relations social implications and political aspects of the poverty gap as a threat to peace etc and includes problems of population growth and social integration

References Race War La-Temus Marshall, 2011 The American economy is in a shambles Crime and unemployment are at an all time high and race relations are as bad as theyve ever been America has lost its place as a world leader and many cities are on the verge of anarchy Local budgets cannot support adequate law enforcement to control the outbursts of racial hatred erupting nationwide as each race blames another for the social economic and moral downward spiral our country has been in for the past 20 years These are the conditions a US Senator and US Congressman find themselves in when they devise a plan to separate the races for their own bigoted agenda and try to turn back the hands of time in America Race War is a riveting book that takes a good hard look at the grave consequences of a bad decision and what happens when the countrys citizens allow racism and separatism to prevail Paradoxes of War Zeev Maoz, 2020-12-22 Why do reasonable people lead their nations into the tremendously destructive traps of international conflict Why do nations then deepen their involvement and make it harder to escape from these traps In Paradoxes of War originally published in 1990 Zeev Maoz addresses these and other paradoxical questions about the war process Using a unique approach to the study of war he demonstrates that wars may often break out because states wish to prevent them and continue despite the desperate efforts of the combatants to end them Paradoxes of War is organized around the various stages of war The first part discusses the causes of war the second the management of war and the third the short and long term implications of war In each chapter Maoz explores a different paradox as a contradiction between reasonable expectations and the outcomes of motivated behaviour based on those expectations He documents these paradoxes in twentieth century wars including the Korean War the Six Day War and the Vietnam War Maoz then invokes cognitive and rational choice theories to explain why these

Anatomy of Victory John D. Caldwell, 2018-11-09 This groundbreaking book provides the first systematic comparison of America's modern wars and why they were won or lost John D Caldwell uses the World War II victory as the historical benchmark for evaluating the success and failure of later conflicts Unlike WWII the Korean Vietnam and Iraqi Wars were limited but they required enormous national commitments produced no lasting victories and generated bitter political controversies Caldwell comprehensively examines these four wars through the lens of a strategic architecture to explain how and why their outcomes were so dramatically different He defines a strategic architecture as an interlinked set of continually evolving policies strategies and operations by which combatant states work toward a desired end Policy defines the high level goals a nation seeks to achieve once it initiates a conflict or finds itself drawn into one Policy makers direct a broad course of action and strive to control the initiative When they make decisions they have to respond to unforeseen conditions to guide and determine future decisions Effective leaders are skilled at organizing constituencies they need to succeed and communicating to them convincingly Strategy means employing whatever resources are available to achieve policy goals in situations that are dynamic as conflicts change quickly over time Operations are the actions that occur when politicians soldiers and diplomats execute plans A strategic architecture Caldwell argues is thus not a static blueprint but a dynamic vision of how a state can succeed or fail in a conflict

The Racial Contract Charles W. Mills, 2014-05-29 The Racial Contract puts classic Western social contract theory deadpan to extraordinary radical use With a sweeping look at the European expansionism and racism of the last five hundred years Charles W Mills demonstrates how this peculiar and unacknowledged contract has shaped a system of global European domination how it brings into existence whites and non whites full persons and sub persons how it influences white moral theory and moral psychology and how this system is imposed on non whites through ideological conditioning and violence The Racial Contract argues that the society we live in is a continuing white supremacist state Holding up a mirror to mainstream philosophy this provocative book explains the evolving outline of the racial contract from the time of the New World conquest and subsequent colonialism to the written slavery contract to the separate but equal system of segregation in the twentieth century United States According to Mills the contract has provided the theoretical architecture justifying an entire history of European atrocity against non whites from David Hume's and Immanuel Kant's claims that blacks had inferior cognitive power to the Holocaust to the kind of imperialism in Asia that was demonstrated by the Vietnam War Mills suggests that the ghettoization of philosophical work on race is no accident This work challenges the assumption that mainstream theory is itself raceless Just as feminist theory has revealed orthodox political philosophy's invisible white male bias Mills's explication of the racial contract exposes its racial underpinnings

Indian Wars Everywhere Stefan Aune, 2023-09-26 References to the Indian Wars those conflicts that accompanied US continental expansion suffuse American military history From Black Hawk helicopters to the exclamation Geronimo used by paratroopers jumping from airplanes words and images referring to Indians have been indelibly linked with warfare In Indian Wars Everywhere Stefan Aune shows how these resonances signal a deeper history one in which the Indian Wars function as a shadow doctrine that influences US military violence The United States formative acts of colonial violence persist in the actions imaginations and stories that have facilitated the spread of American empire from the savage wars of the nineteenth century to the counterinsurgencies of the Global War on Terror Ranging across centuries and continents Indian Wars Everywhere considers what it means for the conquest of Native peoples to be deemed a success that can be used as a blueprint for modern warfare The Second Indochina War Ang Cheng Guan,2025-11-03 Drawing upon Vietnamese Chinese former Soviet and American sources Ang Cheng Guan provides an updated and concise account of the Vietnam War 1954 1975 from the Vietnamese communists perspective In the last few decades discourse on the Second Indochina War has shifted towards the South and its allies To mark the 50th anniversary of the fall of Saigon Ang revisits the experiences of the North Focusing on scholarship published within the last 30 years the book reexamines the 1954 Geneva Conference the end of the First Vietnam War through the Second Vietnam War to the 1975 Fall of Saigon bringing readers up to date on the current state of the field This book is a valuable resource for scholars and students of history war studies peace and conflict studies as well as for those interested in the historical and contemporary implications of the Vietnam War

Emancipation these fears lingered and led to numerous atrocities long before Elaine At the same time African Americans particularly fieldworkers worked to organize themselves to resist oppression setting the stage for the farmers union that was the target for mob and military wrath during the Elaine Massacre These essays provide the larger history necessary for understanding what happened at Elaine in 1919 and thus provide a window into the current state of Arkansas and the nation at large Contributors include Richard Buckelew Nancy Snell Griffith Matthew Hild Adrienne Jones Kelly Houston Jones Cherisse Jones Branch Brian K Mitchell William H Pruden III and Steven Teske German Colonial Wars and the Context of Military Violence Susanne Kuss, 2017-03-27 Some historians have traced a line from Germany's atrocities in its colonial wars to those committed by the Nazis during WWII Susanne Kuss dismantles these claims rejecting the notion that a distinctive military ethos or policy of genocide guided Germany's conduct of operations in Africa and China despite acts of unquestionable brutality
