

A collection of poems for young readers

Alan Sturgess

*Tales have long been told of dragons in the skies, of wolves who howl at moons, and hunt with ice cold eyes.
But if you watch them quietly, it won't be long before you see how strange, mysterious or funny these creatures can also be.*

Ed. with a Transl. and Notes by Thomas M'Lauchlan (etc.)* James Mac-Gregor, 1862 Robert Penn Warren, Shadowy Autobiography, and Other Makers of American Literature Joseph R. Millichap, 2023-08-18 Toward the end of his career Robert Penn Warren wrote It may be said that our lives are our own supreme fiction Although lauded for his writing in multiple genres Warren never wrote an autobiography Instead he created his own shadowy autobiography in his poetry and prose as well as his fiction and nonfiction As one of the most thoughtful scholars on Robert Penn Warren and the literature of the South Joseph Millichap builds on the accepted idea that Warren's poetry and fiction became more autobiographical in his later years by demonstrating that that same progression is replicated in Warren's literary criticism This meticulously researched study reexamines in particular Warren's later nonfiction in which autobiographical concerns come into play that is in those fraught with psychological crisis such as Democracy and Poetry Millichap reveals the interrelated literary genres of autobiography criticism and poetry as psychological modes encompassing the interplay of Warren's life and work in his later nonfiction He also shows how Warren's critical engagement with major American authors often centered on the ways their creative work intersected with their lives thus generating both autobiographical criticism and the working out of Warren's own autobiography under these influences Millichap's latest book focuses on Warren's critical responses to William Faulkner John

Crowe Ransom Herman Melville Nathaniel Hawthorne John Greenleaf Whittier and Theodore Dreiser In addition the author carefully considers the black and female writers Warren assessed more briefly in American Literature The Makers and the Making Robert Penn Warren Shadowy Autobiography and Other Makers of American Literature presents the breadth of Millichap's scholarship the depth of his insight and the maturity of his judgment by giving us to understand that in his writing Robert Penn Warren came to know his own vocation as a poet and critic and as an American Dragon Isle Keith Michael Mahan,2004-02 Three dark empires ally as three dark gods merge into one unholy trinity Concepts concerning life cycles evolving revolving into passing seasons yin and yang are all immersed into a ballistic journey laden with symbolism The Christian Crusades were a skirmish in comparison as some deep journeys are inevitably drenched in blood Dark dragons seize the moment to defy their god given tasks to protect the lower races from genocidal tendencies Evil dragons were to protect the darker races of ogre troll goblin and such while good dragons protect elf dwarf and human Dragons no longer wish to play their protective roles Instead evil dragons intend to captivate and cultivate elves humans and dwarves like sheep cattle or pigs An island sets in the center of the World Sea that provides the perfect rest stop for flying dragons Rampaging evil denizens dominate the isle but both an elf and a human empire have naval outposts upon the fringes of the rocky coastline Between the two military installations sets the finest trading city that elf and man has ever established together Neither of the two empires intends to let this fair city fall without a bloody rumble Chicorel Index to Poetry in Anthologies and Collections--retrospective Marietta Chicorel,1975 The Dean of Lismore's Book: A Selection of Ancient Gaelic Poetry Anonymous,2019-12-09 The Dean of Lismore's Book offers a selection of Ancient Gaelic Poetry from a manuscript collection made by Sir James M Gregor Dean of Lismore in the beginning of the sixteenth century edited with a translation and notes by the Rev Thomas McLauclan The Dean's manuscript has a double value philological and literary and is calculated to throw light both on the language and the literature of the Highlands of Scotland It has a literary value because it contains poems attributed to Ossian and to other poets prior to the sixteenth century which are not to be found elsewhere and thus presents to us specimens of the traditional poetry current in the Highlands prior to that period which are above suspicion having been collected upwards of three hundred years ago and before any controversy on the subject had arisen The dragon knight, a poem sir James Bland Lamb (bart.),1818 Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Nineteenth Century Eric L. Haralson,2014-01-21 With contributions from over 100 scholars the Encyclopedia of American Poetry The Nineteenth Century provides essays on the careers works and backgrounds of more than 100 nineteenth century poets It also provides entries on specialized categories of twentieth century verse such as hymns folk ballads spirituals Civil War songs and Native American poetry Besides presenting essential factual information each entry amounts to an in depth critical essay and includes a bibliography that directs readers to other works by and about a particular poet Dragons in My Classroom Barbara Kennard,2022-06-14 As a young book lover with dyslexia Barbara found the solution to her reading struggles in Miss Gluding her first grade teacher who showed compassion for her student s plight and knew how to help her From that time on Barbara knew what she wanted to be a teacher just like Miss Gluding Unfortunately Barbara also had some bad teachers in the years that ensued including her sixth grade teacher an exacting woman who called attention to Barbara s learning disabilities in front of classmates Still wanting to follow in Miss Gluding s footsteps in 1964 Barbara vowed she would be a better one than her sixth grade teacher instead however she became very much like her with unattainable expectations for her students and herself After seventeen years in the teaching profession she realized she had to either change her teaching style or change careers By providence right as she stood at this crossroads she was offered the opportunity to teach overseas at The Dragon School in Oxford England for a year an opportunity she jumped at In the year that followed Barbara would rely on her faith in God to give up a lot of what she knew about teaching and learn to do it differently ways that wouldn t have room for her perfectionism In short she would have to begin again
