Rachel Rosenthal:

Rachel Rosenthal Moira Roth, 1997 Includes excerpts from conversations and interviews previously published essays on Rosenthal and writings and scripts by Rosenthal Rachel's Brain and Other Storms Rachel Rosenthal, 2001-10-23

Rachel Rosenthal is an internationally recognised pioneer in the field of feminist and ecological performance art Her revolutionary performance technique integrates text movement voice choreography improvisation inventive costuming dramatic lighting and wildly imaginative sets into an unforgettable theatre experience In the last twenty years she has presented over thirty five pieces nationally and internationally She has been called a monument and a marvel and critically ranked with Robert Wilson Richard Foreman Ping Chong Meredith Monk and Laurie Anderson Her work is passionately dedicated to interrogating illuminating and improving the relationship between human beings and the planet we share with so many other species Her performances explore and embody the long history and urgent future of this deeply troubled relationship and use viscerally compelling performance to draw us into a direct experience of the beauty and power of our lives in nature Rachel Rosenthal, Performance Artist in Search of Transformation M. Virginia B. Bettendorf, Rachel Rosenthal, 1985

Female Body Image in Contemporary Art Emily L. Newman, 2018-05-23 Numerous contemporary artists particularly female artists have chosen to examine the idealization of the female body In this crucial book Emily L Newman focuses on a number of key themes including obesity anorexia bulimia dieting self harm and female body image Many artists utilize their own bodies in their work and in the act of trying to critique the diet industry they also often become complicit as they strive to lose weight themselves Making art and engaging eating disorder communities in real life and online often work to perpetuate the illnesses of themselves or others A core group of artists has worked to show bodies that are outside the norm paralleling the rise of fat activism in the 1990s and 2000s Interwoven throughout this inclusive study are related interdisciplinary concerns including sociology popular culture and feminism Rachel Rosenthal Rachel Rosenthal, 1992

Performance, Embodiment and Cultural Memory Colin Counsell, Roberta Mock, 2009-10-02 The subject of cultural memory and of the body's role in its creation and dissemination is central to current academic debate particularly in relation to performance Viewed from a variety of theoretical positions the actions of the meaning bearing body in culture and its capacity to reproduce challenge or modify existing formulations have been the focus of some of the most influential studies to emerge from the arts and humanities in the last two and a half decades The ten essays brought together in Performance Embodiment and Cultural Memory address this subject from a unique diversity of perspectives focusing on topics as varied as live art puppetry memorial practice cultural performance and dance Dealing with issues ranging from modern nation building to the formation of diasporic identities this volume collectively considers the ways in which the human soma functions as a canvas for cultural meaning its forms and actions a mnemonics for constructions of a shared past This volume is required reading for those interested in how bodies both on stage and in everyday life perform meaning

Choreographies of the Living Carrie Rohman, 2018-04-09 Choreographies of the Living explores the implications of shifting from viewing art as an exclusively human undertaking to recognizing it as an activity that all living creatures enact. Carrie Rohman reveals the aesthetic impulse itself to be profoundly trans species and in doing so she revises our received wisdom about the value and functions of artistic capacities. Countering the long history of aesthetic theory in the West beginning with Plato and Aristotle and moving up through the recent claims of neuroaesthetics, Rohman challenges the likening of aesthetic experience to an exclusively human form of judgment. Turning toward the animal in new frameworks for understanding aesthetic impulses, Rohman emphasizes a deep coincidence of humans and animals, elaborations of fundamental life forces. Examining a range of literary, visual, dance, and performance works and processes by modernist and contemporary figures such as Isadora Duncan, D. H. Lawrence, Virginia Woolf, and Merce Cunningham, Rohman reconceives the aesthetic itself not as a distinction separating humans from other animals but rather as a framework connecting embodied beings. Her view challenges our species to acknowledge the shared status of art making, one of our most hallowed and formerly exceptional activities.

North American Women Artists of the Twentieth Century Jules Heller, Nancy G. Heller, 2013-12-19 First Published in 1997, Routledge is an imprint of Taylor & Francis, an informa company.

Life Writing in the Posthuman Anthropocene Ina Batzke, Lea Espinoza Garrido, Linda M. Hess, 2022-01-01 Life Writing in the Posthuman Anthropocene is a timely collection of insightful contributions that negotiate how the genre of life writing, traditionally tied to the human perspective and thus anthropocentric in definition, can provide adequate perspectives for an age of ecological disasters and global climate change. The volume's eight chapters illustrate the aptness of life writing and life writing studies to critically reevaluate the role of the human vis-à-vis non-human others while remaining mindful of persisting inequalities between humans regarding who causes and who suffers damage in the Anthropocene age. The authors in this collection not only expand the toolbox of life writing studies by engaging with critical insights from the fields of posthumanism and ecocriticism but in turn also enrich those fields by offering unique approaches to contemplate the responsibility of humans for as well as their relational existence in the posthuman Anthropocene.

Beautiful, Bright, and Blinding H. Peter Steeves, 2017-10-27 Phenomenological analysis of beauty and art across various aspects of lived experience and culture. Through a careful analysis of concrete examples taken from everyday experience and culture, Beautiful, Bright, and Blinding develops a straightforward and powerful aesthetic methodology founded on a phenomenological approach to experience, one that investigates how consciousness engages with the world and thus what it means to take such things as tastes, images, sounds, and even a life itself as art. H. Peter Steeves begins by exploring what it means to see and considers how disruptions of sight can help us rethink how perception works. Engaging the work of Derrida, Heidegger, and Husserl, he uses these insights about seeing to undertake a systematic phenomenological investigation of how we perceive and process a range of aesthetic objects, including the paintings of Arshile Gorky, the films of Michael Haneke, Disney's Beauty and the Beast, zombie films, The

Simpsons the performance art of Rachel Rosenthal and Andy Kaufman and even vegan hot dogs Refusing hierarchical distinctions between high and low art Steeves argues that we must conceptualize the whole of human experience as aesthetic art is lived and living is an art This is a brilliant new contribution by our preeminent phenomenologist of culture It s extremely accessible illuminating original and sophisticated while being philosophically probing David Wood author of The Step Back Ethics and Politics after Deconstruction Performing Women Gay Gibson Cima,1993 Ibsen and the critical actor Strindberg and the transformational actor The Brecht Collective and the parabolic actor Pinter and the cinematic actor Shepard and the improvisational actor Beckett and the N actor Performing Animality Jennifer Parker-Starbuck,2015-04-08 Performing Animality provides theoretical and creative interventions into the presence of the animal and ideas of animality in performance Animals have always played a part in human performance practices Maintaining a crucial role in many communities cultural traditions animal human encounters have been key in the development of performance Similarly performance including both living animals and or representations of animals provides the context for encounters in which issues of power human subjectivity and otherness are explored Crucially however the inclusion of animals in performance also offers an opportunity to investigate ethical and moral assumptions about human and non human animals This book offers a historical and theoretical exploration of animal presence in performance by looking at the concept of animality and how it has developed in theatre and performance practices from the eighteenth century to today Furthermore it points to shifts in political cultural and ethical animal human relations emerging within the context of animality and performance Acting (Re)Considered Phillip B. Zarrilli,2005-06-28 Acting Re Considered is an exceptionally wide ranging collection of theories on acting ideas about body and training and statements about the actor in performance This second edition includes five new essays and has been fully revised and updated with discussions by or about major figures who have shaped theories and practices of acting and performance from the late nineteenth century to the present The essays by directors historians actor trainers and actors bridge the gap between theories and practices of acting and between East and West No other book provides such a wealth of primary and secondary sources bibliographic material and diversity of approaches It includes discussions of such key topics as how we think and talk about acting acting and emotion the actor s psychophysical process the body and training the actor in performance non Western and cross cultural paradigms of the body training and acting Acting Re Considered is vital reading for all those interested in performance Guerilla Guide to Performance Art Leslie Hill,Helen Paris,2004-05-27 The Guerilla Performance and Multimedia Handbook is the ultimate guide for artists at all stages of their careers engaged in creating original performance and multimedia work including hybrids of theatre visual art installation physical theatre dance CD Rom and web design It covers all aspects of artist support including starting up a company funding multimedia tools and documentation and marketing and incorporates a useful Yellow Pages section with contact information for production funding venues galleries publications festivals printers
