Ethnic Conflict, Tribal Politics Kenneth

Christie,2020-11-25 There is an urgent need for a book which combines the approaches of political science sociology and history and particularly comparative politics with ethnic studies There are currently many rapid and significant changes taking place in the world political map in terms of ethnic conflict How do we explain these changes How do we analyse them How can we compare them How do we make sense of the different ethnic conflicts that have taken place since the end of the Cold War in what some observers have dubbed the New World Order Few books on the market combine the diverse approaches of political science sociology and history at any level of analysis This work will remedy at least some of the deficiencies in the existing literature and be truly interdisciplinary in nature Politics and Ethnicity J. Rudolph,2006-08-05 This book offers a brief broad comparative study of ethnic politics that places ethnic conflict within the context of particular political systems To develop these themes they are explored by comparing and contrasting the experiences of France Czechoslovakia and its subsequent division and Nigeria Culture, Ethnicity and Migration After Communism Anton Popov,2016-06-10 This book addresses the issue of emerging transnationalism in the conditions of post socialism through focusing on migrants identity as a social construction resulting from their experience of the transnational circuit of culture as well as from post Soviet shifts in political and economic conditions in their home regions Anton Popov draws upon ethnographic research conducted among Greek transnational migrants living on the Black Sea coast and in the North Caucasus regions of Russia who have become involved in extensive cross border migration between the former Soviet Union the Russian Federation Kazakhstan and Georgia and Greece as well as Cyprus It is estimated that more than 150 000 former Soviet citizens of Greek origin have resettled in Greece since the late 1980s Yet many of those who emigrate do not cut their connections with the home communities in Russia but instead establish their own transnational circuit of travel between Greece and Russia This study demonstrates how migrants employ their ethnicity as symbolic capital available for investment in transnational migration Simultaneously they rework their practices of family networking property relations and political participation in a way which strengthens their attachment to the local territory The findings presented in the book imply that the social identities economic strategies political practices and cultural representation of the Russia s Pontic Greeks are all deeply embedded in the shifting social and cultural landscape of post Soviet Russia and extensively influenced by the global movement of ideas goods and people The Rhetoric of Racism Revisited Mark Lawrence McPhail,2002 Looks at the rhetorical dynamics of racism how in addition to social and material structures and institutions language can be a cause and facilitator of racism Thoroughly discusses essentialism and racial difference theories of complicity and coherence and the theory of racism as a problem of psychiatry back cover State, Nation and Ethnicity in Contemporary South Asia Ishtiaq Ahmed,1998-01-01 Preface Ethnonationalism in the Contemporary World Daniele Conversi,2004 Essential reading for anyone interested in problems associated with ethnicity and nationalism it offers a guide to understanding the ethnonational forces that underpin much of recent terrorist activity The Oxford Handbook of African American
