Racial Interaction In School And Society:

Racial Interaction in School and Society Samuel S. Rubin, Alice Pisciotto, 1974 Schools and Society Jeanne H. Ballantine, Joan Z. Spade, 2008 Presents the most recent theories research terms concepts ideas and histories on educational leadership and school administration as taught in preparation programs and practiced in schools and colleges today The Desegregation Literature National Institute of Education (U.S.). Desegregation Studies Staff, 1976 Promoting Racial Literacy in Schools Howard Stevenson, 2014-12-04 Based on extensive research this provocative volume explores how schools are places where racial conflicts often remain hidden at the expense of a healthy school climate and the well being of students of color Most schools fail to act on racial microaggressions because the stress of negotiating such conflicts is extremely high due to fears of incompetence public exposure and accusation Instead of facing these conflicts head on schools perpetuate a set of avoidance or coping strategies The author of this much needed book uncovers how racial stress undermines student achievement Students educators and social service support staff will find workable strategies to improve their racial literacy skills to read recast and resolve racially stressful encounters when they happen Book Features A model that applies culturally relevant behavioral stress management strategies to problem solve racial stress in schools Examples demonstrating workable solutions relevant within predominantly White schools for students parents teachers and administrators Measurable outcomes and strategies for developing racial literacy skills that can be integrated into the K 12 curriculum and teacher professional development Teaching and leadership skills that will create a more tolerant and supportive school environment for all students Once more Howard Stevenson has provided a blueprint of critical importance to policymakers practitioners teachers and parents Margaret Beale Spencer Marshall Field IV Professor of Urban Education and professor of Life Course Human Development University of Chicago Howard C Stevenson is a clinical and consulting psychologist and professor of Education and Africana Studies and former chair of the Applied Psychology and Human Development Division in the Graduate School of Education at the University of Pennsylvania Race, Ethnicity, and Socioeconomic Status Charles Vert Willie, 1983 Providing an adequate conceptual apparatus for the explanation and interpretation of behavior associated with race ethnicity and socioeconomic status is the goal of this book Empirical research findings and their theoretical analysis are linked E Franklin Frazier recognized minorities as mirrors of their society He hypothesized that study of their adaptations would provide a clearer understanding of the relation of human motivation to culture Race Ethnicity and Socioeconomic Status confirms the Frazier hypothesis and extracts from studies of blacks and other racial and ethnic minority populations propositions applicable to majority as well as minority groups Theses studies of intergroup relations were conducted during the past 25 years and provide a perspective on changing patterns of contact between cultural groups in the United States Adaptations associated with race ethnicity and socioeconomic status are analyzed from the perspective of sociology as a science of humanity Historical trends as well as contemporary situations are considered social psychological and geographical factors are researched as contextual variables in intergroup relations By analyzing demographic data pertaining to mortality disease delinquency and poverty the varying contributions to the human condition of individual attributes group customs and institutional regulations are ascertained Institutional and community studies illuminate the prides fears and prejudices of dominant and subdominant groups particularly with reference to racial and ethnic relations in education Also identified in these studies are the rights and responsibilities of such groups toward each other in social interaction Minority Students Meyer Weinberg,1977 Reimagining School Integration Jennifer B. Ayscue,2024-08-01 Since the peak of school desegregation in the late 1980s schools across the nation have been resegregating such that schools are now as segregated as they were during the late 1960s Segregation is systematically linked to unequal educational opportunities and outcomes while integration when well structured is associated with numerous short term and long term academic and social benefits for individuals and society In a time when public education is under attack and our nation is deeply divided along the lines of race class and politics the potential of integration to create more equitable educational opportunities and outcomes for individual students as well as greater social cohesion for our democratic pluralistic society is more important than ever Seventy years after the Supreme Court s landmark Brown v Board of Education decision ruled that segregated schools are inherently unequal this book reimagines what integration is and could be in our nation s current context of racial and political polarization the expansion of unregulated choice in public education and an increasingly diverse multiracial public school enrollment Through an exploration of research and policy this book develops a new conceptualization of integration by describing the contemporary drivers of segregation and recommending strategies to create a more equitable meaningful equal status form of educational integration for the future This book is a valuable resource for policymakers scholars educators and concerned citizens who are invested in learning about one way to help create a more equitable and just education system Teaching Music in American Society Steven N. Kelly,2015-08-27 Successful professional music teachers must not only be knowledgeable in conducting and performing but also be socially and culturally aware of students issues and events that affect their classrooms This book provides comprehensive overview of social and cultural themes directly related to music education teacher training and successful teacher characteristics New topics in the second edition include the impact of Race to the Top social justice bullying alternative schools the influence of Common Core Standards and the effects of teacher and school assessments All topics and material are research based to provide a foundation and current perspective on each issue Handbook of Peer Interactions, Relationships, and Groups, First Edition Kenneth H. Rubin,William M. Bukowski,Brett Laursen,2011-06-24 This comprehensive authoritative handbook covers the breadth of theories methods and empirically based findings on the ways in which children and adolescents contribute to one another s development Leading researchers review what is known about the dynamics of peer interactions and relationships from infancy through adolescence Topics include methods of assessing friendship and peer networks early romantic relationships individual differences and contextual factors in children's social and emotional competencies and behaviors group dynamics and the impact of peer relations on achievement social adaptation and mental health Salient issues in intervention and prevention are also addressed

Research in Education, 1974 Resources in Education, 1996-10 Handbook of Research on Race, Culture, and Student Achievement Keengwe, Jared, 2023-01-13 There is growing pressure on teachers and other educators to understand and adopt culturally relevant pedagogies as well as strategies to work with diverse groups of races cultures and languages that are represented in classrooms Establishing sound cross cultural pedagogy is also critical given that racial cultural and linguistic integration has the potential to increase academic success for all learners The Handbook of Research on Race Culture and Student Achievement highlights cross cultural perspectives challenges and opportunities of providing equitable educational opportunities for marginalized students and improving student achievement Additionally it examines how race and culture impact student achievement in an effort to promote cultural competence equity inclusion and social justice in education Covering topics such as identity student achievement and global education this major reference work is ideal for researchers scholars academicians librarians policymakers practitioners educators and students

Critical Analysis of Parental Involvement in School Meca Williams-Johnson, Nicolette P. Rickert, 2024-12-30 Critical Analysis of Parental Involvement in School presents in depth explorations of parental involvement within culturally distinct contexts As teachers and leaders sense the impact of today's social and political tensions in their schools new guidance is needed to help them make decisions solve problems clarify interventions and resolve conflict with their students families as they mutually pursue the well being of diverse students This edited volume examines parents culturally situated goals and values communication and rearing styles academic involvement and other social psychological factors across identities at the intersection of race gender class and beyond Each chapter addresses the complexities of a unique demographic context innovative approaches toward inclusion methodologies helpful to the study of parental involvement new trends and directions in family school partnerships and more

Affirmative Action and Racial Equity Uma M. Jayakumar, Liliana M. Garces, 2015-03-12 The highly anticipated U S Supreme Court decision in Fisher v University of Texas placed a greater onus on higher education institutions to provide evidence supporting the need for affirmative action policies on their respective campuses It is now more critical than ever that institutional leaders and scholars understand the evidence in support of race consideration in admissions as well as the challenges of the post Fisher landscape This important volume shares information documented for the Fisher case and provides empirical evidence to help inform scholarly conversation and institutions decisions regarding race conscious practices in higher education With contributions from scholars and experts involved in the Fisher case this edited volume documents and shares lessons learned from the collaborative efforts of the social science educational and legal communities Affirmative Action and Racial Equity is a critical resource for higher education scholars and administrators to understand the nuances of the affirmative action legal debate and to identify the challenges and potential strategies toward racial equity and inclusion moving forward

Thesaurus of ERIC Descriptors, 1984

High School Students' Competing Social Worlds Richard Beach, Amanda Haertling Thein, Daryl L. Parks, 2020-07-24 This book examines how working class high school students identity construction is continually mediated by discourses and cultural practices operating in their classroom school family sports community and workplace worlds Specifically it addresses how responding to cultural differences portrayed in multicultural literature can serve to challenge adolescents allegiances to status quo discourses and cultural models and how teachers not only can rouse students to clarify and change their value stances related to race class and gender but also provide support for and validation of students self interrogation Highlighting the influence of sociocultural forces the book contributes to understanding the role of institutions in shaping adolescents lives and identifies needs that must be addressed to improve those institutions Current theory and research on critical discourse analysis cultural models theory and identity construction is meshed with specific applications of that theory and research to case study profiles and analysis of classroom discussions The instructional strategies described enable pre service and in service teachers to develop their own literature curriculum and instructional methods

Advancing Equity-Focused School Counseling for All Students Sam Steen, Shekila Melchior, Amber Brenae Sansbury-Scott, 2023-12-18 Using author narratives this book brings attention to racial disparities that currently exist in schools within the historical context of pivotal legal cases in America while emphasizing the importance of assessing and supporting students through a culturally appropriate lens that recognizes student strengths The authors provide current and historical frameworks through which school counselors can develop a more socially just and liberation orientated school counseling program These frameworks center and unveil the ways in which social rank segregation and racism influence development particularly for Black and Brown children The book underscores the value of community partnerships and the role of strategic partnerships to support a college culture particularly for student populations with historically limited access to higher education Readers will also learn about misconceptions of racially and ethnically minoritized children and the related impacts on misdiagnosis and overrepresentation in special education School counselors looking to ensure equity and social justice within their classrooms analyze their own privilege and support students of all backgrounds will find this timely text indispensable in creating a program that fosters understanding and growth
