Racialization Of America:

The Racialization of America Yehudi O. The Melancholy of Race Anne Anlin Cheng, 2001 Cheng proposes that racial identification is itself already a melancholic act a social category that is imaginatively supported through a dynamic of loss and compensation by which the racial other is at once rejected and retained Using psychoanalytic theories on mourning and melancholia as inroads into her subject Cheng offers a closely observed and carefully reasoned account of the minority experience as expressed in works of art by and about Asian Americans and African Americans She argues that the racial minority and dominant American culture both suffer from racial melancholia and that this insight is crucial to a productive reimagining of progressive politics

Race and Identity in Hispanic America Patricia Reid-Merritt, Michael S. Rodriguez, 2020-04-03 This book offers a historical and comparative overview of the evolution of racial classifications in the United States Latin America and the Caribbean The Hispanicization of America is precipitating a paradigm shift in racial thinking in which race is no longer defined by distinct characteristics but rather is becoming synonymous with ethnic cultural identity Traditionally assimilation has been conceived of as a unidirectional and racialized phenomenon Newly arrived immigrant groups or longstanding minority indigenous populations were Americanized in confining their racial and ethnic natures to the private sphere and adopting in the public sphere the cultural mores norms and values of the dominant cultural racial group In contrast the Hispanicization of America entails the horizontal assimilation of various groups from Spanish speaking countries throughout the Western Hemisphere and Caribbean into a pan ethnic Hispanic Latino identity that also challenges the privileged position of whiteness as the primary and exclusive referent for American identity Instead of focusing on one Hispanic group ethnic identity or region this book chronicles the development of racial identity across the largest Hispanic groups throughout the United States Race, Ethnicity, and Place in a Changing America, Third Edition John W. Frazier,Eugene L. Tetley-Fio,Norah F. Henry,2017-01-12 This book examines major Hispanic African and Asian diasporas in the continental United States and Puerto Rico from the nineteenth century to the present with particular attention on the diverse ways in which these immigrant groups have shaped and reshaped American places and landscapes Through both historical and contemporary case studies the contributors examine how race and ethnicity affect the places we live work and visit illustrating along the way the behaviors and concepts that comprise the modern ethnic and racial geography of immigrant and minority groups While primarily addressed to students and scholars in the fields of racial and ethnic geography these case studies will be accessible to anyone interested in race place connections race ethnicity boundaries the development of racialization and the complexity of human settlement patterns and landscapes that make up the United States and Puerto Rico Taken together they show how individuals and culture groups through their ideologies social organization and social institutions reflect both local and regional processes of place making and place remaking that occur within and beyond the continental United States Race, Ethnicity, and Place in a Changing America John W. Frazier,Eugene Tetley-Fio,2006

Race and Arab Americans Before and After 9/11 Amaney Jamal,Nadine Naber,2008-02-27 Bringing the rich terrain of Arab American histories to bear on conceptualizations of race in the United States this groundbreaking volume fills a critical gap in the field of U S racial and ethnic studies The articles collected here highlight emergent discourses on the distinct ways that race matters to the study of Arab American histories and experiences and asks essential questions What is the relationship between U S imperialism in Arab homelands and anti Arab racism in the United States In what ways have the axes of nation religion class and gender intersected with Arab American racial formations What is the significance of whiteness studies to Arab American studies Transcending multiculturalist discourses that have simply added on the category Arab American to the landscape of U S racial and ethnic studies after the attacks of September 11 2001 this volume locates September 11 as a turning point rather than as a beginning in Arab Americans
