Racism And Social Inequality In Canada Concepts Controversies And Strategies Of Resistance:

Racism and Social Inequality in Canada Vic Satzewich, 1998 The chapters in this book seek to answer the questions to what extent does racism continue to inform and structure how institutions operate today What is the social meaning of race in contemporary Canadian society and what is the most effective way to combat racism in all its forms The contributors analyze the conditions that give rise to racism the extent to which racism permeates social institutions how groups of people have organized against racism and the ways racism is linked to class gender and ethnicity Dimensions of Inequality in Canada David A. Green, Jonathan R. Kesselman, 2011-11-01 Is Canada becoming a more polarized society Or is it a kind hearted nation that takes care of its disadvantaged This volume closely examines these differing views through a careful analysis of the causes trends and dimensions of inequality to provide an overall assessment of the state of inequality in Canada Contributors include economists sociologists philosophers and political scientists and the discussion ranges from frameworks for thinking about inequality to original analyses using Canadian data to assessments of significant policy issues methodologies and research directions What emerges is the most detailed picture of inequality in Canada to date and disturbingly one that shows signs of us becoming a less just society An invaluable source of information for policy makers researchers and students from a broad variety of disciplines Dimensions of Inequality in Canada will also appeal to readers interested or involved in public debates over inequality Building Global Labor Solidarity in a Time of Accelerating Globalization Kim Scipes, 2016-05-02 This anthology explores the international labor movements building worker solidarity across the Global South Since the 1980s the world's working class has been under continual assault by the forces of neoliberalism and imperialism In response new labor movements have emerged all over the world from Brazil and South Africa to Indonesia and Pakistan Building Global Labor Solidarity in a Time of Accelerating Globalization is a call for international solidarity to resist the assaults on labor's power This collection of essays by international labor activists and academics examines models of worker solidarity different forms of labor organizations and those models and organizations relationships to social movements and civil society Women in the "Promised Land" Nina Reid-Maroney, Boulou Ebanda de B'éri, Wanda Thomas Bernard, 2018-08-21 Women in the Promised Land reframes Canadian history through the lens of African Canadian women's lived experiences This collection of original essays spans the period from slavery and abolition through to women's activism in the 20th century focusing on themes of race migration gender community religion and the struggle for social justice Re-examining familiar figures in African Canadian women's history including abolitionist and feminist Mary Ann Shadd Cary and civil rights activist Viola Desmond the volume considers them in the wider context of scholarship on Canada and the African diaspora Drawing on insights from cultural studies communications literary studies and visual culture the contributing authors use rich primary sources to ground their analysis in the details of women's historical experiences Together the chapters work to unsettle Canadian history and demonstrate its urgent relevance to the present encouraging readers to interrogate the concept of Canada as a promised land Edited by leading scholars in the field this accessible interdisciplinary collection includes suggested further readings chapter overviews and discussion questions making it an essential read for students in women s studies African studies and history      The Schematic State Debra Thompson,2016-10-20 By examining the political development of racial classifications on the national censuses of the United States Canada and Great Britain The Schematic State maps the changing nature of the census from an instrument historically used to manage and control racial populations to its contemporary purpose as an important source of statistical information employed to monitor and rectify racial discrimination Through a careful comparative analysis of nearly two hundred years of census taking it demonstrates that changes in racial schemas are driven by the interactions among shifting transnational ideas about race the ways they are tempered and translated by nationally distinct racial projects and the configuration of political institutions involved in the design and execution of census policy This book argues that states seek to make their populations racially legible turning the fluid and politically contested substance of race into stable identifiable categories to be used as the basis of law and policy      Tomorrow We're All Going to the Harvest Leigh Binford,2013-01-02 From its inception in 1966 the Canadian Seasonal Agricultural Worker Program SAWP has grown to employ approximately 20 000 workers annually the majority from Mexico The program has been hailed as a model that alleviates human rights concerns because under contract SAWP workers travel legally receive health benefits contribute to pensions are represented by Canadian consular officials and rate the program favorably Tomorrow We re All Going to the Harvest takes us behind the ideology and examines the daily lives of SAWP workers from Tlaxcala Mexico one of the leading sending states observing the great personal and family price paid in order to experience a temporary rise in a standard of living The book also observes the disparities of a gutted Mexican countryside versus the flourishing agriculture in Canada where farm labor demand remains high Drawn from extensive surveys and nearly two hundred interviews ethnographic work in Ontario destination of over 77 percent of migrants in the author s sample and quantitative data this is much more than a case study it situates the Tlaxcala Canada exchange within the broader issues of migration economics and cultural currents Bringing to light the historical genesis of complementary labor markets and the contradictory positioning of Mexican government representatives Leigh Binford also explores the language barriers and nonexistent worker networks in Canada as well as the physical realities of the work itself making this book a complete portrait of a provocative segment of migrant labor      The Chrétien Legacy Lois Harder,Steve Patten,2006-07-13 The legacy of Jean Chrétien Canadian prime minister from 1993 2003 is difficult to assess in the context of the sponsorship scandal and the subsequent cloud of uncertainty surrounding the Liberal Party s electoral prospects The contributors to this volume use their considerable experience and expertise as policy observers and critical thinkers to provide provocative essays that analyse Chrétien s government and provide insights into Canadian politics and public policy      Guarding the Gates David Goutor,2011-11-01 From the 1870s until the Great Depression immigration was often the question of the hour in Canada. Politicians, the media, and an array of interest groups viewed it as essential to nation building, developing the economy, and shaping Canada's social and cultural character. One of the groups most determined to influence public debate and government policy on the issue was organized labour, and unionists were often relentless critics of immigrant recruitment. Guarding the Gates is the first detailed study of Canadian labour leaders' approach to immigration, a key battleground in struggles between different political factions within the labour movement. This book provides new insights into labour, immigration, social, and political history. — Racialized Policing Elizabeth Comack, 2012-03-01T00:00:00Z

Policing is a controversial subject generating considerable debate. One issue of concern has been racial profiling by police, that is, the alleged practice of targeting individuals and groups on the basis of race. Racialized Policing argues that the debate has been limited by its individualized frame. As well, the concentration on police relations with people of colour means that Aboriginal people's encounters with police receive far less scrutiny. Going beyond the interpersonal level and broadening our gaze to explore how race and racism play out in institutional practices and systemic processes, this book exposes the ways in which policing is racialized. Situating the police in their role as reproducers of order, Elizabeth Comack draws on the historical record and contemporary cases of Aboriginal police relations: the shooting of J. J. Harper by a Winnipeg police officer in 1988, the Starlight Tours in Saskatoon, and the shooting of Matthew Dumas by a Winnipeg police officer in 2005, as well as interviews conducted with Aboriginal people in Winnipeg's inner city communities to explore how race and racism inform the routine practices of police officers and define the cultural frames of reference that officers adopt in their encounters with Aboriginal people. In short, having defined Aboriginal people as troublesome, police respond with troublesome practices of their own. Arguing that resolution requires a fundamental transformation in the structure and organization of policing, Racialized Policing makes suggestions for re-framing the role of police and the order they reproduce. — Ancillary Police Powers in Canada John W. Burchill, Richard Jochelson, Akwasi Owusu-Bempah, Terry Skolnik, 2024-10-15

Police enforce the law, but they must also obey it. Statutes circumscribe how law enforcement officers conduct their work. At the same time, Canadian courts have handed police many powers to stop, search, and otherwise investigate people in the pursuit of public safety and crime prevention. Ancillary Police Powers in Canada explains what these common law police powers are, how they came to be, and crucially, what the potential dangers are in their expanding scope. What is the difference between police duty and lawful authority? Should the Supreme Court rescind powers when the police tactics they enable become controversial? This nuanced book surveys the evolution, application, and future of judge-made police powers. The authors bring historical perspective, critical legal theory, and empirical analysis to an issue that is fundamental to constitutional protection from state interference with individual liberty. — Youth and Society Vappu Tyyskä, 2014-01-02

In this essential third edition, Vappu Tyyskä examines the challenges faced by today's young people through a critical lens. Difficult questions related to such issues as employment, education, social pressure, identity, and crime are explored by Tyysk as she paints a fascinating picture of modern youth in three countries Canada the United States and the United Kingdom The author explores the negative stereotypes surrounding young people and argues that it is time to contextualize our understanding of youth by addressing the underlying social economic and political issues they face Each of the ten revised chapters begins with a list of key learning objectives and ends with discussion questions to aid in the learning process and stimulate critical thinking This new edition incorporates updated statistics comprehensive tables and revised narratives in which the author explores topics pertinent to today's youth such as the influence of social media eating disorders and recent changes to the juvenile justice system

Canadian Cultural Poesis Garry Sherbert, Annie G  rin, Sheila Petty, 2006-02-03 How do we make culture and how does culture make us Canadian Cultural Poesis takes a comprehensive approach toward Canadian culture from a variety of provocative perspectives Centred on the notion of culture as social identity it offers original essays on cultural issues of urgent concern to Canadians gender technology cultural ethnicity and regionalism From a broad range of disciplines contributors consider these issues in the contexts of media individual and national identity language and cultural dissent Providing an excellent introduction to current debates in Canadian culture Canadian Cultural Poesis will appeal not only to readers looking for an overview of Canadian culture but also to those interested in cultural studies and interdisciplinarity as well as scholars in film art literature sociology communication and womens studies This book offers new insights into how we make and are made by Canadian culture each essay contributing to this poetics inventing new ways to welcome cultural differences of all kinds to the Canadian cultural community

Blackness and Modernity Cecil Foster, 2007-05-28 In Blackness and Modernity Foster traces the main philosophical anthropological sociological and mythological arguments that support views of modernity as a failed quest for whiteness He outlines how these views were implemented as part of a world history and shows how Canada became the first country to officially reject this approach by adopting multiculturalism

Colour Matters Carl E. James, 2021-03-11 Written over a period of more than two decades Colour Matters is a collection of essays that shows how race informs the aspirational pursuits of Black youth in the Greater Toronto Area

Ethnicity, Class, and Nationalism Anton Allahaar, 2005-01-01 Celebrants of an ever emerging globalization fly the banner of free trade the mass marketization of once faltering economies and rising economic and social standards for all Many opponents to globalization rightfully point out that borders still exist largely for the purposes of keeping one commodity in its place the labor commodity or the more familiar immigrant Arguments of this type are often steeped in economic and social discourse Race and ethnicity are seen as either being subsumed by this discourse or are entirely ignored as incidental to this type of political thought In Ethnicity Class and Nationalism Caribbean and Extra Caribbean Dimensions specialists writing on the Caribbean form of the nation state place race and ethnicity along with class in its proper context at the very foundations of the modern nation Editor Anton L Allahaar has handpicked scholarship that is both contemporary and expert in its consideration of Caribbean geo politics Furthermore essays in this volume include comparative cases from around the globe In the interest of locating race and ethnicity as sociological and political categories that are inimical to contemporary conceptions of the nation state Allahar explores spaces other than the Caribbean The result is a comparative study that is unique in scope and also in its level of scholarly reflection This book is the first of its kind It is essential reading for anyone interested in advancing their analysis of political economic social and cultural thought in the Caribbean      Immigrant Settlement Policy in Canadian Municipalities Erin

Tolley,Robert Young,2011-06-30 Drawing on a great many in depth interviews with government officials and front line workers contributors provide a comparative assessment of approaches to immigrant settlement in nineteen Canadian municipalities This is complemented by a discussion of the federal government s role in this policy field and by a comprehensive introduction and conclusion which ground the book historically and thematically synthesize its key findings and provide recommendations for addressing the challenges related to intergovernmental cooperation settlement service delivery and overall immigrant outcomes Individual chapters examine the mechanics of public policy making but also tell a story about diverse and innovative approaches to immigrant settlement in Canada s towns and cities about gaps and problems in the system and about the ways in which governments and communities are working together to facilitate integration Contributors include Zainab Amery Carleton University Caroline Andrew University of Ottawa Guy Chiasson Universit du Qu bec en Outaouais Rodney Haddow University of Toronto Rachida Abdourhamane Hima Government of Canada Christine Hughes Carleton University Serena Kataoka University of Victoria Junichiro Koji University of Ottawa Warren Magnusson University of Victoria Daiva Stasiulis Carleton University Erin Tolley Queen s University and Robert Young University of Western Ontario      Colour-coded Constance Backhouse,Osgoode Society for Canadian Legal

History,1999-01-01 Backhouse presents detailed narratives of six court cases each giving evidence of blatant racism created and enforced through law BOOK JACKET      Social Work Theories and Methods Mel Gray,Stephen Webb,2012-12-14 The second edition of this celebrated book by two of the world s leading researchers in social work introduces readers to the main theories theorists and perspectives that contribute to the debate on social work theory and social work methods It brings together some outstanding international researchers in social work to challenge the reader to critically question how they think about social work The new edition includes a focus on the psychosocial perspective with three new chapters on Cognitive behavioural approaches Attachment theory and psychoanalytic social work Ecological approaches Each chapter allows the reader to relate the theories and methods discussed to their own personal experiences This reader friendly book includes student questions glossaries and recommended reading so that students and practitioners can reappraise and expand the knowledge they have learned This book will be valuable for undergraduate and postgraduate students taking courses in social work theory and research methods social work interventions and perspectives as well as post qualifying students and researchers in social work      Dancing on Live Embers Tina Lopes,Barb Thomas,2006 Winner of the 2007

Gustavus Myers Outstanding Book Award for advancing human rights      Ipperwash Edward J. Hedican, 2013-01-01 Edward J Hedican s Ipperwash provides an incisive examination of protest and dissent within the context of land claims disputes and Aboriginal rights
