Rationalism in Politics, and Other Essays Michael Oakeshott, 1962 Philosophy, Dialogue, and Education Alexandre Guilherme, W. John Morgan, 2017-10-19

Philosophy Dialogue and Education is an advanced introduction to nine key European social philosophers Martin Buber Mikhail Bakhtin Lev Vygotsky Hannah Arendt Emmanuel Levinas Maurice Merleau Ponty Simone Weil Michael Oakeshott and Jürgen Habermas This detailed yet highly readable work positions the socio political views of each philosopher within a European tradition of dialogical philosophy and reflects on the continuing theoretical relevance of the work of each to education generally and to critical pedagogy The discussion in each chapter is informed by materials drawn from various scholarly sources in English and is enriched by materials from other languages particularly French German and Russian This enhances the comparative European cultural perspective of the book and connects the work of each philosopher to wider intellectual political and social debates The book will appeal to academics postgraduates and researchers working in philosophy philosophy of education and in educational cultural and social studies more generally Advanced undergraduate students would also benefit from the book's discussion of primary sources and the authors suggestions for further reading

Post-Liberalism John Gray, 2014-02-04 John Gray has become one of our liveliest and most influential political philosophers This current volume is a sequel to his Liberalism's Essays in Political Philosophy The earlier book ended on a sceptical note both in respect of what a post liberal political philosophy might look like and with respect to the claims of political philosophy itself John Gray's new book gives post liberal theory a more definite content It does so by considering particular thinkers in the history of political thought by criticizing the conventional wisdom liberal and socialist of the Western academic class and most directly by specifying what remains of value in liberalism The upshot of this line of thought is that we need not regret the failure of foundationalist liberalism since we have all we need in the historic inheritance of the institutions of civil society It is to the practice of liberty that these institutions encompass rather than to empty liberal theory that we should repair

The Politics of Sex and Other Essays R. Grant, 2000-04-21 These essays cover topics as radically diverse as Charles Rennie Mackintosh Vladimir Havel The Magic Flute and Viz magazine All have been published before and many have already proved controversial The author a leading Oakeshott scholar contributes frequently to the TLS Witty moving and erudite his prose is also conspicuously graceful and clear This collection is addressed as much to the educated general reader as to the academic specialist It includes an otherwise almost unobtainable exchange with Sir Isaiah Berlin

Oakeshott and His Contemporaries Wendell John Coats, 2000 Oakeshott and His Contemporaries is an exploration of the ideas of one of the most important twentieth century English political philosophers vis a vis related ideas in the thought of seven prominent European thinkers spanning a millennium and a half The intent of the exploration is not an attempt to uncover Oakeshott's intellectual influences a dubious project in the case of any original thinker but rather to show the importance and coherence of Oakeshott's various themes by showing how they modify amplify and contrast with similar and related themes in the thought of seven better known thinkers Montaigne St Augustine Hegel Hobbes Benjamin Constant Rousseau and Hume BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved

The Poetic Character of Human Activity Wendell John Coats Jr., Chor-yung Cheung, 2012-07-21 The Poetic Character of Human Activity is a collection of essays by two Oakeshott scholars most of which explores the meaning of Oakeshott's pregnant phrase the poetic character of human activity by comparing and contrasting this idea with similar and opposing ones in particular those of the Taoist thinker Zhuangzi Chuang Tzu and his Western interpreter A C Graham Oakeshott's deep appreciation of the poetic and non instrumental character of human activity led him to develop an interest in the works of Zhuangzi and Confucius Comparison of shared themes between Oakeshott and these two Chinese thinkers facilitates appreciation of his elegant analytic style and his resort to use of metaphors and story telling when conveying some of his most profound insights The collection also contains essays contrasting Oakeshott's idea of the creative in human experience with views of among others Plato Leo Strauss and Eric Voegelin Oakeshott used the phrase the poetic character of human activity arguably the animating center of his entire thought to refer to the creative character of human experiential reality that is to the fact that the form the how and content the what of all human experience and activity arise simultaneously and fluidly and can be separated only at the expense of theoretical coherence and practical skill The various essays in this collection explore the meaning of this claim and its ramifications for the proper role of critical intellect in especially philosophy morality learning and governance There is also some brief contrast of Oakeshott with John Rawls Alasdair MacIntyre Charles Taylor and Quentin Skinner
