Rayuelas Paris:

Paris in the Americas: Yesterday and Today Carole Salmon, 2022-10-18 Across centuries France and especially its capital city Paris established itself as a major source of influence across the Americas through colonization diplomacy and political influence but also through intellectualism and cultural productions of all sorts either by imposition exportation or as a trend of fashion via a bilateral transatlantic movement of people and ideas In itself the influence of Paris the capital of the world as Patrice Higonnet 2002 analyzes it is similar to a phantasmagoria which results in a transatlantic fascination for the city of lights and all the tangible or intangible elements that function as its embodiment As Stuart Hall explains understanding cultures and languages and their representations through various manifestations presupposes that we can identify understand and interpret the signs that constitute their core identity Hall 2013 In an interdisciplinary approach this multi authored edited volume examines the long established relationships between Paris and cities across the American continent in the past as well as in the present time In order to explore all aspects of Paris s influence s in the Americas this volume is organized around two main axes of analysis first in a geographical progression from North to South the reader is invited to reflect upon cultural productions that demonstrate the many influences of Paris in the Americas through theater literature philosophy fashion and cinema chapters 1 to 6 In the following chapters 7 to 11 the volume focuses particularly on a variety of urban connections that take the reader from South to North this time analyzing tangible architectural and urban design influences of Paris in major cities such as Rio de Janeiro Buenos Aires Mexico City New York or Washington D C In today s global world this multifaceted study of Paris visible and invisible influences in the Americas clearly reveals the transnational intersections of spaces languages people and cultures

A Common Place Julie Jones, 1998 The issues raised in this study are pertinent to contemporary fiction in general important here are theories of representation of place of metafiction and parody and questions involving postcolonial urban travel and postmodern literature

Chronoschisms Ursula K. Heise, 1997-08-07 An analysis of the way postmodern novels respond to changes in the experience of time

Writing Paris Marcy E. Schwartz, 1999-01-01 Explores Paris as a desired and imagined place in Latin American postcolonial identity uncovering the city s class gender political and aesthetic resonances for Latin America

Paris and the Marginalized Author Valérie K. Orlando, Pamela A. Pears, 2018-10-15 This volume of essays explores what it is that has brought marginalized and often exiled writers seen as treacherous alienated and or queer by their societies and nations together by way of Paris Spanning from the inter war period of the late 1920s to the present millennium this volume considers many seminal questions that have influenced and continue to shape the realm of exiled writers who have sought refuge in Paris in order to write Additionally the volume s essays seek to define alienation and marginalization as not solely subscribing to any single denominator sexual preference gender or nationality but rather as shared modes of being that allow authors to explore what it is to write from abroad in a place that is foreign yet freed of the constrictions of one s home space What makes Paris a particularly fruitful space that has allowed these authors and their writings to cross national ethnic racial religious and linguistic boundaries for over a century What is it that brings together writers such as Moroccan Abdellah Taïa Americans James Baldwin Richard Wright and most recently Taïa Nehisi Coates and Shay Youngblood Algerian Nabile Farès Franco Algerian Leïla Sebbar Canadian Nancy Huston French Jean Genet and French Vietnamese Linda L. How do their representations and understanding of transgression and marginalization transcend national linguistic and ethnic boundaries leading ultimately to revolution both literary and literal How does their writing help us to trace the history of Paris as a literary and artistic capital that has been useful for authors exploration of the Self race and home country These are but a few of the many questions explored in this volume This book relies on an inherently intersectional approach which is not based in reified identities whether they be LGBT postcolonial ethnic national or linguistic Instead we posit that for example queer theory and a politics of difference can help us investigate the dynamics of these multiple identity positions and hence provide a broader understanding of the lived experiences of these writers and perhaps their readers from the early 1940s to the present

The Drowned Muse Anne-Gaëlle Saliot, 2015 The Drowned Muse is a study of the extraordinary destiny in the history of European culture of an object which could seem at first glance quite ordinary in the history of European culture It tells the story of a mask the cast of a young girl's face entitled L'Inconnue de la Seine the Unknown Woman of the Seine and its subsequent metamorphoses as a cultural figure Legend has it that the Inconnue drowned herself in Paris at the end of the nineteenth century The forensic scientist tending to her unidentified corpse at the Paris Morgue was supposedly so struck by her allure that he captured in plaster the contours of her face This unknown girl also called The Mona Lisa of Suicide has since become the object of an obsessive interest that started in the late 1890s reached its peak in the 1930s and continues to reverberate today Aby Warburg defines art history as a ghost story for grown ups This study is similarly a ghost story for grown ups narrating the aura of a cultural object that crosses temporal geographical and linguistic frontiers It views the Inconnue as a symptomatic expression of a modern world haunted by the earlier modernity of the nineteenth century It also investigates how the mask's metamorphoses reflect major shifts in the cultural history of the last two centuries approaching the Inconnue as an entry point to understand a phenomenon characteristic of 20th and 21st century modernity the translatability of media Doing so this study mobilizes discourses surrounding the Inconnue casting them as points of negotiation through which we may consider the modern age

Luis Leal Mario T. García, 2010-01-01 Professor Luis Leal is one of the most outstanding scholars of Mexican Latin American and Chicano literatures and the dean of Mexican American intellectuals in the United States He was one of the first senior scholars to recognize the viability and importance of Chicano literature and through his perceptive literary criticism helped to legitimize it as a worthy field of study His contributions to humanistic learning have brought him many honors including Mexico's Aguila Azteca and the United States National Humanities Medal In this testimonio or oral history Luis Leal reflects upon his early life in Mexico his intellectual formation at Northwestern University and the University of Chicago and his work and publications as a scholar at the Universities of Illinois and California Santa Barbara Through insightful questions Mario Garcia draws out the connections between literature and history that have been a primary focus of Leal's work He also elicits Leal's assessment of many of the prominent writers he has known and studied including Mariano Azuela William Faulkner Octavio Paz Carlos Fuentes Juan Rulfo Gabriel Garcia Marquez Jorge Luis Borges Tomas Rivera Rolando Hinojosa Rudolfo Anaya Elena Poniatowska Sandra Cisneros Richard Rodriguez and Ana Castillo

The New Joyce Studies Catherine Flynn, 2022-09-08 The New Joyce Studies indicates the variety and energy of research on James Joyce since the year 2000 Essays examine Joyce's works and their reception in the light of a larger set of concerns a diverse international terrain of scholarly modes and methodologies an imperilled environment and crises of racial justice to name just a few This is a Joyce studies that dissolves early visions of Joyce as a sui generis genius by reconstructing his indebtedness to specific literary communities It models ways of integrating masses of compositional and publication details with literary and historical events It develops hybrid critical approaches from posthuman medical and queer methodologies It analyzes the nature and consequences of its extension from Ireland to mainland Europe and to Africa and Latin America Examining issues of copyright law translation and the history of literary institutions this volume seeks to use Joyce's canonical centrality to inform modernist studies more broadly

Sacred Eroticism Juan Carlos Ubilluz, 2006 Sacred Eroticism addresses a neglected chapter in Latin American literature namely the influence of Georges Bataille and Pierre Klossowski's atheist mysticism in the Latin American erotic novel of the twentieth century Combining a Lacanian analytical framework with an intertextualist approach Juan Carlos Ubilluz reveals how Julio Cortazar Salvador Elizondo Mario Vargas Llosa and Juan Garcia Ponce adopted Bataille and Klossowski's aesthetic and philosophical models as a point of departure to rearticulate the modern subject's buried dimension of the sacred through various innovations on the erotic novel's form Ubilluz examines the dialectical irruption of these literary experiments into their particular aesthetic theoretical and political contexts showing for instance that Cortazar's

The Novels of Julio Cortazar Steven Boldy, 1980-11-06 This 1980 book is a clear and detailed study of Julio Cortazar's four major novels
