Re Forming The Center:

Re-forming the State Hector E. Schamis, 2002 Compares the processes leading to market reform experiments and its political effects in Latin America and Europe Reforming Juvenile Detention Ira M. Schwartz, William H. Barton, 1994 Juvenile detention facilities confine more youths than do any other type of institution in the United States Essentially jails for juveniles who have been arrested and are awaiting trial these centers tend to be overcrowded inadequately staffed and expensive to operate Juvenile justice officials and state and local policymakers throughout the country are desperately trying to determine the proper use of these facilities and more important how to bring detention systems under control The eleven essays in this collection assess today s juvenile detention system bringing to light problems and inefficiencies and suggesting strategies for improving conditions and eliminating these problems The authors of these essays pull together data on national trends in detention policies and practices and examine specific cases to paint a grim picture of a system badly in need of reform They also provide practical summaries of reform targets and strategies and case studies of successful reform attempts thus offering clear and much needed guidance toward possible solutions to the nation s juvenile detention crisis

Reforming Schools Jesse Goodman, 2012-02-01 In Reforming Schools Jesse Goodman discusses the possibilities struggles and complexities involved in reforming today s schools Drawing from his own experiences at the Harmony Education Center a progressive educational center he helped establish in 1990 Goodman offers a vision of how to persevere at a time when many progressive educators are feeling discouraged He focuses on practical ideas for reform such as establishing school autonomy creating democratic structures rituals and values upon which school reform discourse can be generated and by addressing the current conservative agenda how to influence what happens in our nation s public schools By situating school reform within a progressive history of Western society the author offers valuable insights and ideas that are alternatives to both the conservative and the radical left analyses of schools and society Reforming UN Decision-Making Procedures Martin Daniel Niemetz, 2015-03-24 The institutional procedures for the UN s decision making on issues of global peace and security first and foremost the Security Council SC were conceived with the objective of enabling a swift but internationally coordinated response to irregular situations of crises Today however the UN is constantly involved in situations of conflict and has expanded its range of activities This book offers a concrete and practically applicable answer to the question of how to reform the UN and increase the legitimacy of the UN s decision making procedures on issues of global peace and security In order to provide this answer it connects the minutia of institutional design with the abstract principals of democratic theory in a systematic and reproducible method thereby enabling a clear normative evaluation of even the smallest technical detail of reform This evaluation demonstrates that there is a range of feasible proposals for reform that could improve the SC s accountability both to the General Assembly and to the general public that could increase the opportunities for effective input from the UN membership and NGOs This book will be of interest to students and scholars of the United Nations

Menning, 2004-03-18 This volume examines how Imperial Russia's armed forces sought to adapt to the challenges of modern warfare From Peter the Great to Nicholas II rulers always understood the need to maintain an army and navy capable of preserving the empire's great power status Yet they inevitably faced the dilemma of importing European military and technological innovations while keeping out political ideas that could challenge the autocracy's monopoly on power Within the context of a constant race to avoid oblivion the impulse for military renewal emerges as a fundamental and recurring theme in modern Russian history Reforming and Downsizing the Bureau of Indian Affairs United States. Congress. Senate. Committee on Indian Affairs (1993-), 1995 Reforming Capital Income Taxation Horst Siebert, 2019-07-11 This book surveys the theoretical issues that characterize the problem of reforming capital income taxes in an open economy It explores the tax incentives and disincentives to investment in an open economy framework allowing cross border portfolio and direct investment Anglican Re-Formation Jack A. Estes, 2017-05-17 The Anglican Communion is at a crossroads A tipping point has been reached on the fulcrum where things can no longer be kept in balance A choice must be made between two competing worldviews which are at heart radically different The time has come to decide which set of beliefs and practices will be adhered to and taught in the church and which vision will be offered to the world as the Christian faith Are we sinners brought back into relationship with God through the atoning sacrifice of Jesus Christ or are all made in the image of God and therefore inherently good Is Jesus Christ the only means of salvation or is salvation available through a plurality of religions that lead us to the knowledge of the divine presence within each person The time for re formation is at hand The calling of the Anglican reformers of the twenty first century goes beyond setting their own house in order The famous Via Media of Anglicanism brings it close to every other expression of the church A revived and restructured fellowship of Anglican Churches could readily become a model and a catalyst for the re formation of the various Christian fellowships worldwide Reforming China Sen Peng,2010-09-01 This book chronicles the dramatic events that have taken place since China opened up to the world in 1978 and adopted a policy of economic reform It records how economic policies were drafted between 1978 and 1991 brought into law initiated and then im
