Re Imagining Comparative Education Postfoundational Theories And Applications For Critical Times:

Re-Imagining Comparative Education Peter Ninnes, Sonia Mehta, 2004-06-09 The original essays included here by up and coming scholars in the field illustrate the potential and diversity of post foundational ideas as applied to comparative education concerns

Re-Imagining Comparative Education Peter Ninnes, Sonia Mehta, 2004-06-09 This book provides clear and concise discussions of key elements of contemporary social theories and their application to the field of comparative education

Affect Theory and Comparative Education Discourse Irving Epstein, 2019-07-11 What does educational policy making and institutional practice entail in an era of globalization Global interactions challenge conventional assumptions governing the certainty of geographical boundedness simplistic notions of citizenship and identity fixed notions of time space and movement and clear distinctions between economic modes of production and consumption Irving Epstein argues that conventional educational institutions and the policies that support them tend to ignore such anxiety by affirming a belief in educational modernism to the exclusion of other possibilities What is missing in most of these analyses is an appreciation for the role of affect in determining how our encounters with these practices become significant and how our efforts to find meaning in those policies and practices lead to their acceptance or rejection This book is the first application of affect theory to comparative education themes and shows how it can help to form a more robust discussion of the policy making process and the popular reactions to it After discussing the key concepts associated with affect theory he presents a total of six case studies Three of the cases depict relationships between educational cultural and social organizations whose purposes conflict with one another but whose presence is indicative of a loss of faith in the efficacy of public schooling Three of the cases are illustrative of an even greater systematic rejection of educational institutional aim and purpose

The Bloomsbury Handbook of Theory in Comparative and International Education Tavis D. Jules, Robin Shields, Matthew A. M. Education in Small States Peter Mayo, 2013-09-13 This book focuses on education in small states It examines the strengths and weaknesses of different aspects of educational provision in political jurisdictions having a very small population populations which encounter specific challenges threats and opportunities This book presents a balance in regional representation covering the South Pacific the Caribbean Africa Europe and the Mediterranean The contributions pay particular attention to basic education higher education entrepreneurship training post primary education and the impact of globalization on educational restructuring and aid delivery in specific small state regions This book was published as a special issue of the Comparative Education

Comparative and International Education (Re)Assembled Florin D. Salajan,tavis d. jules,2022-11-03 Drawing on a post foundational approach to Deleuze and Guattari s seminal work on assemblage theory this book explores the scholarly field of comparative and international education CIE Written by a diverse collection of international scholars from Australia Ireland Italy Malaysia South Africa Sweden Switzerland the UK and the USA the chapters use the assemblage paradigm as an analytical tool to examine the continuously evolving field of CIE The theoretical chapters unpack assemblage theory and its core components whilst others draw on examples and international case studies to show how assemblage theory could be applied to future CIE research The field of CIE is prone to constant re configurations and this book casts the shaping of the field in a fresh light prompting new discussions on the field s variability and flexibility

Comparative Education Carlos Alberto Torres,Robert F. Arnove,Lauren Ila Misiaszek,2022-08-10 Now in its fifth edition Comparative Education The Dialectic of the Global and the Local has established itself as the state of the art comprehensive as well as sophisticated framework for taking into account the dynamic interactions of local national regional and transnational factors shaping education systems around the world Our theoretical and methodological strategy for this volume has proven effective as a standard textbook for introducing the field of comparative education from various theoretical and methodological perspectives

International Handbook on Education Development in the Asia-Pacific Wing On Lee,Phillip Brown,A. Lin Goodwin,Andy Green,2023-11-20 The Springer International Handbook of Educational Development in Asia Pacific breaks new ground with a comprehensive fine grained and diverse perspective on research and education development throughout the Asia Pacific region In 13 sections and 127 chapters the Handbook delves into a wide spectrum of contemporary topics including educational equity and quality language education learning and human development workplace learning teacher education and professionalization higher education organisations citizenship and moral education and high performing education systems The Handbook is grounded in specific Asia Pacific contexts and scholarly traditions using unique country specific narratives for example Vietnam and Melanesia and socio cultural investigations through lenses such as language identity or colonisation while offering parallel academic discourse and analyses framed by broader policy commentary from around the world

Education in Radical Uncertainty Stephen Carney,Ulla Ambrosius Madsen,2021-07-15 Drawing upon the long tradition of recalcitrant thought in Western humanist scholarship this book rethinks education and educational research at a time of intense social transformation By revisiting a range of post foundational ideas and developing their own methodological experiment Stephen Carney and Ulla Ambrosius

Madsen reimagine the possibilities for the comparative study of education Exploring the experiences of young people in Denmark South Korea and Zambia this book illustrates how these very different contexts are increasingly connected by common narratives of purpose as well as overheated promises of success Focusing on the writings of Jean Baudrillard the authors examine them in the context of works by other theorists of modernity to explore processes of simulation and disappearance that are shaping life worldwide In the process the authors paint a rich portrait of education and schooling as a site of joy hope pain and ambivalence Encompassing both theoretical and methodological innovation Education in Radical Uncertainty provides inspiration for scholars and students attempting to approach the fields of comparative education education policy and youth studies anew
