Globalization, Culture and Inequality in Asia Timothy J. Scrase, Todd Joseph Miles Holden, Scott Baum, 2003

Contemplating globalization from a sociological perspective it is without doubt that a major site for social political economic and cultural change in the new millennium lies in the Asian region The chapters in this book seek to describe and analyze a number of key aspects of social and cultural change wrought by globalization in the Asian region The underlying theme in the book is the multi dimensional way in which globalization in the form of ideas practices and technology have introduced social inequalities in specific contexts In particular the book examines how inequality has been reproduced challenged and theorized in Asia by the advent of globalizing culture Written by experienced and established scholars the study provides both theoretical explanation and discussion and analysis of empirical data from a range of social cultural and political economic perspectives and draws on studies from several countries in the region

Regionalism and Globalization in East Asia Mark Beeson, 2017-08-24 This book examines the distinctive evolution of the political and economic relationships of East Asia It does this by placing East Asian development in the unique historical circumstances that have underpinned its rise to power over the last few decades This detailed analysis provides the basis for an assessment of a unified East Asian region

Living Together Suzanne Majhanovich, Christine Fox, Adila Pasalic Kreso, 2009-04-30 SUZANNE MAJHANOVICH and CHRISTINE FOX Originally published in the journal International Review of Education Volume 54 Nos 3 4 287 297 DOI 10 1007 s11159 008 9097 9 Springer Science Business Media B V 2008 The papers in this collection have been selected from over 800 presentations given at the XIIIth World Congress of Comparative Education Societies held at the University of Sarajevo Bosnia and Herzegovina from 3 to 7 September 2007 The Congress was hosted on behalf of the WCCES by the Mediterranean Society of Comparative Education and in association with the International Association of Intercultural Education For such an international gathering it was appropriate that the theme chosen was Living Together Education and Intercultural Dialogue providing scope for contributions by participating scholars policy makers and practitioners in education from some 70 countries The presenters approached contemporary educational issues with knowledge and insights about a world characterized by the tensions and demands of global and local interests by regional conflicts and post conflict deliberations and by the global diaspora with cultural religious and linguistic diversity within both small and large states Only a very few papers could be included for this collection but they represented some of the key topics under discussion during the Congress The papers were selected from the recommendations of the convenors of the 13 Thematic Groups the keynote addresses and several symposia

An Asian Perspective on Mediation Joel Lee, Hwee Hwee Teh, 2009 The prevailing mediation model and process is drawn primarily from the West For a long time there has been a call for conflict management approaches that are more appropriate for the Asian context This book answers the call by identifying cultural values and norms that affect how conflicts may be perceived through Asian lenses and how conflict management processes and practices should be structured

now twenty eight in the series is an annual review of significant developments and trends in the region Though the emphasis is on ASEAN countries developments in the broader Asia Pacific region are not ignored Readable and easily understood analyses are offered of major political economic social and strategic developments within Southeast Asia The contributions can be divided into two broad categories There are those which provide an analysis of major developments during 2000 in individual Southeast Asian countries and in the region generally Then there are the theme articles of a more specialized nature which deal with topical problems of concern This volume contains twenty three articles dealing with such major themes as international conflict and co operation political stability and economic growth and development
