Re Framing Educational Politics For Social Justice:

Re-framing Educational Politics for Social Justice Catherine Marshall, Cynthia I. Gerstl-Pepin, 2005 The new Benjamin January novel from the best selling author Abishag Shaw is seeking vengeance for his brother's murder and Benjamin January is seeking money after his bank crashes Far beyond the frontier in the depths of the Rocky Mountains both are to be found at the great Rendezvous of the Mountain Men a month long orgy of cheap booze shooting matches tall tales and cut throat trading But at the rendezvous the discovery of a corpse opens the door to hints of a greater plot of madness and wholesale murder Educational Politics for Social Justice Catherine Marshall, Cynthia I. Gerstl-Pepin, Mark Johnson, 2020 Using an innovative social justice framework Educational Politics for Social Justice provides a comprehensive examination of educational politics at all levels of the system how inequities are embedded in democratic practices and ways to work the system to move toward greater justice and equity

Reframing Trauma Through Social Justice Catrina Brown, 2024-07-31 This cross disciplinary volume examines and reframes trauma as a social and political issue in the context of wider society critiquing the widely accepted pathologizing of trauma and violence in current discourse Rooted in critical social theory this insightful text reinvokes the critiques and analysis of the women's movement and the personal is political framing of trauma to unpack the mainstreaming of trauma discourse which has emerged today Accomplished contributors address the social construction of femininity and masculinity in relation to trauma and violence and advocate for a broader framing of trauma away from the constrained focus on pathologizing and diagnosing trauma individual psychologizing and therapy Instead the book offers a fresh and compelling look at how discursive resistance alternative feminist and narrative approaches to emotional distress and the mental health effects of violence can be developed alongside community based preventive political and policy based actions to create effective shifts in discourse practice policy and programming This is fascinating reading for upper level undergraduate and postgraduate students researchers and academics in a broad range of fields of study including psychology social work gender and women's studies and sociology as well as for professionals including policy makers clinical psychologists and social workers

Reframing Education Failure and Aspiration Shaun Best, 2024-10 Education is considered central to social mobility and following a drive to raise learners aspirations an aspiration industry has emerged However the desire to leave school early should not be regarded as evidence of students lacking ambition This book traces the emergence of the aspiration industry and argues that to have ambitions that do not require qualifications is different but not wrong Reviewing the performance of six schools in England their Ofsted reports and responses it evaluates underpinning assumptions of what makes an effective school This book critically examines neo liberal education policy developments including the 1988 Education Reform Act and the political discourse around changing explanations of education failure with the rise in the marketisation of education

Quandaries of School Leadership Debra J. Touchton, Mariela A. Rodríguez, Gary Ivory, Michele Acker-Hocevar, 2017-08-16 This book provides insights into the everyday practices of school leaders as told through the real life stories of principals The editors and their contributors blend practice with theory helping aspiring leaders to discover that school leadership is not simply putting prescribed solutions into action but a constant encounter with quandaries that demand thinking responding and adjusting to the situations at hand Readers build their capacities to view quandaries from multiple lenses consider a variety of responses and draw conclusions based on perspectives that may vary from those initially identified The chapter authors encourage a sharper self awareness of what scholars value and envision about education encouraging them to think about how to navigate decision making through a variety of theoretical frameworks and practices while balancing their own leadership platform development Turbulence,

Empowerment and Marginalisation in International Education Governance Systems Alison Taysum, Khalid

Arar, 2018-12-07 This book presents a new theory of empowerment exploring how senior leaders can navigate turbulence within governance systems to empower young societal innovators for equity renewal and peace Jsl Vol 19-N4 JOURNAL

OF SCHOOL LEADERSHIP, 2010-04-16 The Journal of School Leadership is broadening the conversation about schools and leadership and is currently accepting manuscripts We welcome manuscripts based on cutting edge research from a wide variety of theoretical perspectives and methodological orientations The editorial team is particularly interested in working with international authors authors from traditionally marginalized populations and in work that is relevant to practitioners around the world Growing numbers of educators and professors look to the six bimonthly issues to deal with problems directly related to contemporary school leadership practice teach courses on school leadership and policy use as a quality reference in writing articles about school leadership and improvement Quest for World-Class Teacher Education? Jun

Li, 2016-07-25 Utilizing a case study method and a Multiperspectival Approach this volume presents a pioneering in depth study about China s teacher education policy since the 1990s It critically investigates the rational dynamic and complex implementation process taking place at the micro institutional level for the transformations of teacher education institutions The book first introduces the sociopolitical and cultural background of China s teacher education system and its challenges under the condition of globalization and illustrates major national initiatives for nurturing highly qualified teachers It then explores new teachers identities in an era of enhanced professionalism uncovers the ways they reflect China s teacher education reform and distills the rationales behind these policy actions This is followed by an analytic presentation of the findings of the case study of a provincial normal university with a particular focus on such core pieces of the implementation jigsaw as policy flow the dynamism of implementation sociopolitical and cultural confluence and institutional barriers in the complex process Lastly the book unravels key recommendations and implications for policy implementation studies from the China policy case and constructs a Chinese Zhong Yong Model of policy implementation and sheds new light on policy studies of teacher education reform in particular and public policy in general which may be transferable to other sociopolitical contexts seeking to nurture world class teachers and achieve educational excellence in a global age Learning to Teach in an Era of Privatization Christopher A. Lubienski, T. Jameson Brewer, 2019-07-19 Education policymakers often demonstrate surprisingly little awareness of how popular reforms impact teaching and teacher education. In this book, well-regarded scholars help readers develop a more robust understanding of the nature of teacher preparation as well as an in-depth grasp of how popular policies, practices, and ideologies have taken root domestically and internationally. Contributors include Deron Boyles, Anthony Cody, Kerry Kretchmar, Carmen Montecinos, Beth Sondel, and Christopher Tienken. This book will help readers consider the possibilities of democratic visions in the teaching profession and in public education, particularly in this time of intense political polarization when critical citizen engagement with our public institutions and policies is deeply needed. Janelle Scott, University of California Berkeley. The chapters in this book make clear that ongoing policy disconnects cannot be ignored and that now is the time to elevate the teaching profession for students who have faced historical inequities. Julian Vasquez Heilig, dean, University of Kentucky College of Education. Public teaching and teacher education in the U.S. and in many other parts of the world are under assault by concerted efforts to deregulate and marketize them. This collection of essays examines the consequences of these privatization efforts in the U.S., Chile, and Singapore and should be required reading for those wanting to understand their complexity and consequences for teaching and teacher education today. Ken Zeichner, Boeing Professor of Teacher Education, University of Washington. The Rising State Bonnie C. Fusarelli, Bruce S. Cooper, 2009-02-02 State and national policymakers are increasingly important in shaping the nature, scope, and direction of education initiatives, resulting in the erosion of local control. The Rising State weaves together leading national experts' perspectives that focus on equity, comparative differences in state educational policies, agenda setting, and the nationalization of education policy. The contributors provide policymakers, teachers, administrators, parents, and the general public with an opportunity and means to understand the success and failure of the growth of state power and centralization of control of education in the United States and offer forecasts for future developments.
