Re Membering Libraries Essays On The Profession:

Re-Membering Libraries T.D. Webb,2000-08-06 This collection of essays and unpublished papers is an informal sometimes irreverent look back at the author s nearly quarter century in the library profession Most chapters recall an anecdote memory or reminiscence that represents an important lesson in being a librarian or library manager and that in one way or another projects its relevance into the future of librarianship As the author notes in his Preface Libraries also need to be re membered that is taken apart examined and reassembled in order to reach the new levels of service that will be required in the future barreling toward us Among the many topics discussed are fund raising libraries as research institutions library buildings for the 21st century digitization in 21st century academic libraries globalizing American librarianship and library education reform

Divided Libraries T.D. Webb,2012-08-10 Given the highly trained library workforce now available and the vast and growing array of packaging information and knowledge libraries have the capacity to become pre eminent places of learning research and teaching Yet despite this potential libraries remain divided from their constituencies and their governing bodies be they students faculties university administrations municipal governments or ordinary citizens Indeed many modern university administrators viewing librarians as ancillary citizens in academe have allowed their libraries to wither under the burden of shrinking budgets staffing inadequacies and deteriorating facilities This thought provoking volume by a 35 year veteran of academic libraries identifies diagnoses and provides remedies to the damaging divisions in and between libraries and librarianship arguing that the processes of teaching constitute the genuine context in which to steer librarianship into the future

Library and Information Science Michael F. Bemis,2014-03-03 This unique annotated bibliography is a complete up to date guide to sources of information on library science covering recent books monographs periodicals and websites and selected works of historical importance In addition to compiling an invaluable list of sources Bemis digs deeper examining the strengths and weaknesses of key works A boon to researchers and practitioners alike this bibliography Includes coverage of subjects as diverse and vital as the history of librarianship its development as a profession the ethics of information science cataloging reference work and library architecture Encompasses encyclopedias dictionaries directories photographic surveys statistical publications and numerous electronic sources all categorized by subject Offers appendixes detailing leading professional organizations and publishers of library and information science literature This comprehensive bibliography of English language resources on librarianship the only one of its kind will prove invaluable to scholars students and anyone working in the field

The Laughing Librarian Jeanette C. Smith,2014-01-10 Despite the stodgy stereotypes libraries and librarians themselves can be quite funny The spectrum of library humor from sources inside and outside the profession ranges from the subtle wit of the New Yorker to the satire of Mad This examination of American library humor over the past 200 years covers a wide range of topics and spans the continuum between light and dark from parodies to portrayals of libraries and their staffs as objects of fear It illuminates different types of librarians the collector the organization person the keeper the change agent and explores stereotypes like the shushing little old lady with a bun the male scholar librarian the library superhero and the anti stereotype of the sexy librarian Profiles of the most prominent library humorists round out this lively study Current Publications in Legal and Related Fields, 2001 Remembering Anne Beach Carolyn Day, 2025-02-28 Remembering Anne Beach pulls back the veil on the challenges of research the problems of gaps in archives and the long process involved in constructing historical narratives Through the tragic tale of an ill fated couple and their disapproving families this microhistory explores not only forbidden love but also marriage illness death disability and scandal in eighteenth century society Drawing on the story of Anne Beach the author sheds light on the lost experiences of early modern women as well as those with mental afflictions who have left us mere fragments of their lived experiences In weaving a tragic narrative Day also tackles the problem of archival silences and provides the reader with insight into the highs and lows of the research process With charm and clarity Day describes the frustration skill determination obsession and sheer luck required to be able to provide a diligent more inclusive perception of our past The Art of Remembering Gwendolyn DuBois Shaw, 2024-03-01 Gwendolyn DuBois Shaw explores African American art and representation from the height of the British colonial period to the present seeking out the recovery of facts and narratives of African American creativity and self representation that have been purposefully set aside actively ignored and disremembered Remembering Oliver Strunk, Teacher and Scholar William Oliver Strunk, 2005 This volume celebrates the life and work of William Oliver Strunk 1901 1980 professor of musicology at Princeton University eminent scholar and author and beloved teacher It presents the papers from a conference held on January 18 19 2002 at the American Academy in Rome and the Badia Greca of Grottaferrata Some of these have been expanded for publication and one additional contribution has been included Remembering the Covenants in Song Young-Sam Won, 2019-08-20 In biblical and theological studies fresh perspectives and novel approaches can breathe new life into familiar subjects Remembering the Covenants in Song reconsiders the Abrahamic and Mosaic covenant relationship through the unique biblical and canonical lens of a postexilic song In Psalm 105 the psalmist s intriguing intertextual engagement with both of Israel s great covenant traditions provides a rare glimpse into the covenant understanding of a postexilic biblical writer interacting with the Torah Remembering the Covenants in Song entails an intertextual study of Psalm 105 that brings the psalmist s rhetorical design and covenant references into a dialogue with the Torah s seminal covenant texts The examination of the psalmist s use of covenant references and allusions represents an innovative approach to assessing the rhetorical significance of intertextuality in biblical writings An Introduction to Reference Services in Academic Libraries Elizabeth Connor, 2006-08-25 An introductory text on various aspects of reference services that requires your students to think An Introduction to Reference Services in Academic Libraries is a comprehensive textbook that presents compelling case studies and thought provoking essays that teach the principles of reference services Eighteen authorities from private and public ac
