Re Viewing Reception Television Gender And Postmodern Culture:

Re-viewing Reception Lynne Joyrich,1996 This is an ambitious analysis of television studies as a whole Library Journal Focusing on U S television of the 1980s from Miami Vice Moonlighting and Pee wee s Playhouse to Max Headroom Lynne Joyrich explores how gender affects the reception of television She traces how the medium has been chracterized as feminine and then turns to the television shows themselves and analyzes a range of genres and forms The Routledge Companion to Postmodernism Stuart Sim,2012-05-23 This fully revised third edition of The Routledge Companion to Postmodernism provides the ideal introduction to postmodernist thought Featuring contributions from a cast of international scholars the Companion contains 19 detailed essays on major themes and topics along with an A Z of key terms and concepts As well as revised essays on philosophy politics literature and more the first section now contains brand new essays on critical theory business gender and the performing arts The concepts section too has been enhanced with new topics ranging from hypermedia to global warming Students interested in any aspect of postmodernism will continue to find this an indispensable resource Postmodern Texts and Emotional Audiences Kimberly Chabot Davis,2007 Analyzes contemporary texts that bond together two seemingly antithetical sensibilities the sentimental and the postmodern This book presents case studies of audience responses to The Piano Kiss of the Spider Woman and Northern Exposure It argues that sentimental postmodernism deepened leftist political engagement Television Studies in Queer Times F. Hollis Griffin,2023-05-09 This timely collection of accessible essays interrogate queer television at the start of the twenty first century The complex political cultural and economic milieu requires new terms and conceptual frameworks to study television and media through a queer lens Gathering a range of well known scholars the book takes on the relationship between sexual identity desire and television breaking new ground in a context where existing critical vocabularies and research paradigms used to study television no longer hold sway in the ways they used to The anthology sets out to confound conventional categories used to organize queer television scholarship like programming industry audience genre and activism Instead the anthology offers four interpretive frames historicity temporal play ideological limitation and industrial contextualization in the interest of creating new queer tools for studying digital television in the contemporary age This collection is suitable for scholars and students studying queer media studies television studies gender studies and sexuality studies Outside Looking in Mary Jane Miller,2008-06-09 Widely sold abroad Beachcombers and North of 60 are what many international audiences know about Canada In Outside Looking In Mary Jane Miller traces the evolution of representations of First Nations people in fifty years of Canadian television broadcasts Allegories of Communication John Fullerton,Jan Olsson,2004 No further information has been provided for this title Television and the Embodied Viewer Marsha F. Cassidy,2020-01-15 Television and the Embodied Viewer appraises the medium s capacity to evoke sensations and bodily feelings in the viewer Presenting a fresh approach to television studies the book examines the sensate force of onscreen bodies and illustrates how TV s multisensory appeal builds viewer empathy and animates meaning The book draws extensively upon interpretive viewpoints in the humanities to shed light on a range of provocative television works notably The Americans Mad Men Little Women LA and Six Feet Under with emphasis on the dramatization of gender disability sex childbearing and death Advocating a biocultural approach that takes into account the mind sciences Cassidy argues that interpretive meanings shaped within today's dynamic cultural matrix are amplified by somatic experience At a time when questions of embodiment and affect are crossing disciplines this book will appeal to scholars and students working in the fields of television film and media studies both in the humanities and cognitive traditions Roll Over Adorno Robert Miklitsch, 2012-02-01 What happens when Theodor Adorno the champion of high classical artists such as Beethoven comes into contact with the music of Chuck Berry the de facto king of rock n roll In a series of readings and meditations Robert Miklitsch investigates the postmodern nexus between elite and popular culture as it occurs in the audiovisual fields of film music and television ranging from Gershwin to gangsta rap Tarantino to Tongues Untied Tony Soprano to Buffy the Vampire Slayer Miklitsch argues that the aim of critical theory in the new century will be to describe and explain these commodities in ever greater phenomenological detail without losing touch with those evaluative criteria that have historically sustained both Kulturkritik and classical aesthetics

Keywords for Media Studies Laurie Ouellette, Jonathan Gray, 2017-03-14 The Essential vocabulary of Media Studies Keywords for Media Studies introduces and aims to advance the field of critical media studies by tracing defining and problematizing its established and emergent terminology The book historicizes thinking about media and society whether that means noting a long history of new media or tracing how understandings of media power vary across time periods and knowledge formations Bringing together an impressive group of established scholars from television studies film studies sound studies games studies and more each of the 65 essays in the volume focuses on a critical concept from fan to industry and celebrity to surveillance Keywords for Media Studies is an essential tool that introduces key terms research traditions debates and their histories and offers a sense of the new frontiers and questions emerging in the field of media studies

The Television Studies Reader Robert Clyde Allen, Annette Hill, 2004 The Television Studies Reader brings together key writings in the expanding field of television studies providing an overview of the discipline and addressing issues of industry genre audiences production and ownership and representation The Reader charts the ways in which television and television studies are being redefined by new and alternative ways of producing broadcasting and watching TV such as cable satellite and digital broadcasting home video internet broadcasting and interactive TV as well as exploring the recent boom in genres such as reality TV and docu-soaps It brings together articles from leading international scholars to provide perspectives on television programmes and practices from around the world acknowledging both television's status as a global medium and the many and varied local contexts of its production and reception Articles are grouped in seven themed sections each with an introduction by the editors Institutions of Television Spaces of Television Modes of Television Making Television Social
