Leslie Smith,David H. Ostroff,John W. Wright,2023-05-31 This textbook describes the field of radio and television in the United States presents the material in a manner the reader can grasp and enjoy and makes the book useful for the classroom teacher Written for adaptation to individual teaching situations the book is divided by subject matter into logical chapter divisions that can be assigned in the order appropriate for specific course students Each chapter stands by itself but the book is also an integrated whole It is easy to understand at first reading by beginning radio television majors or nonmajor elective students alike To give readers a complete picture of the field subjects such as ethics careers and rivals to U S commercial radio and television are included The Appropriation of Media in Everyday Life Ruth Ayass,Cornelia Gerhardt,2012 Focuses on how people appropriate media in their daily lives This book contributes to the burgeoning field of interactional linguistic media studies It analyses the minutiae of the moment when people actively appropriate media for their own purposes in different fashions Creating Reality in Factual Television Manfred W. Becker,2020-10-07 Creating Reality in Factual Television analyzes the uneasy interaction between economics culture and professional ethics in reality and documentary television storytelling Through the frankenbite an editorial tool that extracts and re orders the salient elements or single words of a statement interview or exchange into a revealing confession or argument the book explores how and why editors manipulate truth in factual television The author considers how the editing of documentary television is increasingly following reality television s dictate to entertain instead of inform how the real and the truth fall victim to the demand to tell entertaining stories and how editors must compromise their professional ethics as a result Drawing on interviews with 75 North American and European editors that explore their experiences and opinions of reality and documentary television practices and their views on their responsibilities and loyalties in the field Creating Reality in Factual Television illuminates the real and potential ethical dilemmas of editorial decision making the context in which decisions are made and how editors themselves validate the editing choices to themselves and others Addressing a dramatic development in contemporary media ecology the age of alternative facts this book is a useful research tool for scholars and students of documentary film media literacy genre studies media ethics affect theory and audience perception TV Cops Jonathan Nichols-Pethick,2012 The police drama has been one of the longest running and most popular genres in American television In TV Cops Jonathan Nichols Pethick argues that perhaps more than any other genre the police series in all its manifestations from Hill Street Blues to Miami Vice to The Wire embodies the full range of the cultural dynamics of television Exploring the textual industrial and social contexts of police shows on American television this book demonstrates how polices drama play a vital role in the way we understand and engage issues of social order that most of us otherwise experience only in such abstractions as laws and crime statistics And given the current diffusion and popularity of the form we might ask a number of questions that deserve serious critical attention Under what circumstances have stories about the police proliferated in popular culture What function do these stories serve for both the television industry and its audiences Why have these stories become so commercially viable for the television industry in particular How do stories about the police help us understand current social and political debates about crime about the communities we live in and about our identities as citizens Focus On: 100 Most Popular Television Series by Sony Pictures Television Wikipedia contributors, Screening Gender Heike Paul,2007 Mediated Images of the South Alison Slade,Dedria Givens-Carroll,Amber J. Narro,2012-01-01 Mediated Images of the South The Portrayal of Dixie in Popular Culture edited by Slade Givens Carroll and Narro seeks to explore and understand the impact of the image of the Southerner within mass communication and popular culture by looking at images in politics film television public relations advertising sports and social media
