Janet Moscrop, Joy Robbins, 2013-11-11 This third edition of a popular textbook has been completely revised by the joint editors Janet Moscrop and Joy Robbins As in previous editions the focus is on the person dying at home in residential care or in hospital and the emphasis is on teamwork in caring for the individual and their relatives and friends Experts in all aspects of care have contributed to this complete revision of the previous text and each chapter is written by a different member of the multiprofessional team The chapter on the terminal care of people suffering from AIDS has been enlarged and consideration is also given to care of those in the terminal stages of other non malignant diseases Other new material includes chapters on complementary therapy the use of the day centre the value of volunteers diversional therapy and respite care The chapter on bereavement covers many aspects of grief and loss and there is a sensitive approach to the need for supporting staff in this specialized work Consideration is also given to the needs of dying and grieving people from differing ethnic backgrounds with varying cultural expectations in a pluralistic society The third edition offers a broad overview of the support given to the dying person and the carers by medical and nursing staff physiotherapists pharmacists social workers the chaplaincy and members of the pastoral care team Students of all these disciplines should find this book both readable and informative Complementary Medicine British Medical Association, 1993 The wide range of complementary therapies available such as acupuncture iridology chiropractry and reflexology may be confusing for the consumer It is often difficult to ascertain whether the therapist is registered with an appropriate body and competent to practice Patients should be protected against unskilled or unscrupulous practitioners of complementary medicine This authoritative report from the BMA provides a comprehensive account of the historical background and current practice of complementary medicine in this country It also gives an overview of parallel developments across Europe and assesses the likely impact of EC legislation on the practice of complementary therapies Detailed information has been provided by key bodies representing different therapies in a unique BMA survey of their practice training research and organization The book concludes with a positive model of good practice and a series of helpful recommendations to protect the patient from possible harm and maximize the potential benefits of different treatments

The Gift of Healing Dr. Rev. Diana B. St. Clair, 2016-12-23 The Bible is a divine guide that shows what we need to do to avoid sickness and disease so why dont people use it as such Dr Rev Diana B St Clair an ordained minister proves that everyone has the gift to heal in this detailed thesis that she wrote for the doctorate program at Metropolitan University She looks to the ancient prophets of long ago the Christian Holy Bible and historical events to unlock how we can access this hidden power She also examines how Native Americans used healing techniques the use of gemstones in healing how Jesus healed and the work pastoral counselors have done to promote healing She backs up her arguments with additional research and case studies In explaining how we can heal ourselves and others she looks closely at the soul which we often think of as the spark of God within us She also examines the conscious and subconscious aspects of God Stay vibrant in mind body and spirit by learning the parallels between ancient healing practices Christianity and modern medicine in The Gift of Healing
