Reading Dancing Bodies And Subjects In Contemporary American Dance:

Reading Dancing Susan Leigh Foster, 1986 Winner of the Dance Perspectives Foundation de la Torre Bueno Prize Recent approaches to dance composition seen in the works of Merce Cunningham and the Judson Church performances of the early 1960s suggest the possibility for a new theory of choreographic meaning Borrowing from contemporary semiotics and post structuralist criticism Reading Dancing outlines four distinct models for representation in dance which are illustrated first through an analysis of the works of contemporary choreographers Deborah Hay George Balanchine Martha Graham and Merce Cunningham and then through reference to historical examples beginning with court ballets of the Renaissance The comparison of these four approaches to representation affirms the unparalleled diversity of choreographic methods in American dance and also suggests a critical perspective from which to reflect on dance making and viewing

Carolers in Context Lynneth Miller Renberg, Bradley Phillis, 2021-03-22 The Cursed Carolers in Context explores the interplay between the forms and contexts in which the tale of the cursed carolers circulated and the meanings it had for medieval and early modern authors and audiences The story of the cursed carolers has circulated in Europe since the eleventh century In this story a group of people in a village in Saxony skip Christmas mass to perform a circle dance in the cemetery only to be cursed and forced to keep dancing for a whole year By approaching the story in specific historical contexts this book shows how the story of the cursed carolers became a space in which medieval readers writers and listeners could debate the meaning and significance of a surprising variety of questions including ecclesiastical authority gender roles pastoral responsibility and even the conduct of crusades This consideration of the interplay between text and context sheds new light on how and why the story of the dancers achieved such popularity in the Middle Ages and how its meanings developed and changed throughout the period This book will appeal to scholars and students of medieval European history literature and dance as well as those interested in cultural history

Choreography and Corporeality Thomas F. DeFrantz, Philipa Rothfield, 2016-09-14 This book renews thinking about the moving body by drawing on dance practice and performance from across the world Eighteen internationally recognised scholars show how dance can challenge our thoughts and feelings about our own and other cultures our emotions and prejudices and our sense of public and private space In so doing they offer a multi layered response to ideas of affect and emotion culture and politics and ultimately the place of dance and art itself within society The chapters in this collection arise from a number of different political and historical contexts By teasing out their detail and situating dance within them art is given a political charge That charge is informed by the work of Michel Foucault Stuart Hall Gilles Deleuze Jacques Derrida Rancière and Luce Irigaray as well as their forebears such as Spinoza Plato and Freud Taken together Choreography and Corporeality RELAY in Motion puts thought into motion without forgetting its origins in the social world Further Steps 2 Constance Kreemer, 2014-05-01 Further Steps 2 brings together New York's foremost choreographers among them MacArthur Genius award winners Meredith Monk and Bill T Jones to discuss the past present and future of dance in the US In a series of exclusive and enlightening interviews this diverse selection of artists discuss the changing roles of race gender politics and the social environment on their work Bringing her own experience of the New York dance scene to her study Constance Kreemer traces the lives and works of the following choreographers Lucinda Childs Douglas Dunn Molissa Fenley Rennie Harris Bill T Jones Kenneth King Nancy Meehan Meredith Monk Rosalind Newman Gus Solomons jr Doug Varone Dan Wagoner Mel Wong and Jawole Zollar Novel Gazing Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick, 1997-12-15 This is the first collection of queer criticism on the history of the novel Eve Sedgwick has brought together contributors to navigate this new territory through discussions of a wide range of British French and American novels including canonical Merce Cunningham Carrie Noland, 2020-01-23 One of the most influential choreographers of the twentieth century Merce Cunningham is known for introducing chance to dance Far too often however accounts of Cunningham's work have neglected its full scope focusing on his collaborations with the visionary composer John Cage or insisting that randomness was the singular goal of his choreography In this book the first dedicated to the complete arc of Cunningham's career Carrie Noland brings new insight to this transformative artist's philosophy and work providing a fresh perspective on his artistic process while exploring aspects of his choreographic practice never studied before Examining a rich and previously unseen archive that includes photographs film footage and unpublished writing by Cunningham Noland counters prior understandings of Cunningham's influential embrace of the unintended demonstrating that Cunningham in fact set limits on the role chance played in his dances Drawing on Cunningham's written and performed work Noland reveals that Cunningham introduced variables before the chance procedure was applied and later shaped and modified the chance results Chapters explore his relation not only to Cage but also Marcel Duchamp Robert Rauschenberg James Joyce and Bill T Jones Ultimately Noland shows that Cunningham approached movement as more than movement in itself and that his work enacted archetypal human dramas This remarkable book will forever change our appreciation of the choreographer's work and legacy How To Do Things with Dance Rebekah J. Kowal, 2010-10-01 Winner of the CORD Outstanding Publication Award 2012 In postwar America any assertion of difference from the mainstream anticommunist culture carried professional and personal risks For this reason modern dance artists left much of what they thought unsaid Instead they expressed themselves in movement How To Do Things with Dance positions modern dance as a vital critical discourse and suggests that dances of the late 1940s and the 1950s can be seen as compelling agents of social change Concentrating on choreographers whose artistic work conceived dance in terms of action Rebekah J Kowal shows how specific choreographic projects demonstrated increasing awareness of the stage as a penetrable space one on which socially suspect or marginalized modes of being could be performed with relative impunity and exerted in the real world Artists covered include Martha Graham Jos Lim n Anna Sokolow Katherine Dunham Pearl Primus Merce Cunningham Paul Taylor Donald McKayle Talley Beatty and Anna Halprin Ebook Edition Note All images have been redacted
