Exoticisation undressed Dimitrios Theodossopoulos,2016-07-05 Exoticisation undressed is an innovative ethnography that makes visible the many layers through which our understandings of indigenous cultures are filtered and their inherent power to distort and refract understanding The book focuses in detail on the clothing practices of the Ember in Panama an Amerindian ethnic group who have gained national and international visibility through their engagement with indigenous tourism The very act of gaining visibility while wearing indigenous attire has encouraged among some Ember communities a closer identification with an indigenous identity and a more confident representational awareness The clothes that the Ember wear are not simply used to convey messages but also become constitutive of their intended messages By wearing indigenous and modern clothes the Ember who are often seen by outsiders as shadows of a vanishing world reclaim their place as citizens of a contemporary nation Through reflexive engagement Exoticisation undressed exposes the workings of ethnographic nostalgia and the Western quest for a singular primordial authenticity unravelling instead new layers of complexity that reverse and subvert exoticisation conocimiento a través de las leyes. En este trabajo se analizaron dos estudios de caso. El primero corresponde a la relación entre pescadores de Taganga Santa Marta y un biólogo que elabora un inventario florístico; el segundo a la relación entre campesinos y una estudiante de doctorado en Agroecología que necesita unas muestras de suelo para analizar la biodiversidad microbiana en el Parque Nacional Natural Los Nevados. El estudio concluyó que los investigadores de estos proyectos buscan solucionar problemas de las comunidades a través de su exploración, lo que demuestra que vale la pena analizar nuevas formas de investigación que ayuden a superar el problema de la desarticulación en torno al intercambio de conocimiento.
