The United Nations Commission on Human Rights John P. Pace, 2020 This book provides a comprehensive account of the United Nations human rights programme written by a world leading expert with over 30 years experience in the organization It takes a chronological approach starting with the launch of the Commission on Human Rights in 1946 and concluding with proposals for the future

The Investigative Enterprise William Coleman, Frederic L. Holmes, 2024-03-29 The seven distinguished contributors to this volume illuminate not only the history of the biological and medical sciences but also the relationship between institutes and ideas which characterized the explosion of scientific investigation especially in Germany Besides William Coleman and Frederic L Holmes they include Robert G Frank Jr Timothy Lenoir John E Lesch Kathryn M Olesko and Arlene M Tuchman Scientific investigation was not new to the nineteenth century but it was during that period that it began to be carried out on a scale large enough to become crucial to the welfare of nations Much remains to be learned about how the forms of organization characteristic of the modern investigative enterprise originated This book explores such questions in relation to one of the dominant experimental sciences of the century physiology Each author shows through the examination of a specific institute or a specific subject that the interplay between research pedagogy personal vision and state or public interests can be studied to particular advantage in localized settings This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1988
