What we learn and when we learn it: sensitive periods in development Etienne De Villers-Sidani, Virginia Penhune, 2014-11-21 The impact of training or experience is not the same at all points in development Children who receive music lessons or learn a second language before age 7-8 are more proficient as adults Early exposure to drugs or trauma makes people more likely to become addicted or depressed later in life Rat pups exposed to specific frequencies from 9-13 days post partum show expanded cortical representations of these frequencies Young birds must hear and copy their native song within 1-2 months of birth or they may never learn it at all These are examples of sensitive periods developmental windows where maturation and specific experience interact to produce differential long term effects on the brain and behavior While still controversial evidence for the existence of sensitive periods has grown as has our understanding of the underlying mechanisms of brain plasticity Behavioral evidence from studies of language psychopathology or vision in humans has been complemented by evidence elucidating molecular gene and hormonal mechanisms in animals It has been proposed that sensitive periods can be both opened and closed by specific experience and that there are multiple overlapping sensitive periods that occur throughout development as functions come on line It is also likely that experience dependent behavioral or brain plasticity accrued during one sensitive period can serve as a scaffold on which later experience and plasticity can build Based on current knowledge there are a number of broad questions and challenges to be addressed in this domain these include generating new information about the neurobiological mediators of structural and functional changes proposing models of brain development that will better predict when sensitive periods should occur and what functions are implicated investigation of the interaction between experience during a sensitive period and pre existing individual differences and the relationship between experience during a sensitive period and on going experience The goal of this Research Topic is to bring together scientists in different fields whose work addresses these issues including animal and human developmental neuroscience language and cognitive development education developmental psychopathology and sensory neuroscience Attachment Theory Applied Mario Mikulincer, Phillip R. Shaver, 2023-06-20 In this compelling book prominent investigators Mario Mikulincer and Phillip R Shaver review the state of the science of attachment based interventions in psychotherapy and beyond They critically evaluate a range of programs that aim to strengthen parent child couple and therapist client relationships The theoretical and empirical underpinnings of each intervention are examined as are specific techniques used to enhance felt security and foster personal growth The book also looks at evidence based interventions outside the mental health domain including programs that target teacher student relationships and academic performance Looking to the future the authors discuss emerging applications of attachment theory in medicine and health care management and organizational behavior and group and intergroup processes See also the related work from Mikulincer and Shaver Attachment Theory Expanded Security Dynamics in Individuals Dyads Groups and Societies Resources in Education ,1989 Oxford Textbook of Children's Sport and Exercise Medicine Neil Armstrong, Willem Van Mechelen, 2023 The 4th edition of the Oxford Textbook of Children's Sport and Exercise Medicine is the definitive single volume reference in the field presented in four sections Exercise Science Exercise Medicine Sport Science and Sport Medicine Medico-pharmaceutical Critic and Guide William Josephus Robinson, 1928 Research in Education ,1970 Handbook of Early Literacy Research, Volume 1 Susan B. blooded born reversed living mirrors of the unseen But in North Africa they are known simply as Zohri Marked at birth by strange signs a line splitting the palm mirror like eyes a star shaped crown of hair the Zohri are not like others They are not just human They are born between worlds Some say they come when the veil is thinnest Others whisper they are never truly born at all only revealed Legends across cultures agree these individuals are rare gifted and dangerous to the order of things They are sensitive to energies no one else feels They dream of places they ve never seen and wake with knowledge they were never taught They find things that were never meant to be found They hear the silence behind reality and sometimes it speaks back Some call them soul walkers Others call them cursed But the Zohri are not easily defined This book is not fiction It is a revelation The Zohri pulls back the veil on an ancient mystery one that touches folklore metaphysics spiritual psychology and real world experience Through personal testimony cultural legend and unseen truths the author himself a Zohri explores How Zohri are marked at birth through signs visions and sacred bloodlines The connection between Zohri jinn dreams and parallel spiritual dimensions How they absorb energy suffer spiritual attacks and undergo awakenings or breakdowns Why they attract both healers and predators prophets and shadow forces What roles they play in the hidden architecture of fate prophecy and spiritual warfare How sacred nights like Laylat al Qadr solstices and eclipses affect them Why some thrive in their gift and others fall into madness or exile Whether you re a seeker a skeptic or someone who s felt different your entire life The Zohri will challenge what you think you know about destiny energy and the invisible layers of existence This is not mythology This is not fantasy This is the path of the Zohri and perhaps your path too
