Serbian Legacy:

Serbian Legacy Cecil Stewart, 1960 Presentation of the art and architecture of Serbia relating especially to history society and Moslem influence The Legacy of Serbia's Great War Alex Tomić, 2024-01-05 In the winter of 1915 following the invasion of Serbia by the Central Powers the Serbian Army retreated across the mountains of Albania and Montenegro together with thousands of civilians Around 240 000 lost their lives Today the story of the retreat is little known except in Serbia where it represents the heroic Serbian sacrifice in the Great War In this book Alex Tomic examines the centenary events memorializing the First World War with the retreat at its core and provides a persuasive account of the ways in which the remembrance of Serbian history has been manipulated for political purposes Whether through commemorations ceremonies or grass root initiatives she demonstrates how these have been used as distractions from the more recent unexamined past and in doing so provides an important new perspective on the cultural history of commemoration

Balkan Legacies John Paul Newman, Balázs Apor, 2021-06-15 Balkan Legacies is a study of the aftermath of war and state socialism in the contemporary Balkans The authors look at the inescapable inheritances of the recent past and those that the present has to deal with The book's key theme is the interaction often subliminal of the experiences of war and socialism in contemporary society in the region Fifteen contributors approach this topic from a range of disciplinary backgrounds and through a variety of interpretive lenses collectively drawing a composite picture of the most enduring legacies of conflict and ideological transition in the region without neglecting national and local peculiarities The guiding questions addressed are what is the relationship between memories of war dictatorship communist or fascist and present day identity especially from the perspective of peripheral and minority groups and individuals How did these components interact with each other to produce the political and social culture of the Balkan Peninsula today The answers show the ways in which the experiences of the latter part of the twentieth century have defined and shaped the region in the twenty first century

The cultural & heritage guide for Serbia , 2025-09-24 National-Socialist Archaeology in Europe and its Legacies Martijn Eickhoff, Daniel Modl, Katie Meheux, Erwin Nuijten, 2023-08-14 This edited volume is dedicated to national socialist archaeology as a Europe wide phenomenon It analyses national socialist attempts to denationalize the archaeologies of European nations by creating a new unifying European archaeology on a racial basis From the beginning of the nineteenth century archaeology began to develop into an important force behind processes of nation building At the same time structures of transnational academic collaboration contributed strongly to the internal dynamics of the research field which was primarily organized on a national basis In those European countries that were confronted with national socialist occupation and repression between 1939 and 1945 these transnational archaeological networks were to prove crucial for the development of national socialist archaeological policies This volume will reveal how national socialist archaeology was to an extent valued positively in its time as highly innovative even influencing the archaeology of non occupied countries

Although in the final instance it generally failed to displace the national archaeologies in Europe the volume also analyses the long term impact of national socialist rule on the development of European archaeology How did the attempts to create a unified European archaeology after 1945 continue to influence networks methods and terminologies institutional structures or popular representations of the early past Chapter 1 Is available open access under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International License via Springerlink

Serbia's Historical Heritage Alex N. Dragnich, 1994 In a convenient concise format Serbia's Historical Heritage explodes general perceptions of Serbia the Balkans as developmentally backwards This work documents how Serbian society developed recognized cultural monuments in the Middle Ages how the nation evolved into an ideal parliamentary state and how Serbia fought and sacrificed in both World Wars on the Allied side

Sacralizing the Nation through Remembrance of Medieval Religious Figures in Serbia, Bulgaria and Macedonia Stefan Rohdewald, 2022-05-20 Religious figures of remembrance served to consolidate first dynastic rule and later nation state legitimacy and community This book explains the interweaving of Eastern Roman medieval Serbian and Bulgarian contexts as well as Ottoman and Western European national discourses or reinvented traditions We can distinguish a secularization and nationalization of the religious contexts in the 19th century within historicism followed by a nationalization of God and a sacralization of the nation until the end of WWII Contrary to the national views the origins of the modern content of these discourses lie only to a very limited extent in the Middle Ages or in the Early Modern period as this study shows Please note this is volume 2 of a 2 volume set Click here to see volume 1

The Foreign Policy of Serbia (1844-1867): Ilija Garašanin's Načertanije Dušan T. Bataković, 2014 Contemporary analysis of Serbia's foreign policy in the middle of the nineteenth century has remained in a deep shadow of the Načertanije a document conceived in 1844 in Belgrade as a result of collaboration between Serbia's interior minister Ilija Garašanin and F A Zach the representative of the Polish political emigration from Paris led by Prince A Czartoryski in the capital of the autonomous Principality of Serbia Prince Czartoryski author of Councils for Serbia's foreign policy in 1843 considered Serbia the sole semi independent state among Slavs in South Eastern Europe a nucleus of a wider Serbia led South Slav state that might endorse an anti Russian and anti Austrian policy as a support for his wider plans regarding the restoration of independent Poland The over ambitious pan Slav project of F Zach Serbia's Slavic Policy was eventually modified by Garašanin to a more realistic and attainable plan in accordance with Serbia's modest demographic and military potential limited international experience and still humble administrative capacities Planning the unification of the predominantly Serb inhabited lands under Ottoman rule was appropriately adapted to the geopolitical realities of 1844 The foreign policy of Serbia under Garašanin during the rule of the pro Austrian Prince Alexander Karadjordjevi and Garašanin's premiership under Russophile Prince Michael Obrenovi was balancing between various political options that were dominating Europe and the Balkans between the 1848 Revolution and the Crimean War and the first Balkan Alliance Garašanin was continuously prudent and bold in pursuing realistic political ambitions regarding large scale anti Ottoman activities by building a network of confidants and agents throughout Turkey in Europe that was to form a joint insurrection against the Ottoman rule During its last phase Garašanin's foreign policy gradually evolved into the direction of closer Yugoslav and Balkan cooperation Back cover
