My Words Will Not Pass Away Martin Hogan, 2021-09-01 Heaven and earth will pass away but my words will not pass away Luke 21:33 At the weekday Eucharist we read from sections of all four gospels in the course of the liturgical year The reflections in this book are based predominantly on the gospel readings for the weekdays of the coming liturgical year 2021-22 with occasional references to the first reading They follow the sequence of the weeks of the calendar year beginning on the 29th November Monday of the first week of Advent In the course of the liturgical year the gospel readings present us with a significant selection of the words and deeds of Jesus from all four gospels In and through these gospel readings we encounter the living word of the risen Lord to his church There is rich fare here to nourish our faith life and to help us to grow in our knowledge and love of the Lord These short reflections attempt to listen to the Scripture passages on their own terms while showing how they can continue to speak to our church and our world today Many people feel drawn to basing their prayer on the Scriptures in particular the gospels It is hoped that these reflections will serve as a help to prayer for people of faith They may also be of service to priests who seek to offer a short reflection on the gospel reading of the day to their parishioners In parishes where from time to time there is a Liturgy of the Word in place of Mass the Minister of the Word might read the corresponding reflection after the gospel reading On most week days the same readings are proclaimed in the church throughout the world in the setting of the Eucharist To read and reflect upon the readings for the weekdays of the liturgical year is to go on a spiritual journey with the universal church

Testament, 20-50 Saint Augustine (of Hippo), 1990

You Have the Words of Eternal Life Martin Hogan, 2020-07-31

Many people feel drawn to basing their prayer on the Scriptures in particular the gospels These short reflections attempt to listen to the gospel text on its own terms while showing how it can continue to speak to our church and our world today The book will appeal to priests in parishes who may wish to prepare a short homily for the weekday Mass as well as to parishioners who wish to prayerfully reflect on the weekday gospel readings as well as Lectio Divina groups in parishes The calendar of the book helps the busy presider as the reflections are linked to the readings by calendar date rather than the church calendar

The Reading and Preaching of the Scriptures in the Worship of the Christian Church, Volume 2 Hughes Oliphant Old, 1998 Hughes Oliphant Old surveys the history of preaching in the Greek schools of Alexandria and Antioch in the Syriac church and throughout the Christian Empire concluding with the preaching of Leo the Great Peter Chrysologos and Gregory I

The Reading and Preaching of the Scriptures in the Worship of the Christian Church: The medieval church Hughes

Oliphant Old, 1998 The Reading and Preaching of the Scriptures in the Worship of the Christian Church is a multivolume study by Hughes Oliphant Old that canvasses the history of preaching from the words of Moses at Mount Sinai through modern times. In Volume 1 The Biblical Period Old begins his survey by discussing the roots of the Christian ministry of the Word in the worship of Israel. He then examines the preaching of Christ and the Apostles. Finally Old looks at the development and practice of Christian preaching in the second and third centuries concluding with the ministry of Origen.

How to Prepare Sermons and Gospel Addresses William Evans, 1913      Sermons on the First Readings: Cycle C Steven E. Albertin, Charles D. Reeb, Richard Gribble, 2003 Filled with wit, insight and inspiration this anthology includes sermons for every Sunday and major celebration throughout the Christian year based on the First Readings from Cycle C of the Revised Common Lectionary. Three outstanding preachers from diverse denominational backgrounds interpret texts from the Old Testament and Acts in fresh ways that proclaim the good news for the twenty first century. Their powerful messages remind us that the Hebrew scriptures are much more than just ancient history and explore what they mean for us today. Proclaiming timeless themes of justice and righteousness as well as God's faithful covenant and enduring forgiveness these imaginative homilies call us to lead better, more God centered lives. This is an essential resource that's useful for fresh homiletical approaches to the lectionary texts. Preaching illustrations: A clearer understanding of scripture passages. Adult study and discussion groups. Personal devotions and Bible study on each Sunday's texts. The illustrations in these sermons taken from both classical and common sources as well as personal experiences are worth the price of the book. I'll buy any book of sermons that gives me one or two good illustrations that are fresh and believable. Charles Reeb is a master at illustrating his points. John K. Bergland, Former Professor of Preaching and Associate Dean, Duke Divinity School. Former editor, Abingdon Preaching Annual. The Reading and Preaching of the Scriptures in the Worship of the Christian Church, Volume 1 Hughes Oliphant Old, 1998 In this volume Hughes Oliphant Old begins his survey of the history of preaching by discussing the roots of the Christian ministry of the Word in the worship of Israel. He then examines the preaching of Christ, the Apostles and early church leaders. I
