Serpent And The Goddess Women Religion And Power In Celtic Ireland:

The Serpent and the Goddess Mary Condren, 1989      The Field Day Anthology of Irish Writing Seamus Deane, Andrew Carpenter, Angela Bourke, Jonathan Williams, 1991      Celtic Women's Spirituality Edain McCoy, 1998 The Celts provide strong accessible images of powerful women This work illustrates how the reader can create a personalized pathway linking two important aspects of self the feminine and the hereditary or adopted Celt and as a result enable her to become a whole powerful woman      Melusine the Serpent Goddess in A. S. Byatt's Possession and in Mythology Gillian M. E. Alban, 2003-01-01 Melusine the Serpent Goddess in Myth and Literature examines how women were once worshipped as the life force but later suppressed with the introduction of monotheism and a changing attitude regarding the sexes It connects the literary conception of the Melusine story to myths and legends of the snake or dragon goddess from ancient to contemporary times      She Is Everywhere! Volume 3 Mary Beth Moser, Mary Saracino, 2012-02-15 She Is Everywhere Volume 3 presents a bold brave and beautiful compilation of womanist feminist essays poems and artwork showcasing work from an international community of women and men who honor the Sacred Female The fifty contributors in this anthology scholars creative writers and visual artists share their vision for a world that reclaims the inviolability of the Divine Female in all Her many and varied manifestations She Is Everywhere Volume 3 is the latest edition of a leading edge series which like its predecessors offers an invaluable contribution to women's spirituality religion philosophy and women's studies The contemporary voices contained within its pages echo an ancient clarion call to embrace the values of justice with compassion equality for all people and transformation We have a calling in this world namely to prevent the destruction from continuing Claudia von Werlhof I am in the presence of a divine Mother and She is fulfilling a deep longing inside of me Nicole Margiasso Tran She was I am my daughter is because we are all Her Etoyle McKee Just as dark matter mother in space shapes galaxies and holds them together we are shaped and held by the African Dark Mother who has given us Her life force and resides in the very depths of our being where the macrocosm is literally reflected in the microcosm Leslene della Madre      Religion and the Politics of Peace and Conflict Linda Hogan, Dylan Lee Lehrke, 2009-01-01 The connections between religion and violence are complex and multifaceted From the conflicts in Middle East and the Balkans to those in Southeast Asia and beyond religion frames and legitimates political violence Moreover in international relations since 9 11 religious language and metaphors have acquired a new significance In this context the emerging consensus appears to be not only that violence is intrinsic to religion but also that religions incite legitimate and intensify political violence However such an unambiguous indictment of religions is incomplete in that it fails both to appreciate significant counter examples and to recognize the diversity that exists within religions on the issue of violence particularly the religious roots of pacifism and the ethics of non violence This collection explores aspects of this ambivalence between religion and violence It focuses on traditions of legitimation and pacifism within the three monotheistic religions Judaism Christianity and Islam and concludes with an examination of this ambivalence as it unfolds in each tradition's engagement with the politics of gender

Emerging Voices Pat O'Connor, 1998      A Halfway House for Women Gail A. Caputo, 2014-07-01 Although halfway houses have been touted for years as affirmative rehabilitation locations that ready women for life in the outside world in this remarkable case study Gail Caputo shows how these places reinforce patterns of control and abuse that reaffirm the dependency and victimization of the inmates Based on observations made while living and working alongside women at a halfway house within the prison system in a city in the Northeast Caputo's analysis is anchored in the words and experiences of over a dozen women Organized according to the progression of levels residents traverse during their time in the house and the rules and behaviors associated with each level Caputo offers a riveting look at what passes for rehabilitation and reintegration in such places and delineates the many ways these women retain agency by resisting regulations designed to keep them in their place      A History of the World's Religions David S. Noss, Blake R. Grangaard, 2017-12-22 A History of the World's Religions bridges the interval between the founding of religions and their present state and gives students an accurate look at the religions of the world by including descriptive and interpretive details from original source materials Refined by over forty years of dialogue and correspondence with religious experts and practitioners around the world A History of the World's Religions is widely regarded as the hallmark of scholarship fairness and accuracy in its field It is also the most thorough yet manageable history of world religion available in a single volume A History of the World's Religions examines the following topics Some Primal and Bygone Religions The Religions of South Asia The Religions of East Asia The Religions of the Middle East This fourteenth edition is fully updated throughout with new images and inset text boxes to help guide students and instructors Complete with figures timelines and maps this is an ideal resource for anyone wanting an accessible and comprehensive introduction to the world's religions      The Irish Issue: the British Question Feminist Review Collective, 1995 A unique combination of the activist and the academic Feminist Review has an acclaimed place within women's studies courses and the women's movement Feminist Review is produced by a London based editorial collective and publishes and reviews work by women featuring articles on feminist theory race class and sexuality women's history cultural studies black and third world feminism poetry photography letters and much more Feminist Review is available both on subscription and from bookstores For a Free Sample Copy or further subscription details please contact Trevina Johnson Routledge Subscriptions ITPS Ltd Cheriton House North Way Andover SP10 5BE UK      Feminist Poetics of the Sacred Frances Devlin-Glass, Lyn McCredden, 2001 This is a multicultural study of ancient contemporary texts that encode women's spirituality It includes both contemporary historical contexts tracing the roles actions beliefs of women in pre-Christian Christian Islamic contexts      The Well of Remembrance Ralph Metzner, 2001-05-01 In his introduction to The Well of Remembrance author Ralph Metzner provides a telling explanation of the theme of his work This book explores some of the mythic roots of the Western worldview the worldview of the culture that for better and worse has come to dominate most of the rest of the world's peoples. This domination has involved not only economic and political systems but also values, basic attitudes, religious beliefs, language, scientific understanding, and technological applications. Many individuals, tribes, and nations are struggling to free themselves from the residues of the ideological oppression practiced by what they see as Eurocentric culture. They seek to define their own ethnic or national identities by referring to ancestral traditions and mythic patterns of knowledge. At this time it seems appropriate for Europeans and Euro-Americans likewise to probe their own ancestral mythology for insight and self-understanding. Focusing on the mythology and worldview of the pre-Christian Germanic tribes of Northern Europe, Metzner offers a meaningful exploration of Western ancestry.

Feminism and World Religions Arvind Sharma, Katherine K. Young, 1999-01-01. Addressing religion and feminism on a global scale, this unprecedented book contains a nuanced and fine-tuned treatment of seven of the world's religions from a feminist perspective by leading women scholars. The fact that these authors share a dual but undivided commitment both to themselves as women and to their traditions as adherents imparts to their voices a prophetic quality and if Mahatma Gandhi is to be believed, even scriptural value.

"We Three" Laura Annawyn Shamas, 2007. Original Scholarly Monograph.

Heart of Flesh Joan Chittister, 1998-04-28. Criticizes the patriarchal world view, outlines the historical realities that have produced a culture that glorifies violence and domination, and argues for a worldview that recognizes the full humanity of women.

Christian Goddess Spirituality Mary Ann Beavis, 2015-10-08. This monograph focuses on Christian Goddess Spirituality (CGS), the phenomenon of mostly women who combine Christianity and Goddess Spirituality, including Wicca and Witchcraft. Mary Ann Beavis's study provides ethnographic data and analysis on the lived religious experience of CGS practitioners, drawing on interviews of over 100 women who self-identify as combining Christianity and Goddess spirituality. Although CGS also has implications for Goddess Spirituality and related traditions (e.g., Neopaganism, Wicca), here CGS is considered primarily as a phenomenon within Christianity. However, the study also shows that the fusion of Christian and Goddess spiritualities has had an impact on non-Christian feminist spirituality, since Goddess worshippers have often constructed Christianity as the diametrical opposite and enemy of the Goddess to the point that some refuse to admit the possibility that CGS is a valid spiritual path or that it is even possible. In addition, biblical, Jewish, and Christian images of the divine, such as Sophia, Shekhinah, the Virgin Mary, and even Mary Magdalene, have found their way into the Pagan Goddess pantheon. The main themes of the study include overlaps and differences between Christian feminist theology and CGS, the routes to CGS for individual practitioners, and their beliefs, practices, and experiences. Proto-denominational classifications, spiritual paths within CGS, CGS theology, Christian discourse about the female divine, and the future of CGS in social, scientific, and ecclesiological context. Christian Goddess Spirituality will be of interest to scholars of religion, especially those with interests in women and religion, feminist spiritualities, feminist theology, alternative spiritualities, New Religious Movements, and emergent Christianities.
