Sex Versus Civilization:

Sex Versus Civilization Elmer Pendell, 1967 Sex in Civilization Victor Francis Calverton, Samuel Daniel Schmalhausen, 1929 Several pages on homosexuality see index Sexual Truths Versus Sexual Lies, Misconceptions, and Exaggerations William Josephus Robinson, 1919 Indian Sex Life Durba Mitra, 2020-01-07 During the colonial period Indian intellectuals philologists lawyers scientists and literary figures all sought to hold a mirror to their country Whether they wrote novels polemics or scientific treatises all sought a better understanding of society in general and their society in particular Curiously female sexuality and sexual behavior play an outside role in their writing The figure of the prostitute is ubiquitous in everything from medical texts and treatises on racial evolution to anti Muslim polemic and studies of ancient India In this book Durba Mitra argues that between the 1840s and the 1940s the new science of sexuality became foundational to the scientific study of Indian social progress The colonial state and an emerging set of Bengali male intellectuals extended the regulation of sexuality to far reaching projects that sought to define what society should look like and how modern citizens should behave An exploration of this history of social scientific thought offers new perspectives to understand the power of paternalistic and deeply violent claims about sexual norms in the postcolonial world today These histories reveal the enduring authority of scientific claims to a tradition that equates social good with the control of women s free will and desire Thus they managed to dramatically reorganize their society around upper caste Hindu ideals of strict monogamy The Sexual Contract Carole Pateman, 2018-06-05 Carole Pateman is one of the foremost political theorists writing in English today In this outstanding new work she presents a major reinterpretation of modern political theory She shows how standard discussions of social contract theory tell only half the story The sexual contract which establishes modern patriarchy and the political right of men over women is never mentioned In a wide ranging and scholarly discussion Pateman examines the significance of the political fictions of the original contract and the slave contract She also offers a sweeping challenge to conventional understandings of both left and right of actual contracts in everyday life the marriage contract the employment contract the prostitution contract and the new surrogacy contract By bringing a feminist perspective to bear on the contradictions and paradoxes surrounding women and contract and the relation between the sexes she is able to shed new light on the fundamental problems of freedom and subordination The Sexual Contract will become a classic text in the politics of gender and will be of major interest to students of social and political theory and philosophy women s studies sociology and jurisprudence Pornography, Sex Work, and Hate Speech Karen Maschke, 2024-11-01 Multidisciplinary focus Surveying many disciplines this anthology brings together an outstanding selection of scholarly articles that examine the profound impact of law on the lives of women in the United States The themes addressed include the historical political and social contexts of legal issues that have affected women s struggles to obtain equal treatment under the law The articles are drawn from journals in law political science history women s studies philosophy and education and represent some of the most interesting writing on the subject The law in theory and practice Many of the articles bring race social and economic factors into their analyses observing for example that black women poor women and single mothers are treated by the wielders of the power of the law differently than middle class white women Other topics covered include the evolution of women's legal status reproduction rights sexuality and family issues equal employment and educational opportunities domestic violence pornography and sexual exploitation hate speech and feminist legal thought A valuable research and classroom aid this series provides in depth coverage of specific legal issues and takes into account the major legal changes and policies that have had an impact on the lives of American women

Gender and Sexuality in Russian Civilisation Peter I. Barta, 2013-06-17 Gender and Sexuality in Russian Civilisation considers gender and sexuality in modern Russia in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Chapters look individually at gender and sexuality through history art folklore philosophy or literature but are also arranged into sections according to the arguments they develop A number of chapters also consider Russia in the Soviet and post Soviet periods Thematic sections include Gender and Power Gender and National Identity Sexual Identity and Artistic Impression Literary Discourse of Male and Female Sexualities Sexuality and Literature in Contemporary Russian Society

The Coupling Convention : Sex, Text, and Tradition in Black Women's Fiction Ann duCille Associate Professor of English and African American Studies Wesleyan University, 1993-10-19 What does the tradition of marriage mean for people who have historically been deprived of its legal status Generally thought of as a convention of the white middle class the marriage plot has received little attention from critics of African American literature In this study Ann duCille uses texts such as Nella Larsen's Quicksand 1928 and Zora Neale Hurston's Their Eyes Were Watching God 1937 to demonstrate that the African American novel like its European and Anglo American counterparts has developed around the marriage plot what she calls the coupling convention Exploring the relationship between racial ideology and literary and social conventions duCille uses the coupling convention to trace the historical development of the African American women's novel She demonstrates the ways in which black women appropriated this novelistic device as a means of expressing and reclaiming their own identity More than just a study of the marriage tradition in black women's fiction however The Coupling Convention takes up and takes on many different meanings of tradition It challenges the notion of a single black literary tradition or of a single black feminist literary canon grounded in specifically black female language and experience as it explores the ways in which white and black male and female mainstream and marginalized traditions and canons have influenced and cross fertilized each other Much more than a period study The Coupling Convention spans the period from 1853 to 1948 addressing the vital questions of gender subjectivity race and the canon that inform literary study today In this original work duCille offers a new paradigm for reading black women's fiction

Sex, Sea, and Self Jacqueline Coulti, 2021 Sex Sea and Self is a timely and original contribution to French Caribbean studies that expands scholarly work on Caribbean thought which does not start with Aimé Césaire's Négritude or Frantz Fanon's disalienation and the creation of a new humanity but with overlooked yet pivotal texts written between 1924 1948
