Sexism Is A Sin:

Sexism is a Sin J. R. Hyland, 1995-01-01      Sexism and Sin-Talk Rachel Sophia Baard, 2020-01-01 Early feminist theologians criticized the Christian doctrine of sin for its focus on female sexual purity and its enabling of the marginalization and oppression of women Others have questioned whether the entire theological category of sin should be abandoned in favor of other ways of talking about the human predicament In this new book Rachel Baard argues for a feminist critique of traditional sin talk alongside a constructive reinterpretation of the doctrine of sin one that can be life affirming for all persons She claims that the Christian idea of sin that tragic flaw at the core of human experience provides one of the best tools for understanding the evils of sexism patriarchy and traditional sin talk itself She likewise provides a new rhetoric of sin talk one that accounts for the diverse experiences of the human family not simply those of powerful men      Sexism and God Talk Rosemary R. Ruether, 1993-04-01 How did a religion whose founding proponents advocated a shocking disregard of earthly ties come to extol the virtues of the traditional family In this richly textured history of the relationship between Christianity and the family Rosemary Radford Ruether traces the development of these centerpieces of modern life to reveal the misconceptions at the heart of the family values debate      ReEngaging ELCA Social Teaching on Faith, Sexism, and Justice Mary J. Streufert, Mary Lowe, 2025-05-15 Mary Elise Lowe and Mary J Streufert call us to think together about the ELCA's 2019 statement on faith sexism and justice What does it mean to embody Lutheran convictions to resist patriarchy and sexism embrace multidimensional sex and gender and envision a world that is life giving for all humans ReEngaging ELCA Social Teaching on Faith Sexism and Justice delivers a clarion call to action Social and religious systems of patriarchy are sinful God intends for God's diverse creation to flourish We are called therefore to resist all barriers to lives of flourishing and abundance for everyone With helpful definitions sprinkled throughout Lowe and Streufert explain how this social statement is grounded in the Scriptures and rooted in Lutheran teachings regarding Christian freedom neighbor justice and the body of Christ Informed by insights from the sciences this social statement brings evolving understandings of sex gender and sexuality into conversation with the Scriptures and Lutheran teachings Readers will be equipped to understand and witness to the biblical vision of abundance that God intends for all humanity In addition to discussion questions and links to recommended resources this book includes heartfelt letters from Lutherans from various walks of life written to girls and women the church Lutheran educators LGBTQIA siblings men and boys and rostered leaders of the ELCA      The Oxford Handbook of Systematic Theology John Webster, Kathryn Tanner, Iain Torrance, 2009-09-10 The Oxford Handbook of Systematic Theology brings together a set of original and authoritative accounts of all the major areas of current research in Christian systematic theology offering a thorough survey of the state of the discipline and of its prospects for those undertaking research and teaching in the field The Handbook engages in a comprehensive examination of themes and approaches guiding the reader through current debates and literatures in the context of the historical development of systematic theological reflection Organized thematically it treats in detail the full array of topics in systematic theology as well as questions of its sources and norms its relation to other theological and non theological fields of enquiry and some major trends in current work Each chapter provides an analysis of research and debate on its topic The focus is on doctrinal rather than historical questions and on major rather than ephemeral debates The aim is to stimulate readers to reach theological judgements on the basis of consideration of the range of opinion Drawn from Europe the UK and North America the authors are all leading practitioners of the discipline Readers will find expert guidance as well as creative suggestions about the future direction of the study of Christian doctrine      The Prophethood of Black Believers James Deotis

Roberts,1994-01-01 This valuable resource from one of the founding fathers of the black theology movement discusses how to minister to the black community Using an interdisciplinary approach J Deotis Toberts shows how theological concepts can be applied to education pastoral care and political and economic issues      Lutheran Identity and Political Theology

Carl-Henric Grenholm,Goran Gunner,2015-03-26 Lutheran tradition has in various ways influenced attitudes to work the economy the state education and health care One reason that Lutheran theology has been interpreted in various ways is that it is always influenced by surrounding social and cultural contexts In a society where the church has lost a great deal of its cultural impact and authority and where there is a plurality of religious convictions the question of Lutheran identity has never been more urgent However this question is also raised in the Global South where Lutheran churches need to find their identity in a relationship with several other religions Here this relationship is developed from a minority perspective Is it possible to develop a Lutheran political theology that gives adequate contributions to issues concerning social and economic justice What is the role of women in church and society around the world Is it possible to interpret Lutheran theology in such a way that it includes liberating perspectives These are some of the questions and issues discussed in this book      Beyond

Heterosexism in the Pulpit Emily Askew,O. Wesley Allen,2015-01-02 This book is not another volume attempting to persuade the reader of the rights of gays and lesbians in society and in the church Instead it assumes the reader is a minister or student of ministry who already has a passion for this issue and is looking for better strategies to speak out of this passion in the pulpit Too often progressive preachers avoid speaking about issues related to sexual orientation out of fear of rejection from the congregation or address them in ways that unintentionally alienates either gay or straight hearers Askew and Allen offer preachers tools for recognizing and prophetically countering heterosexism in the pulpit while being pastoral toward those in the pews who may not hold the same view as the preacher The range of issues found at the intersection of homosexuality and the proclamation of the Christian gospel in light of the church's division and the changing landscape of society's attitudes is diverse and complex Allen and Askew represent the combination of critical theology and contemporary homiletics needed to offer preachers new strategies for advocating against social and ecclesial discrimination directed at homosexuals and for the full inclusion of all in the church      In Defense of the Bible Steven B. Cowan,Terry L.

Wilder, 2018-11-26 In Defense of the Bible gathers exceptional articles by accomplished scholars Paul Copan William A Dembski Mary Jo Sharp Darrell L Bock etc addressing and responding to all of the major contemporary challenges to the divine inspiration and authority of Scripture      Reflections on My Call to Preach Fred B. Craddock, 2009 Travel with revered preacher and author Fred Craddock through his early years as he considers what made him take to the pulpit For some reason I felt I had to say Yes or No to the ministry so I could feel free again My siblings and friends talked almost casually about options and preferences as to careers but with no evident sense of urgency Not so with me I did not then nor do I now know whether the burden of choice was a trait of personality a kind of super conscientiousness whether the calling to ministry itself carried a weight a burden peculiar to the task itself Rightly or wrongly when I thought of possibly becoming a journalist that would be a choice 100 percent mine When I considered becoming a minister that was not totally my decision I was responding to God s will for me Of course I had been told that journalists lawyers teachers merchants farmers all could understand their lives as a vocation a calling but what I am telling you is that I perceived I felt I experienced the idea of being a preacher as different and that difference was sobering even burdensome That s why advice about not being in a hurry taking my time was not helpful even if wise If it was my decision why could I not make it now if it was God s decision why did not God tell me or at least tell my father or my mother I prayed for the ache to leave me Excerpt from Reflections on My Call to Preach
